To Whom It May Concern:

Doug Reynolds, a candidate for Attorney General, released a political ad today that contains a number of false and misleading claims against our current Attorney General.

One particularly egregious claim is that Morrissey "live[s] in Virginia." This claim is knowingly false and was made with actual malice. Patrick Morrissey is the sitting Attorney General, which requires residence in West Virginia. He pays taxes in West Virginia and has never been a resident of the state of Virginia. We have never before seen such a blatant lie.

Broadcast licensees have a legal responsibility to review and to eliminate any false, misleading, or deceptive materials contained in advertising. We urge you to recognize the Reynolds campaign's blatant disregard for the facts and respectfully demand that your station refuse to air this false advertisement. We further request that you reject any attempts by the Reynolds campaign to purchase time for the future airing of this Advertisement because of its material misstatements of fact and blatant disregard for the truth of the matter.

I ask that you please contact me at your earliest convenience at 304-844-9898 or kayla@patrickmorrisey.com to advise as to your station's actions with respect to cessation of the airing of this Advertisement. I will contact you on Wednesday, October 12th if I have not heard from you by this evening.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter. I will anticipate your immediate response.

Respectfully,

Kayla Berube
