

Quarterly Listing of Community Issues and Programs
April 1, 2022 – June 30, 2022
Prepared by: Jasen Sokol, Director, WJCU-FM

News/Current Events

Program: Feature Story News	Producer: Feature Story News
Air Date: Daily Monday-Friday	Time: 8:00 AM, 12:00 PM, 5:00 PM (05:00)

Feature Story News is a five-minute roundup of national and international news. WJCU airs these news roundups three times each weekday.

COVID-19: Pregnancy During COVID

Program: The Best of Our Knowledge	Producer: WAMC
Air Date: April 14, 2022	Time: 12:30 PM (30:00)

The Best of Our Knowledge is a syndicated show that focuses on issues related to education.

Pregnancy means big changes for a woman and her health. Pregnancy during a pandemic threw out all the rules. Today on the Best of Our Knowledge, what science knows and is still learning about COVID and maternity. We'll also take another look at caring for trans students health, and spend an Academic Minute with your brain on Zoom.

Diversity: Music as Escape

Program: With Good Reason	Producer: Virginia Foundation for the Humanities
Air Date: April 26, 2022	Time: 12:30 PM (29:00)

With Good Reason is a weekly, syndicated talk show that explores a wide range of topics with leading scholars.

Formed in the mid 1960's, The Soulmasters was an interracial soul band from Danville, VA. Jerry Wilson and John Irby were the two African-American lead singers, and the other 8 members of the band were white. Producer Matt Darroch headed over to Danville to hear Jerry reflect on his three years in the band and what it was like touring the South during the height of segregation. And: No matter your background or where you're from, we all have that one song that eases our troubles and soothes the soul. Lisa Gilman says this ability to escape through music was a lifeline for American troops during the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan.

Science: The Humans to Mars Summit

Program: Planetary Radio	Producer: Mat Kaplan, The Planetary Society
Air Date: May 2, 2022	Time: 12:30 PM (28:50)

Planetary Radio is a weekly series which provides discussions devoted to space exploration and the scientists, engineers, astronauts, and visionaries who lead it. This episode discusses the question of whether we need to send humans into space. This and other questions were explored by Martin Rees, Britain's Astronomer Royal, and astrophysicist/science author Don Goldsmith in their thought-provoking new book, "The End of Astronauts: Why Robots are the Future of Exploration." They presented their arguments in this week's show.

Health: Doctor-Patient Relationship

Program: With Good Reason	Producer: Virginia Foundation for the Humanities
Air Date: May 3, 2022	Time: 12:30 PM (29:00)

With Good Reason is a weekly, syndicated talk show that explores a wide range of topics with leading scholars.

The patient-doctor relationship is complicated and fraught. Patients often feel confused and talked down to, in part because doctors feel like they need to project authority. As a physician and a poet, Laura Kolbe is trying to make room for uncertainty and humility from both sides in the exam room. Kolbe's new collection of poetry, Little Pharma, explores the messy and human side of doctoring. And: The Covid-19 pandemic has exposed so many vulnerabilities in our healthcare system, from racial inequities to provider burnout. Irène Mathieu is a writer, pediatrician, and medical teacher. She argues that poetry can be a small part of fixing those vulnerabilities.

Health: Effects of Cell Phone Use

Program: With Good Reason	Producer: Virginia Foundation for the Humanities
Air Date: May 17, 2022	Time: 12:30 PM (29:00)

With Good Reason is a weekly, syndicated talk show that explores a wide range of topics with leading scholars.

Whether you're on foot crossing the street, or behind the wheel -- there are a lot of new technologies to be distracted by. Bryan Porter says that we do not recover from looking at our phones as quickly as we think. Is your brain on the road when you are? And: Screen time is transforming children's brains. Robyn Kondrad says there are times when it is useful, alongside glaring limitations.

Education: Student Debt

Program: The Best of Our Knowledge	Producer: WAMC
Air Date: June 9, 2022	Time: 12:30 PM (30:00)

The Best of Our Knowledge is a syndicated show that focuses on issues related to education.

Mike Pierce worked on the student debt issue while at the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau and now serves as executive director of the Student Borrower Protection Center. The nonprofit organization aims to conduct research on the issue that leads to fair and transparent conduct on the part of the loan industry. He joins The Best of Our Knowledge to discuss the economic impact of student loans, what Turner's reporting might mean for reforms of the loan system and why he first became interested in the topic.

Health: Effects of Daylight Savings Time

Program: With Good Reason	Producer: Virginia Foundation for the Humanities
Air Date: June 14, 2022	Time: 12:30 PM (29:00)

With Good Reason is a weekly, syndicated talk show that explores a wide range of topics with leading scholars.

In March, the Senate approved the Sunshine Protection Act - which, if passed, will make daylight savings time permanent. The bill has been praised by many, but Mariana Szklo-Coxe says not so fast. She studies how permanent daylight savings time will affect our sleep. Plus: Postpartum depression is one of the leading complications of childbirth, but most mothers are never screened for it. Jennifer Payne conducted a worldwide study and found that first time moms, young moms, and moms with twins have the highest rates of postpartum depression.

Climate: Snowpack and Drought Across the West

Program: The Best of Our Knowledge	Producer: WAMC
Air Date: June 16, 2022	Time: 12:30 PM (30:00)

The Best of Our Knowledge is a syndicated show that focuses on issues related to education.

On this episode, Dr. Andrew Schwartz of the University of California-Berkeley, joins the show to discuss his work researching the relationship between the snowpack in the Sierra Nevada Mountains and the increasingly devastating fire season in California.

Crime: Child Protective Services

Program: With Good Reason	Producer: Virginia Foundation for the Humanities
Air Date: June 21, 2022	Time: 12:30 PM (29:00)

With Good Reason is a weekly, syndicated talk show that explores a wide range of topics with leading scholars.

When a family is referred to Child Protective Services, they're often treated a lot like criminals on parole. But, the administrative work required to keep their families together can actually make it even harder to parent successfully. Christa Moore says that our child welfare system should operate more like collaborative care and less like bureaucratic punishment. Plus: How does having a parent who is incarcerated affect young people as they get older? Heidi Williams is talking to 18 - 25 year olds whose parents were incarcerated at some point during their childhood. She found that many of them were extra-motivated to succeed and, particularly, to help younger siblings.

Health: Use of Psychedelics in Medicine

Program: The Best of Our Knowledge	Producer: WAMC
Air Date: June 30, 2022	Time: 12:30 PM (30:00)

The Best of Our Knowledge is a syndicated show that focuses on issues related to education.

Ismail Ali, the director of policy and advocacy for MAPS, joins The Best of Our Knowledge to explain the legal and regulatory framework that psychedelic research is working within, and how that applies not just to the medical profession, but to people seeking care.