

The University of Oklahoma Outreach

Norman, Oklahoma 73019

KGOU Radio (KGOU, KROU, KOUA, KWOU, KQOU & Related Translators) Issues/Programs List

Covering the Period: January 1, 2023 to March 31, 2023

KGOU Radio (including KGOU, KROU, KOUA, KWOU, KQOU and related translators) attempts to meet the needs and interests of its listeners through a variety of programming selections. Below are listed the problems identified by the station and only some of the specific program presentations aired in meetings its obligations to the listeners.

These needs were identified through a combination of efforts that ascertained the issues of concern to both community leaders and the general population of our service area. These efforts included management staff interaction with a variety of community leaders; input from the general population through conversation with station staff; the monitoring of other media news coverage, and judgments made by the KGOU news and management staff about the selection of both network, syndicated and local materials for broadcast.

Local Programming

These programs are regular presentations of KGOU Radio.

Oklahoma Update Newscasts: Weekdays at 6:19am, 6:49am, 7:19am, 7:49am, 8:19am, 8:49am, 12:19pm, 12:39pm, 1:19pm, 1:39pm, 3:32pm, 4:04pm, 4:32pm, 5:04pm, 5:32pm, and 6:04pm. These one minute to two minute local newscasts include local headlines in the public radio tradition, sports, weather and traffic reports. The newscasts run as local segments within Morning Edition, Here & Now, BBC Newshour, and All Things Considered.

Calendars: Hourly, daily. Each hour of local programming, and as often as possible during network programming, KGOU airs one minute local events calendars to promote items of civic and cultural interest.

Oklahoma News Feature/StateImpact Oklahoma/Oklahoma Engaged/Infrastructure/Long Story Short/AM & PM NewsBriefs/Capitol Insider & A&E Reports: These four + minute news/entertainment features are locally produced, as resources allow, and are usually broadcast twice in both Morning Edition, once during Here & Now, and once or twice during All Things Considered.

How Curious: These (mostly) 5-15 minute, sound/story-rich reports are locally produced and serve to answer listener-generated questions.

During this time period, the following local issues were presented:

Agriculture & Environment

Tue., Jan. 10, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Two proposed bills would keep closer tabs on Oklahoma marijuana growers' water use

Oklahoma lawmakers are hoping to regulate how marijuana growers and processors utilize water in the state.

Fri., Jan. 13, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Tulsa, Jenks, Muscogee Nation solidify dam partnership

Two cities and a tribal government in Oklahoma have agreed to create a lake in the Arkansas River.

Wed., Feb. 8, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Oklahoma sees slight improvements after months of harsh drought

After months of worsening drought, Oklahomans saw some improvement last week. But most of the state is still exceptionally dry.

Mon., Feb. 27, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Severe storms cause damage in Norman, injuring 12

City officials continue to survey and assess damage, which has been primarily observed in areas of Southeast and East Norman.

Fri., March 31, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Fires pop up across Central Oklahoma amid high winds, dry conditions

Oklahoma officials report a total of 97 wildfires started amid dry, dangerous conditions Friday.

Arts & Entertainment

Sun, Jan. 1, 2023 ~ Program, 59 minutes

Sunday Radio Matinee: Prize for the Fire (Readers Club RPT)

KGOU managing editor Logan Layden sits down with Rilla Askew, author of "Prize For The Fire."

Thu., Jan. 19, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Native films, filmmakers from Oklahoma and beyond make a splash at Sundance

The Sundance Film Festival has been a hub for Native filmmakers to screen work, get funding and network. This year, a number of Indigenous films by Indigenous filmmakers are getting a spotlight and some of them were made in Oklahoma.

Sat., Jan. 21, 2023 ~ Feature, 10 minutes

Weekend Blues: Ana Popovic offers new music and the story that 'powers' her forthcoming album

Ana Popovic details her recent battle with cancer... and how it helped shape the content and importance of her latest recording.

Tue., Feb. 21, 2023 ~ Feature, 13 minutes

How Curious: I'll Fly Away – An Oklahoma Musical Phenomenon

In the late 1920s, a young Oklahoman composer named Albert E. Brumley created a song that would go on to become one most popular pieces of gospel music of all time.

Sat., March 4, 2023 ~ Feature, 17 minutes

Weekend Blues: KC blues star discusses new album with OK connections

Blues rocker Nick Scnebelen's new album was recorded at Bell Labs studios in Norman, OK.

Fri., March 24, 2023 ~ Feature, 5 minutes

Want to see world-class works of art? Head to your local Oklahoma post office

Your local post office may not be the place where you would expect to see world-class art. Oklahoma is an exception. Thirty-one post offices around the state are adorned with murals that are simply masterpieces.

Tue., March 28, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

'Killers of the Flower Moon' set and filmed in Oklahoma, to be released in October

The highly anticipated Killers of the Flower Moon has a release date.

Business, Economics & Finance

Wed., Jan. 4, 2023 ~ Feature, 5 minutes

Long Story Short: Protests prompt cancellation of southeast Oklahoma power project

This week's Long Story Short episode details how resident protests and opposition from the Choctaw Nation halted a proposed $1.5 billion hydroelectric storage project in the Kiamichi River.

Thu., Jan. 12, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

USDA offers grants for rural business development

The USDA is offering rural Oklahoma entities grant money to improve their communities.

Wed., Jan. 18, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Enid receives federal money to brace water supply against drought, future growth

The City of Enid has received $8 million in federal funds for water infrastructure projects.

Thu., Jan. 26, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Extra emergency SNAP benefits to expire for thousands of Oklahomans

Food costs are going to get even harder to deal with for hundreds of thousands of Oklahomans as another pandemic-related break for low-income earners and families comes to an end.

Thu., Feb. 2, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

OK Watch: How a western Oklahoma town lost its hospital, and is scrambling to get it back

Residents of Clinton, Oklahoma, are getting a taste of life without a hospital. Clinton Regional Hospital serviced a town of 8,612 people until the private company managing it pulled out on Dec. 31, citing a lack of profitability. Five urgent care clinics in Clinton and Weatherford closed with it.

Thu., Feb. 16, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Bill aims to bring competition to Oklahoma's electricity market

House Bill 1602 by Rep. Ryan Martinez would give business owners and homeowners the option to choose their electricity provider, rather than having one assigned based on geography.

Fri., Feb. 17, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Research from OU finds investments in rural water infrastructure improve economic outcomes after 8 years

A rural sociologist at the University of Oklahoma found that investments in water infrastructure have positive impacts on rural communities—but they may require some patience.

Wed., March 1, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Oklahoma Senate will hear bill to remove sales tax exemptions for cannabis growers, monitor their water use

Oklahoma farmers and ranchers are exempt from paying sales tax on many materials and equipment they use in their agriculture. Senate Bill 133, which would disqualify cannabis producers from this exemption, is advancing to the Senate Floor.

Thu., March 2, 2023 ~ Feature, 5 minutes

SIOK: Will Oklahomans vote to be the 22nd state to legalize recreational marijuana?

Voters are just days away from deciding whether Oklahoma will legalize recreational marijuana. But results of similar ballot initiatives in Arkansas and Missouri could help predict the fate of State Question 820.

Fri., March 3, 2023 ~ Feature, 5 minutes

How Oklahoma's cannabis business could change if recreational weed is legalized

Selling cannabis has become a big business in Oklahoma. But, that business could be changing if voters approve State Question 820 next week.

Mon., March 6, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Central Oklahoma communities receive $43.7 million in federal funding for transportation projects

The Association of Central Oklahoma Governments (ACOG) announced almost $44 million in federal funding for transportation projects in and around the Oklahoma City metro.

Tue., March 7, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Oklahoma voters reject recreational marijuana

Recreational cannabis won't be legal in Oklahoma.

Tue., March 7, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

OK Watch: Mexican consulate in Oklahoma City expected to be taking appointments as soon as May

Mexican Oklahomans will soon be able to open bank accounts and purchase homes and vehicles without being forced to leave the state to update or secure vital documentation.

Thu., March 23, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Oklahoma opens applications for water, sewer bill assistance

Poorer residents may see some economic relief following the opening of applications for utilities assistance.

Fri., March 24, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Tighter regulations on medical marijuana growers move through the Oklahoma legislature

Since Oklahoma voters rejected recreational cannabis earlier this month, the state legislature has advanced several bills to further regulate medical cannabis grow businesses.

Tue., March 28, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

USDA makes home repair grants available to Oklahomans affected by severe weather last year

The U.S. Department of Agriculture has announced it will make grants available to help rural Oklahoman's repair whose houses were damaged by severe weather last year.

Thu., March 30, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

U.S. Secretary of Transportation visits Oklahoma City, highlights aviation industry

U.S. Secretary of Transportation Pete Buttigieg visited Oklahoma City as a part of the Biden Administration's "Investing in America" tour.

Crime & Law Enforcement

Thu., Jan. 12, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Oklahoma executes Scott Eizember, the eighth death row inmate to be killed since the state resumed capital punishment

Oklahoma death row inmate Scott Eizember is set to be executed Thursday morning.

Mon., Jan. 16, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Lawyers allege improper handling of ACCESS turnpike project payments, OTA appeals Open Meeting Act violation

A new suit filed in Cleveland County District Court alleges the Oklahoma Turnpike Authority improperly remedied its Open Meeting Act violation and owes about $42 million.

Mon., Jan. 16, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Oklahoma City sues oil company for stealing water intended for emergency drought relief

Oklahoma City and the OKC Water Utilities Trust have filed a lawsuit against an oil company for stealing the city's water and harming protected lands at the Stinchcomb Wildlife Refuge.

Wed., Jan. 18, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Oklahoma Attorney General requests more time in between executions

Oklahoma currently has one execution scheduled each month from February to August, but a request from the Attorney General might lengthen the time between each execution.

Mon., Jan. 23, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Federal judge rules Arkansas poultry corporations must remedy pollution in the Illinois River and Lake Tenkiller

After nearly two decades, a federal judge ruled in the state's favor, finding Tyson Foods and ten other poultry producers guilty of polluting the Illinois River and Lake Tenkiller in Eastern Oklahoma.

Fri., Jan. 27, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

AG Drummond orders independent counsel to review Glossip death penalty case

After successfully pushing back the execution dates of several death row inmates earlier this week, Attorney General Gentner Drummond is also ordering a new review of one inmate's case.

Wed., Feb. 1, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Oklahoma AG Drummond drops lawsuit against vendor, says state actors 'ultimately responsible'

Attorney General Gentner Drummond's office announced Tuesday it would drop a civil lawsuit against Florida tech company ClassWallet, saying state actors — rather than the company — were responsible for mismanaging federal pandemic relief dollars.

Wed., Feb. 8, 2023 ~ Feature, 5 minutes

Long Story Short: Video shows man's 2019 fatal struggle with Pottawatomie County jailers

Family members have been seeking answers about what happened to Ronald Gene Given in the Pottawatomie County following his 2019 arrest. In this week's Long Story Short, Oklahoma Watch's Whitney Bryen describes what newly released video reveals when county detention officers confronted an agitated Given.

Thu., Feb. 16, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

An earlier curfew for minors could be coming to Oklahoma City's Bricktown

Young visitors to Oklahoma City's Bricktown Entertainment District might have to call it a night a little bit earlier.

Wed., Feb. 22, 2023 ~ Feature, 5 minutes

Long Story Short: Cleveland County officials seek public money to increase staff after deaths

On this week's Long Story Short, Oklahoma Watch's Whitney Bryen reports that the deaths of Shannon Hanchett and Kathryn Milano caused Cleveland County officials to reevaluate the treatment of detainees.

Wed., Feb. 22, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Oklahoma hunting and fishing license fees could rise for first time in decades

Wed., March 1, 2023 ~ Feature, 5 minutes

'Deeply tainted': Oklahoma conservatives call for moratorium, abolition of the death penalty

Amid a mass rescheduling of execution dates and an investigation into one death row inmate's claim of innocence, some Oklahoma conservatives are shifting away from or completely against the death penalty.

Wed., March 8, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

OK Watch: After SQ 820 loss, marijuana-related justice reform shifts to Legislature

With Oklahoma voters deciding against full marijuana legalization on State Question 820, the focus turns to the Legislature to address criminal justice reforms related to low-level marijuana convictions.

Tue., March 14, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Federal labor violations reported at several Oklahoma Starbucks stores

Starbucks Workers United said the National Labor Relations Board has investigated their complaints about the company's federal labor violations at two stores in Oklahoma City, one in Nichols Hills, and one in Norman.

Wed., March 15, 2023 ~ Feature, 5 minutes

Long Story Short: Oklahomans languish in jail awaiting mental health care, federal lawsuit claims

More than 100 Oklahomans are languishing in county jails while awaiting court-ordered mental health treatment, according to a federal class-action lawsuit filed Wednesday against two state mental health officials.

Tue., March 21, 2023 ~ Feature, 5 minutes

Criminalized survivors of domestic violence may see relief from proposed bill

Oklahoma has one of the highest rates of female incarceration in the nation and in the world. One proposed bill could help address the issue.

Fri., March 24, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Seatbelt bill for Oklahoma backseat passengers under 16 advances

A bill to require backseat passengers under 16 to wear a seat belt passed in the Senate earlier this week.

Wed., March 29, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Death row spiritual advisor sues Oklahoma Department of Corrections

The spiritual advisor for several of Oklahoma's death row inmates filed a lawsuit against the Department of Corrections last Friday.

Education

Fri., Jan. 6, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Future educator scholarship opens as Oklahoma teacher graduate numbers plummet

High school students looking to become Oklahoma public school teachers have an opportunity to apply for a scholarship through the Oklahoma State School Boards Association.

Wed., Jan. 11, 2023 ~ Feature, 5 minutes

Long Story Short: Reviewing Ryan Walters' roles in education

In this week's Long Story Short, OK Watch's Jennifer Palmer reports on newly sworn-in OK Superintendent of Schools Ryan Walter's various education-related endeavors in the state, including his role as the CEO of the non-profit organization, Every Kid Counts Oklahoma.

Thu., Jan. 12, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Stitt reshapes Oklahoma state boards for education, veterans affairs as he starts second term

Gov. Kevin Stitt is reshaping two state boards he's occasionally been at odds with.

Thu., Jan. 12, 2023 ~ Feature, 5 minutes

SIOK: 'A learner of learners': Staving off the 'deprofessionalization' of Oklahoma's teachers

As the state's teacher shortage persists, so do conversations about lowering qualification barriers to become an educator. What do students lose when traditional certification becomes a luxury this teacher-strapped state can't afford?

Mon., Jan. 16, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Oklahoma's Agriculture department will expand avenues for farm-to-school lunches

A new school meal program will allow some Oklahoma school districts to provide more nutritious meals to students by partnering with local farmers and ranchers.

Wed., Jan. 18, 2023 ~ Feature, 5 minutes

Long Story Short: Religious charter school test case rests with an Oklahoma board lacking enough members to meet

The nation will be watching to see how an Oklahoma board appointed by the governor and legislative leaders handles a proposed Catholic online school. If approved, the school operated by the Archdiocese of Oklahoma City would swing open the door for tax-payer funded, religious instruction at other charter schools.

Thu., Jan. 26, 2023 ~ Feature, 5 minutes

SIOK: A decade of scandal at Epic Charter Schools

As more news emerges about embezzlement schemes at Epic Charter Schools, it might be difficult to keep up with the saga.

Mon., Feb. 6, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

OU researchers aim to get more counselors, behavior analysts, social workers in rural schools

Researchers at the University of Oklahoma are implementing a new initiative to get more counselors, social workers and behavior analysts in rural schools.

Mon., Feb. 6, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Gov. Kevin Stitt's education agenda: Vouchers, performance-based teacher raises, new schools

Oklahoma Gov. Kevin Stitt is hoping for big education reforms during this year's legislative session.

Thu., Feb. 9, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Big school bond proposals on the ballot in Norman, Stillwater, Mustang and more

Voters in 62 of Oklahoma's 77 counties have something to vote on during the primary and special election on Tuesday, February 14.

Fri., Feb. 17, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Oklahoma House Republicans unveil $500 million school funding increase, alternative to vouchers

The Oklahoma House of Representatives unveiled its legislative priorities for education Thursday, and it's got two main objectives: give public schools a $500 million funding increase and give parents tax credits to send their kids to private schools.

Fri., Feb. 17, 2023 ~ Feature, 5 minutes

Capitol Insider: House Republicans unveil education plan

Speaker of the House Charles McCall has announced the House Republican plan for education, which includes increased funding for public schools and tax credits for parents with children in private schools and home-based education.

Thu., Feb. 23, 2023 ~ Feature, 5 minutes

SIOK: How Oklahoma's mismanagement of federal education funds could leave $18 million on the table

At the end of January, Oklahoma's new Attorney General, Gentner Drummond, announced he would change course on a high-profile debacle involving Secretary of Education and now State Superintendent Ryan Walters — and lots of federal money.

Fri., March 3, 2023 ~ Feature, 18 minutes

Capitol Insider: Speaker of the House McCall explains private and home school tax credit bills

The Oklahoma House of Representatives has sent to the Senate two bills that would provide education tax credits for parents with students in private and home schools.

Fri., March 17, 2023 ~ Feature, 6 minutes

Capitol Insider: Oklahoma House to reconsider student corporal punishment bill

A bill that would prohibit corporal punishment of students with disabilities failed in the Oklahoma House, but the author plans to bring it to the floor again on Monday.

Fri., March 24, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Oklahoma's education board targets library content, sex education with Walters' new rules

Oklahoma Board of Education passes Secretary Ryan Walters' new rules addressing sex education and gender.

Fri., March 24, 2023 ~ Feature, 8 minutes

Capitol Insider: Treat discusses House-Senate impasse over education bills

Senate President Pro Tem Greg Treat weighs in on stalled education bills and response to Volkswagen bypassing Oklahoma for a manufacturing plant.

Mon., March 27, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Langston University wipes out outstanding student charges, again

Oklahoma's only historically Black college announced it is cancelling all outstanding charges its students incurred over the last three semesters.

Medicine & Health

Fri., Jan. 13, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

A proposed bill would ban fluoride in drinking water, data shows areas with more fluoride in water have better dental health

An Oklahoma lawmaker has introduced a bill that would prohibit any public water supply in Oklahoma from adding fluoride to its drinking water.

Thu., Jan. 19, 2023 ~ Feature, 5 minutes

SIOK: A collaborative in Tulsa models how Oklahoma communities can fight the methamphetamine epidemic

Methamphetamine is killing more Oklahomans than any illicit drug. Nonprofits, treatment centers, policy analysts and law enforcement in Tulsa created a program to broaden access to recovery from it.

Fri., Jan. 27, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Cherokee Nation program will help fight addiction in Northeast Oklahoma

Oklahoma has one of the highest hepatitis C virus rates in the country. That's one of the reasons why the Cherokee Nation is gearing up a new harm reduction program in Tahlequah.

Wed., Feb. 1, 2023 ~ Feature, 5 minutes

Long Story Short: Western Oklahoma's health facility shortage

In this week's edition of Long Story Short, Oklahoma Watch's Lionel Ramos discusses the recent closure of the hospital in Clinton, Oklahoma and several area urgent care facilities.

Thu., Feb. 2, 2023 ~ Feature, 5 minutes

SIOK: StateImpact talks with Secretary of Health Kevin Corbett about Oklahoma's pivot to managed Medicaid

The Stitt Administration has worked to usher in managed care, a model that brings insurance companies in to manage members' health coverage. It is expected to launch in April 2024.

Wed., Feb. 8, 2023 ~ Feature, 5 minutes

Mental health worker shortage continues as pandemic-related mental health crisis is 'just gearing up'

A study for a drug addiction and parenthood support program was supposed to start at OU months ago, but difficulties hiring case managers have caused delays. It's not just OU and it's not just case managers - a shortage of mental and behavioral health workers is affecting the whole state.

Thu., Feb. 9, 2023 ~ Feature, 5 minutes

SIOK: 'Never took a sick day in seven years': Oklahoma teacher moms and the realities of no paid maternity leave

Oklahoma Senate Republicans unveiled their plan to attract and keep teachers, and Senate Bill 364 is getting a lot of attention — it would mandate 12 weeks of paid maternity leave for full-time school employees. Teacher moms around the state shared their stories with StateImpact's Beth Wallis.

Fri., Feb. 10, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Oklahoma's rape kit state task force is reinstated after brief dissolution

A state task force addressing the backlog of untested rape kits was renewed by Gov. Kevin Stitt Wednesday after it briefly dissolved due to inaction.

Wed., Feb. 15, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Even with health insurance, many Oklahomans face barriers to mental health care

New research shows Oklahomans who have traditional health insurance don't have reliable access to mental health services.

Wed., Feb. 15, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Oklahoma lawmakers consider measure to increase syphilis screening for pregnant patients

The rate of babies born with syphilis is on the rise. Oklahoma lawmakers are looking to combat that.

Wed., Feb. 15, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

300,000 Oklahomans set to lose Medicaid coverage

The federal government is rolling back some Medicaid policies that kept hundreds of thousands of Oklahomans covered throughout the pandemic.

Tue., Feb. 28, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Federal government announces special enrollment period for people losing Medicaid coverage

Oklahomans who are losing SoonerCare coverage have an opportunity to sign up for private insurance.

Tue., March 7, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Lawmakers will decide whether to give the governor more authority over doctors' licenses

They're reviewing how much power the governor should have over multiple agencies this year.

Thu., March 9, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

'No danger to the public' after train derails in Northeast Oklahoma

A tanker car ran off the rails in Verdigris, a small town just northeast of Tulsa. The minor derailment didn't result in any injuries or harmful spills.

Thu., March 9, 2023 ~ Feature, 5 minutes

SIOK: Oklahoma Senate bill would require insurance companies to cover high-tech medical screenings called biomarker tests

Biomarker testing is a tool that doctors use to get a clearer picture of a medical problem — often cancer.

Thu., March 9, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Oklahoma House passes legislation allowing for study of psychedelic mushrooms

Oklahoma lawmakers are again considering a bill that would allow medical researchers to look into psychedelics to treat mental illness.

Tue., March 21, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

State Supreme Court: Oklahomans have right to life-saving abortions, emergency or not

The Oklahoma Supreme Court issued a ruling Tuesday, stating definitively that Oklahomans have a right to life-saving abortions even before an emergency.

Mon., March 27, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

OK Watch: These Oklahoma communities need childcare. City rules could make it harder to find

Almost half of Oklahoma's 77 counties are defined as childcare deserts, according to the Center for American Progress, which studies social issues including childcare.

Tue., March 28, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Oklahoma is expanding Medicaid access for mothers in the wake of childbirth

Oklahoma has the federal sign off it needs to expand postpartum Medicaid coverage. The policy is expected to help bring down the state's high maternal mortality rate.

Wed., March 29, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

OK Watch: After a decade of waiting, Oklahomans with disabilities still aren't receiving the care they need

Lawmakers promised to clear Oklahoma's 13-year wait for disability services but a caregiver shortage means families still don't have the help they need.

Thu., March 30, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Oklahoma State University announces new nursing program

Oklahoma State University is adding a bachelor's of nursing program to its Stillwater campus this fall. The addition will help combat the state's nursing shortage.

Thu., March 30, 2023 ~ Feature, 5 minutes

SIOK: StateImpact discusses Oklahoma's decision to extend postpartum Medicaid coverage

Oklahoma has always offered special coverage during pregnancy, but it used to last 60 days after birth. The state just got permission to extend that coverage to one year.

Fri., March 31, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

EPA proposes new Superfund site in northeastern Oklahoma

The Environmental Protection Agency is proposing a new Superfund site at Oklahoma's Fansteel Metals, Inc.

Military

Wed., Jan. 11, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Ukrainian troops to train on Patriot missiles at Fort Sill

Ukrainian soldiers are being trained to operate the Patriot missile system at Fort Sill in southwest Oklahoma.

Mon., March 13, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Veteran Affairs director fired amid spat with Gov. Kevin Stitt

The executive director of the Oklahoma Department of Veteran Affairs was fired late last week following a long history of tension between him and Governor Kevin Stitt.

Politics & Government

Mon., Jan. 2, 2023 ~ Feature, 5 minutes

Capitol Insider: Top ten Oklahoma stories Of 2022

KGOU's Dick Pryor and QuorumCall's Shawn Ashley continue their countdown of the top ten Oklahoma stories of 2022.

Tue., Jan. 3, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Oklahoma Watch: Oklahoma news deserts: 'Orphan' counties

Of the 15 counties with the lowest voter turnout in the Nov. 8 election, 13 are located outside of the Oklahoma City and Tulsa media markets.

Wed., Jan. 4, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Oklahoma Turnpike Authority corrects Open Meeting violations keeping ACCESS project on pause

The Oklahoma Turnpike Authority corrected Open Meeting Act violations Tuesday by re-voting on design contracts for its $5 billion ACCESS Oklahoma turnpike program.

Thu., Jan. 5, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Oklahoma officials express concern about new EPA definition of Clean Water Act's scope

The Environmental Protection Agency and the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers announced an updated Waters of the United States rule on Dec. 30, prompting criticism from some Oklahoma officials.

Fri., Jan. 6, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Oklahoma congressmen at center of House Speaker holdup

A pair of Oklahoma's Congressmen are finding themselves at the center of the House of Representatives fight over who will lead the chamber.

Fri., Jan. 6, 2023 ~ Feature, 6 minutes

Capitol Insider: State government stories to watch in 2023

With Inauguration Day coming Monday, major story lines are shaping up for the 2023 Oklahoma Legislative Session.

Mon., Jan. 9, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Lawmaker proposes end-of-year deadline for Oklahoma online voter registration

After another general election cycle came and went without the state's long-awaited online voter registration system, one lawmaker hopes to set a firm deadline.

Mon., Jan. 9, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Gov. Kevin Stitt sworn into second term as Oklahoma's governor

Oklahoma Gov. Kevin Stitt was sworn into his second term in office Monday at the State Capitol.

Wed., Jan. 11, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

GOP-led Congress leads to new chairmanships for Oklahoma Congressmen

A new Speaker of the House means a new-look Congress. And because Republicans have gained control of the chamber, Oklahoma's entirely GOP delegation will benefit.

Wed., Jan. 11, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Ryan Walters steps down from position at nonprofit amid conflict-of-interest concerns

Oklahoma's newly minted State Superintendent Ryan Walters is stepping down from his CEO position at a nonprofit amid conflict-of-interest concerns.

Fri., Jan. 13, 2023 ~ Feature, 5 minutes

Capitol Insider: Kevin Stitt begins second term as Oklahoma governor

Inauguration Day has come and gone and now Governor Kevin Stitt, the Oklahoma legislature and new State Superintendent Ryan Walters begin work on what could be a transformational 2023 in state government.

Thu., Jan. 19, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Here are the details of a $541 million plan for education from Oklahoma Senate leaders

In a Wednesday press conference, Republican Sen. Adam Pugh — who also chairs the Education Committee — unveiled his plan for education reform during the upcoming legislative session.

Fri., Jan. 20, 2023 ~ Feature, 5 minutes

Oklahoma lawmakers file more than 3,000 pieces of legislation as session heats up

Now, the fun starts. Thursday was the bill filing deadline for the 2023 Oklahoma legislative session, and a late push saw lawmakers break the 3,000 mark.

Mon., Jan. 23, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Bill looks to remove straight party voting option from Oklahoma ballots

An Oklahoma lawmaker is hoping to end the practice of straight party voting.

Wed., Jan. 25, 2023 ~ Feature, 5 minutes

Long Story Short: Oklahoma lawmakers complete pre-session bill filing

More than 3,000 bills and joint resolutions were filed in the House and Senate leading up to last Thursday's 4:30 p.m. filing deadline. Among them, as OK Watch's Keaton Ross discusses in this week's Long Story Short episode, are measures that seek to alter Oklahoma's election laws and citizen initiative process.

Wed., Jan. 25, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

What to watch for during Oklahoma's 2023 legislative session

The first Monday in February marks the beginning of the Oklahoma legislative session. And Oklahoma lawmakers are gearing up to consider more than 3,000 bills.

Fri., Jan. 27, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Oklahoma State Superintendent Ryan Walters proposes education budget changes, no across-the-board teacher raises

Ryan Walters' proposal is $59 million less than his predecessor Joy Hofmeister's and no longer includes her proposed $5,000 pay raise for teachers.

Fri., Jan. 27, 2023 ~ Feature, 5 minutes

Capitol Insider: Drummond, Walters move toward fulfilling campaign pledges

Two of Oklahoma's newest statewide elected officials have signaled their intentions for the start of their terms, and change is in the air.

Wed., Feb. 1, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

How Oklahoma lawmakers seek to change elections and ballot initiatives

With the 2024 presidential election cycle on the horizon, Oklahoma lawmakers have introduced more than 90 election and voting bills ahead of the upcoming legislative session.

Thu., Feb. 2, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Oklahoma Gov. Kevin Stitt signs letter opposing new Waters of the United States rule

Oklahoma Gov. Kevin Stitt was among 25 Republican governors across the country who signed a letter to President Joe Biden opposing a new rule defining the scope of the Clean Water Act.

Fri., Feb. 3, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Can Oklahoma's new Attorney General reset the state's relationship with its tribal nations?

Oklahoma's Attorney General Gentner Drummond has pledged to improve his office's relationship with tribal nations in Oklahoma. This comes after nearly three years of tension between tribes and Gov. Kevin Stitt's administration over the McGirt v. Oklahoma Supreme Court decision and gaming compacts.

Fri., Feb. 3, 2023 ~ Feature, 5 minutes

Capitol Insider: State of the State address highlights start of 2023 legislative session

Although the 2023 session is already underway, work begins in earnest on Monday with a joint session of the House and Senate for the governor's State of the State address.

Mon., Feb. 6, 2023 ~ Live Simulcast, 90 minutes

Live Oklahoma State Of The State 2023 coverage

Governor Kevin Stitt delivered the first State of the State address of his second term. In it, he reaffirmed his campaign promises.

Tue., Feb. 7, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Oklahoma Gov. Kevin Stitt pushes for continuation of conservative agenda at State of the State

Oklahoma Gov. Kevin Stitt has taken his re-election as a mandate from conservative voters: grow school choice, cut taxes and ban gender-affirming care for transgender minors.

Wed., Feb. 8, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Not mentioned in Gov. Stitt's State of the State address: Oklahoma and tribal-state relations

After nearly three years of tense relations with tribal leaders over the model gaming compact and the landmark Supreme Court decision in McGirt v. Oklahoma, Gov. Kevin Stitt didn't talk about Oklahoma's 39 federally recognized tribes during his annual State of the State address on Monday.

Fri., Feb. 10, 2023 ~ Feature, 5 minutes

Capitol Insider: 2023 Oklahoma Legislative Session begins

Now that Governor Kevin Stitt has delivered his State of the State address and executive budget, the work picks up in the Oklahoma legislature.

Mon., Feb. 13, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

OK Watch: Oklahoma considers separating state and federal elections if voting rights acts pass

Tue., Feb. 14, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Oklahoma lawmakers advance bills creating exceptions to state's strict abortion laws

Oklahoma lawmakers are considering exceptions to the state's abortion laws, which are widely supported nationwide, but not necessarily commonplace.

Wed., Feb. 15, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Oklahoma Election Results: Cooper, Hamon and Stonecipher reelected to OKC Council, dozens of school bonds approved

Voters across Oklahoma cast ballots in races for city council members, school board members, mayors and county clerks on Tuesday.

Wed., Feb. 15, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Bills to bolster Oklahoma teacher numbers advance in House

Two bills aimed at retaining and recruiting Oklahoma teachers passed the first step of the legislative process on Monday.

Thu., Feb. 16, 2023 ~ Feature, 5 minutes

SIOK: Another pandemic relief policy is ending, making groceries even more expensive for low-income Oklahomans

Grocery prices are high right now, but they're about to get even higher for more than half a million Oklahomans.

Tue., Feb. 28, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Oklahoma considers stiffer petition requirements for state questions

Organizers and voting rights advocates say the proposed changes could benefit well-financed groups with the resources to collect more signatures.

Wed., March 1, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

OK Watch: What to know about State Question 820 and legalizing recreational marijuana in Oklahoma

Oklahoma voters will decide on March 7 if they want to expand the state's medical marijuana market to adult recreational users 21 and older.

Mon., March 6, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Why you should check your voter registration before casting a ballot in Oklahoma's State Question 820 election

In the months leading up to Oklahoma's election on the legalization of recreational cannabis, Oklahoma purged tens of thousands of voters from its rolls due to inactivity or duplicate registrations.

Wed., March 8, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Non-binary Oklahoma representative censured, removed from all committees

Oklahoma House Republicans removed Rep. Mauree Turner (D-Oklahoma City) Tuesday from all committee assignments, alleging Turner "harbored a fugitive" in their office last week following an incident involving a Highway Patrol trooper and transgender people attending a bill hearing.

Fri., March 10, 2023 ~ Feature, 6 minutes

Capitol Insider: Facts behind censure of Oklahoma City state legislator disputed

The Oklahoma House of Representatives censured a non-binary member for allegedly "harboring a fugitive" following an incident during protest of anti-transgender legislation.

Tue., March 21, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

EPA says Oklahoma cannot refuse to dispose of waste from Ohio train derailment

After a train derailment in East Palestine, Ohio, generated thousands of tons of contaminated soil, the company responsible must find licensed facilities to take that waste. Gov. Kevin Stitt blocked a shipment to Oklahoma, but the EPA said his refusal is not legally permissible.

Wed., March 22, 2023 ~ Feature, 5 minutes

Long Story Short: Proposals would restrict school library content and limit student privacy at school

The Education Department is considering new rules restricting school library content and requiring school staff to inform parents of major changes to a student's identity at school. State Superintendent of Public Instruction Ryan Walters announced the proposals as one of his first major actions after taking office in January.

Thu., March 23, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

OK Watch: Why Oklahoma is still sitting on COVID-19 relief funds

Six months after allocating most of the state's share in federal American Rescue Plan Act money, some Oklahoma lawmakers are questioning the slow pace of getting money to project recipients.

Wed., March 29, 2023 ~ Feature, 5 minutes

Long Story Short: Contrasting the censure of Rep. Mauree Turner with inaction against GOP lawmakers

House GOP leadership formally censured Rep. Mauree Turner, stripping them of all committee appointments.

Fri., March 31, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Oklahoma lawmakers at education funding stalemate, millions hang in balance

There's a massive amount of new money on the table for Oklahoma public education this legislative session, but lawmakers are still deciding whose funding plan will win out: the Senate's, the House's, a combination of both — or even neither.

Fri., March 31, 2023 ~ Newscast, 6 minutes

Capitol Insider: House, Senate remain at odds over school choice bills

Both houses of the Oklahoma legislature want school choice bills to become law, but the two sides have dug in over disagreements about how to craft the legislation.

Race, Identity & Culture

Thu., Jan. 5, 2023 ~ Feature, 5 minutes

SIOK: Who's the boss? One case highlights the issues with jurisdiction post-McGirt

The landmark McGirt vs. Oklahoma decision at the U.S. Supreme Court in 2020 was a big win for tribal sovereignty that gave tribal nations jurisdiction over many crimes committed in their territory and by their citizens. Working out the state's role in such matters has proven extremely contentious. StateImpact's Logan Layden talked with Indigenous Affairs reporter Allison Herrera about one case that highlights the complications involved.

Thu., Jan. 12, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Federal government proposes new regulations to strengthen the Osage Mineral Estate

The Bureau of Indian Affairs is proposing new rules to protect a massive collection of oil and gas rights belonging to the Osage Nation after decades of criticism that the U.S. has mismanaged their estate.

Mon., Jan. 30, 2023 ~ Program, 59 minutes

Readers Club: A Promise Kept

Here how recent Supreme Court rulings helped 'keep' a promise made to the Muskogee (Creek) nation professors Robert J. Miller (Law) and Robbie Etheridge (Anthropology) details the history behind the 'promise' made in treaties between the tribe and the U.S. government.

Tue., Jan. 31, 2023 ~ Feature, 13 minutes

How Curious: My Pretty Red Panties

For years, CB radio users heard a male voice incessantly repeating these words: "I got my nightgown on, I got my pretty red panties on, and I'm ready to go to bed." Who was behind the message and why?

Tue., Feb. 7, 2023 ~ Feature, 13 minutes

How Curious: Oklahoma and the Morgan Horse

The Morgan Horse is the earliest surviving breed of American horse. But it's from Vermont. So why is it so important to Oklahoma?

Mon., Feb. 13, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Osage designer looks to make a splash at New York Fashion Week

Move over Coach, Tory Burch and Rodarte — Sky Eagle is debuting at New York Fashion Week.

Tue., Feb. 14, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Scenes from Oklahoma's first Black History Day at the State Capitol

Throng of people flooded the Oklahoma State Capitol Monday to take part in the first Black History Day held there.

Wed., Feb. 15, 2023 ~ Feature, 5 minutes

Long Story Short: Oklahoma lawmakers introduce a slate of bills pertaining to LGBTQ+ issues and self-expression

Oklahoma lawmakers have introduced 40 bills impacting LGBTQ Oklahomans' healthcare access, inclusion in schools and options for self-expression this legislative session, an Oklahoma Watch analysis shows.

Thu., Feb. 16, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Bill banning gender-affirming care for minors advances in Oklahoma Senate

The Oklahoma Legislature took another step toward banning gender-affirming healthcare for transgender youth Wednesday.

Mon., Feb. 20, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

$1 coin, quarter celebrate legendary Osage ballerina

The U.S. Mint released a new $1 coin this month, featuring five Native American women known as the Five Moons Ballerinas.

Thu., Feb. 23, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Opponents of legislation targeting drag performers voice concerns

Hundreds of people met at the State Capitol Wednesday to protest proposed legislation that would ban certain drag performances from being held in public.

Tue., Feb. 28, 2023 ~ Feature, 12 minutes

How Curious: Lesbian Bars in Oklahoma

While there used to be several hundred lesbian bars across the US just a few decades back, only 24 remain. New York and Oklahoma tie for the lead with three lesbian bars each, but those two states are very different places, so why do they have this in common?

Wed., March 1, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Oklahoma lawmakers advance bill that would ban gender-affirming health care for minors

Conservative Oklahoma lawmakers are working to crack down on gender-affirming health care. One of the several bills to do so passed off the House floor Tuesday.

Fri., March 10, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Oklahoma Rep. Maureen Turner receives threatening calls, emails following censure by House GOP

Oklahoma City Representative Maureen Turner — the legislature's only open nonbinary member — is the target of attacks on their race, gender and religion following a move earlier this week by House Republicans to formally censure the Democratic lawmaker.

Thu., March 16, 2023 ~ Feature, 5 minutes

SIOK: Trans Oklahomans find community through music amid heightened anti-queer rhetoric in legislature

Recent pushes from the Oklahoma legislature to target 2SLGBTQ+ issues in schools and medicine have mobilized some Oklahomans to fight back. StatImpact's Beth Wallis has the story of the Transgender Action Choir, who is lifting their voices to speak up.

Wed., March 22, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Oklahoma House Republicans advance so-called 'Don't Say Gay' education bill

The Oklahoma House of Representatives moved to ban classroom instruction on sexual orientation or gender identity Tuesday with the passage of a bill that uses nearly identical language to Florida's so-called "Don't Say Gay" Bill.

Thu., March 23, 2023 ~ Feature, 5 minutes

SIOK: A proposed ban on gender-affirming care for minors would affect Oklahoma adults too

House Bill 2177 bans care for minors, but it also bans insurance coverage and public funds for trans Oklahomans of all ages.

Thu., March 23, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Oklahoma Senate advances bill allowing tribal regalia to be worn at graduation ceremonies

A bill that would require schools to allow Native students to wear tribal regalia during graduation ceremonies passed unanimously in the state Senate Wednesday.

Religion

Fri., Feb. 24, 2023 ~ Feature, 5 minutes

Capitol Insider: Attorney General withdraws opinion for misusing religious liberty

At the end of January, Oklahoma's new Attorney General, Gentner Drummond, announced he would change

Mon., Feb. 27, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Walters sets up committee to protect prayer in schools, ridicules Oklahoma colleges for ideologies on campus

State Superintendent Ryan Walters wants to establish a committee to help protect Christianity in public schools and questioned the value of sending Oklahoma students to the state's colleges Thursday.

Wed., March 8, 2023 ~ Feature, 5 minutes

Long Story Short: Catholic leaders' public school proposal to test legal boundaries

In this week's Long Story Short, Oklahoma Watch's Jennifer Palmer discusses the pitch by Catholic leaders for a publicly funded charter school to the Statewide Virtual Charter School Board.

Science & Technology

Mon., Jan. 23, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Oklahoma City testing more sustainable, less corrosive solution for treating icy roads

Drivers around Oklahoma City may notice a redder tint on some bridges ahead of a winter storm Tuesday as the city experiments with beet juice to combat potential icy conditions.

Tue., Jan. 24, 2023 ~ Feature, 13 minutes

How Curious: The Haunting of Kendall's Restaurant

Kendall's Restaurant in downtown Noble, Okla., is famous for chicken-fried steaks, cinnamon rolls, and GHOSTS. Rachel Hopkin explores some strange goings-on under its roof.

Fri., Jan. 27, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Oklahoma grass the real MVP of this weekend's NFL Conference Championships

When four teams play for the NFL Conference Championships on Sunday, they'll be stepping onto football fields with Oklahoma roots.

Mon., Jan. 30, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

76 Oklahoma communities to receive funds for water and wastewater projects

Hundreds of Oklahoma cities, towns and rural water districts applied for competitive grants to fund water and wastewater projects. The Oklahoma Water Resources Board has announced 76 communities across the state that are likely to receive that money and released a list that ranks all the applications by funding priority.

Tue., Feb. 14, 2023 ~ Feature, 12 minutes

How Curious: The Shattuck Windmill Museum

The small town of Shattuck lies close to Oklahoma's border with Texas, and at its center stands the Shattuck Windmill Museum. We learn about the vital role that windmills played across the high plains region, as well as about the role this Museum plays in Shattuck life.

Thu., Feb. 23, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Researchers say the Arkansas River will slow down. What does that mean for Oklahoma?

Researchers from Oklahoma State University project that the Arkansas River and its tributaries will have less water flowing through them by the end of the 21st century.

Tue., Feb. 28, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Environmental advocacy group gives Oklahoma failing grade for lead in water protections at schools

An environmental advocacy group examined lead in schools across America, and it assigned Oklahoma a failing grade on its efforts to block the contaminant.

Sports

Mon., Jan. 30, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

Tribes, Oklahoma must work out 'fine details' for legal sports betting

Oklahoma Gov. Kevin Stitt is pushing for the legalization of sports betting. And a bill filed by Rep. Ken Luttrell, R-Ponca City, would do just that.

Fri., Feb. 10, 2023 ~ Newscast, 1 minute

OU to leave Big 12 for SEC one year early

The 2023 athletic season will be OU's last in the Big XII Conference.

=====

Collaborations/Content Partnering Efforts

KGOU is an affiliated member of several collaborative/partnering reporting projects that add to and/or expand upon topics and areas of particular interest and concern to our audience. Among these content-generating projects that offer substantive news and issues-related reports (not necessarily prepared by KGOU staff/reporters) are: OPMX/OK Engaged (The Oklahoma Public Media Exchange), Oklahoma Watch/Long Story Short, Capital Insider (KGOU & Quorum Call). These producers generate in-depth reports that are generally five minutes in length on a semi-regular basis. KGOU monitors and chooses particular reports by each of these producers that we believe resonates with the needs, interests, and concerns of our audience.

<https://www.nprstations.org/> offers similar lists of issues and news stories broadcast by National Public Radio during this period.

Morning Edition (ME): Monday through Friday, 5am to 9am. A two hour news and information program from National Public Radio, which is repeated once for the second two-hour period. KGOU inserts local news, sports and weather three times within this program, plus weather and traffic reports two additional times per hour.

Here and Now (HAN): Monday through Thursday, 12noon to 2pm, and Friday, 12noon to 1pm. A mid-day broadcast of news and information from WBUR, Boston and NPR. KGOU inserts two local newscasts plus weather in this program each hour.

All Things Considered (AT): Monday through Friday, 4pm to 7pm. A two-hour news and public affairs program from National Public Radio; KGOU airs the second hour twice and the first hour once. KGOU inserts two local news, reports each hour, plus weather and traffic reports two additional times per hour.

Weekend Edition (WE): Saturday from 7am to 9am and Sunday, 8am to 10am. A two hour news and information program from National Public Radio.

Weekend All Things Considered (AT): Saturday 7 Sunday, 5pm to 6pm. A one hour news and information program from National Public Radio.

1A (1A): Monday through Friday, 9am to 11am. A daily call in program featuring national guests on politics, literature, health and more topics.

Fresh Air (FA): Monday through Thursday at 2pm and 7pm / Friday at 7pm. A daily interview and review program focusing on the popular arts and culture but also including current public affairs.

Reveal (Rev): Mondays at 8pm. A weekly investigative news program produced by the Centers For Investigative Reporting.

Other programs carried by KGOU Radio that contribute to the presentation of news, information and a wide variety of views include:

Left, Right & Center (LRC): Saturdays from 6:00 to 7am. This ½ hour program from KCRW analyzes the week's political news and related issues, and from various differing viewpoints.

Zorba Paster on Your Health (Zorba): Thursdays at 11am. A call in program about health, nutrition and healthy lifestyles.

Science Friday (SciFri): Fridays from 1 to 3pm. This 2 hour program from Public Radio International analyzes the week's scientific, technological and ecological news and related discoveries.

BBC World News (BBC): Monday through Friday, 3 to 4pm and 1am to 5am; Saturday and Sunday from 1am to 7am. A live news and information magazine program with a world perspective.

National Native News Service (NNN): weekdays at 2 & 7pm. This is a five-minute newscast from Alaska Public Radio and features news about Native American populations.

Freakonomics (FR): Saturdays, 11am to noon; Tuesdays, 11am to noon. A weekly program focusing on business-related topics and personal and professional improvement.

Ted Radio Hour (TR): Sundays, 7 to 8am; Mondays, 11am to noon. A weekly program featuring personal anecdotes and storytelling on a range of topics from various professionals, experts and authorities.

Throughline (TL): Sundays, 10 to 11am. A weekly program exploring historical events that cover a range of topics.

Completed by: Jim Johnson
 KGOU Program Director
 April. 9, 2023