African Americans in WWII: More than 1.3 million African Americans served as part of the U.S. military and helped with war efforts during WWII. Yet rarely is this population ever fairly represented in blockbuster movies or TV shows about this era. Matthew Delmont, a history professor at Dartmouth College, joins us this week to shed some light on the contributions of African Americans who stepped up and served despite the discrimination, bias and violence they faced.

Host: Gary Price. Guest: Matthew Delmont, professor, history Dartmouth College, author, Half American: The Epic Story of African Americans Fighting World War II at Home and Abroad.

F. Education

“Viewpoints” – Broadcast on October 30, 2022 at 6:02 AM; Duration 9 minutes.

The Higher Education Cost Crisis, Part 1: Student loan debt in the United States has burgeoned to 1.7 trillion dollars. Over the past two years, many borrowers have paused on paying these loans because the government paused on payment deadlines due to COVID-19 pandemic. The Biden administration vowed to cancel $10,000 of student loan debt for the average borrower and up to $20,000 for Pell Grant recipients. We highlighted what this move achieves (and does not) and what solutions are needed to solve this problem long-term.

Host: Gary Price Guest(s): Sandy Baum, higher education expert, non-resident student fellow, Center on Education Data and Policy, Urban Institute.

“Viewpoints” – Broadcast on November 13, 2022 at 6:02 AM; Duration 9 minutes.

The Higher Education Cost Crisis, Part 2: The average cost of attending a four-year, public college has ballooned to $27,800 per year. This equates to more than $110,000 spent to have an undergraduate degree. Even with current financial aid, for millions of students, it is not feasible to dig themselves into lifelong debt. We speak with two higher education experts about what needs to change with financial aid in America.

Host: Gary Price. Guest(s): Mark Kantrowitz, financial aid expert; Sandy Baum, higher education expert, non-resident student fellow, Center on Education Data and Policy, Urban Institute.

“Viewpoints” – Broadcast on December 18, 2022 at 6:12AM; Duration 9 minutes.

Is Living In The Age of The Internet A Right or Privilege? Internet has become a necessity in our lives, but not everyone has access. With serious issues, like politics and education, being discussed almost exclusively on-line, more and more people are wondering if internet should be free. An expert explains the pros and cons of government-subsidized internet. Host: Marty Peterson. Guest(s): Dr. Merten Reglitz, Senior Lecturer in Global Ethics, University of Birmingham
