

Issues & Programs List

October 1, 2016 – December 31, 2016

Community issues addressed by KRTU programming in this reporting period:

1. Need for access to arts education resources in community
2. Need for increased access and attendance at cultural events in San Antonio
3. Need to promote appreciation for diversity of cultural heritage found in San Antonio
4. Need for access to arts unions and other support groups available to people working in the cultural community

List of specific KRTU programs and programming elements that have addressed these issues is attached.

KRTU Issues and Program List

Reporting Period – April – June 2016

Time-Date		On-Air Guests/Interviews
10/6/2016	10:00 PM	BitForce (SA) Dakota Alplbaum, Stephen Brady Dietert (Ranch House)/ new music release
10/20/2016	10:00 AM	Waxpanel- Live Performance/ new music release
10/27/2016	10:00 PM	Shark Rider (ATX) Live Performance- John Aldridge / Massiver-Jacob Burris/ community event awareness
11/3/2016	11:00 AM	Jacob Eyer - Build SA Green/ community event awareness
11/08/2016	11:00 AM	Kathy Armstrong - Luminaria 2016/ community event awareness
11/9/2016	11:00	Ken Slavin - San Antonio AIDS Foundation/ non-profit benefit concert awareness
11/29/2016	11:00 AM	John Magaldi & Bill Watrous/ educational event awareness
12/2/2016	11:00 AM	Jim Cullum/ jazz history discussion
12/6/2016	11:00 AM	Judi Deleon - Starlite SA / community event awareness

PSA's

Dia de los Muertos

The Esperanza Peace and Justice Center presents a Dia de los Muertos celebration on Tuesday, November 1st from 4PM to 9PM at the Rinconcito de Esperanza located at 816 South Colorado Street. The family-friendly event will feature displays of community altars, live music, face painting, and a procession through the neighborhood. The evening will highlight readings of ofrendas to remember the dead and calavera poems to celebrate the living, and participants will enjoy hot chocolate, tamales, and the traditional pan de muerto. The event is free and open to the public. More information is available at ESPERANZA-CENTER-dot-O-R-G.

Kill Nov 1

The Changing Role of Color in Art

Trinity University's Philosophy Department and the Stieren Arts Enrichment Series will host a public talk on "The Changing Role of Color in Art" by University of Houston professor Dr. Cynthia Freeman on Wednesday, November 2nd from 7:30 PM to 8:30 PM. The event will be held in the Chapman Center Great Hall with a reception to follow, and is free and open to the public. The Stieren Arts Enrichment Series is made possible through an endowment gift from Jane and the late Arthur Stieren of San Antonio. For more information, call (210) 999-8305 or visit the Events page at TRINITY-dot-E-D-U

Kill Nov 2

Alt 2 Hunger

Kill Nov 18

KSYM 90.1 FM presents the 19th annual Alt 2 Hunger at 8 PM on Friday, November 18th at the Limelight. This year's Alt 2 Hunger features live music from a diverse group of local artists, including performances by Doral Club, Junkie, and Voodoo Boogaloo. Admission is five canned goods per person or one frozen turkey for five people. All proceeds benefit St. P.J.'s Children's Home, a nonprofit organization which provides refuge and assistance to children in crisis, including housing support, counseling, and therapy. More information is available at K-S-Y-M-dot-O-R-G

Above printed sometime in October

There's No Place Like Home

Kill Nov. 9

Bexar County Child Protective Services presents "There's No Place Like Home" from 4 PM to 7:30 PM on Wednesday, November 9th at the Freeman Coliseum Expo Hall. "There's No Place Like Home" is a trifecta of events including an Adoption and Foster Recruitment Fair, a Birthday Bash for children who have been adopted in the past, and a Chain of Hearts formed by volunteers dedicated to finding 'forever homes' for children who need them. The event is free and open to the public, and will feature a roll call of Bexar County children still awaiting adoption. For more information, call (210) 631-0120

John Schmutz Book Signing

Kill Nov. 29

The Twig Book Shop presents a book signing by local Civil War author John Schmutz in celebration of his new book, "The Bloody Fifth—The 5th Texas Infantry, Hood's Texas Brigade, Army of Northern Virginia, Vol. 1: Secession to the Suffolk Campaign," on Tuesday, November 29th from 6 PM to 8 PM. Schmutz's definitive study on one of only three Texas regiments to fight with Robert E. Lee's Army of Northern Virginia is based upon years of archival battlefield research on primary sources, many never before used. The result is a lively account of not only the regiment's marches and battles, but also a personal look into the lives of these Texans as they struggled to survive a vicious war 2,000 miles from home. The book signing is free and open to the public. For more information, visit THE-TWIG-dot-COM

Afternoon of Ragtime Piano

Kill Nov. 13

The San Antonio Ragtime Society prevents an afternoon of ragtime piano on Sunday, November 13th from 2 PM to 4 PM at the Radius Center located at 106 Auditorium Circle. The concert is free and open to the public, and features the musical talents of Bryan Wright and Company playing the rags of Scott Joplin, Jelly Roll Morton, Eubie Blake, Joseph Lamb and more. For more information, visit S-A-RAG-TIME-dot-O-R-G

“Sanfoka” Film ScreeningKill Jan. 19

The Carver Cultural Community Center and the Nommo Speaker's Bureau present a night of independent cinema and history, featuring the San Antonio premiere of the classic indie hit film, “Sanfoka,” and a talk with renowned filmmaker Haile Gerima on Thursday, January 19th from 7 PM till 9:45 PM at the Carver Community Cultural Center. Gerima, a prominent member of UCLA's acclaimed LA Rebellion Film Movement, is a fiercely independent storyteller who has blazed the trail for an alternative voice to Hollywood movies. Forty years of filmmaking over a dozen films, cinema advocacy and education has made Gerima a recognized leader in independent cinema across the globe. Tickets are $20 in advance and $25 at the door. For more information, visit THE-CARVER-dot-O-R-G

Fall Four Seasons Indian MarketKill Nov. 19

American Indians in Texas at the Spanish Colonial Missions presents the annual Fall Four Seasons Indian Market on Saturday, November 19th from 10 AM to 2 PM at Mission San Juan Capistrano. This year's market will include hand crafted Native American arts and crafts, jewelry, drumming, dancing, storytelling and a performance by the American Indians in Texas Dance Theatre. The event is free and open to the public. More information is available at A-I-T-S-C-M-dot-O-R-G

Robert Johnson Sessions CelebrationKill Nov. 19

The San Antonio Blues Society presents the annual Robert Johnson San Antonio sessions Celebration, marking the anniversary of recordings by Robert Johnson at the Gunter Hotel in November 1936. This year's celebration will take place on Saturday, November 19th from 7:30 PM to 11:30 PM at Sam's Burger Joint, and will feature performances from Texas Johnny Boy, The Mighty Orq, and the San Antonio Blues Cats. Tickets are $15 in advance and $20 at the door. More information is available at SAN-ANTONIO-BLUES-dot-COM

African Children's ChoirKill Dec. 9

Music for Life presents a performance by the African Children's Choir on Friday, December 9th from 7 PM to 8:30 PM at Castle Hills Christian Church. The performance will feature well-loved children's songs, traditional spirituals and Gospel favorites. The concert is free and open to the public. An optional donation will be taken at the performance to support African Children's Choir programs, including education, care, and relief and development programs. More information is available at C-H-C-C-S-A-dot-COM

Critical MassKill Feb 26

The Southwest School of Art presents "Critical Mass," a group exhibition highlighting the styles and disciplines of the school's full-time faculty and providing a glimpse into each member's creative direction and practice. The exhibition runs from January 26th through February 26th at the Russell Hill Rogers Galleries, and is free and open to the public. More information is available at S-W-SCHOOL-dot-O-R-G

Fiber Arts SymposiumKill Jan 14

The Southwest School of Art presents the Debbie McMahon Fiber Arts Symposium on Saturday, January 14th from 2 PM to 5 PM at the Russell Hill Rogers Lecture Hall. The symposium will include talks by artists Joan Hall and Michelle Samour, who will discuss their papermaking in the larger context of the fiber arts, with a reception to follow. The symposium is free and open to the public. More information is available at S-W-SCHOOL-dot-O-R-G