Dear Affiliate,

A number of our affiliates have asked us how we think they should reflect in their FCC Form 398 Children's Television Programming Report for the first quarter of 2013 the inadvertent partial "E/I" logo omission that occurred during MeTV Network's scheduled telecast of the children's educational program "Safari" on Saturday, March 23, 2013. While we cannot of course provide legal advice to our affiliates, and therefore encourage affiliates with a question about this matter to consult their appropriate FCC legal counsel, affiliates may wish to provide in their next FCC Form 398 filing (possibly as a comment in response to question 17 of Form 398 or in another appropriate place in the form) a brief description of the partial logo omission and the remedial steps taken by the Network. Those matters were described in a previous email to all affiliates (as well as posted on the MeTV Network affiliate Web site). For the convenience of our affiliates, a summary description of the partial logo omission and the Network's remedial steps also appears below:

Due to an error caused by a bad version of the program that we received from the program distributor, the MeTV Network educational program "Safari," which aired on Saturday, March 23, 2013 from 10:30- 11:00am Eastern/Pacific Time (9:30- 10:00am Central/Mountain Time) did not contain an "E/I" logo superimposition throughout the entire program. This program was identified by the Network as an "E/I" program to the suppliers of program guides, and it was also introduced by an announcement stating that the following program is an "E/I" program. In addition, the "E/I" logo did appear as a superimposition over the program for approximately the first five seconds at the start of each program segment. Due to an error, the logo did not continue to be superimposed thereafter. MeTV Network has informed us that this was an inadvertent error and actions have been taken to help ensure the error does not recur. In addition, this same program episode was aired in a rebroadcast on Saturday, March 30, 2013 from 11:00- 11:30am Eastern/Pacific Time (10:00- 10:30am Central/Mountain Time) in its established second home. This rebroadcast was publicized by announcements on MeTV Network, and the "E/I" logo was superimposed over the program for the entire program duration in this rebroadcast.
