

WBXJ 2013 Quarter 1

During this quarter, the station rebroadcast meetings of the Duval County Commission. These meetings cover issues important to the local community which the station serves. The station will continue to air this programming in order to comply with the Commission's requirements for this type of programming.