

WBPH Issues Programming

Monday, July 2nd 2012

8:30pm

30 min.

Business Leaders on the Budget, and State Transportation Needs

This week's Pennsylvania Newsmakers features a business panel with Fred Anton, CEO of the Pennsylvania Manufacturers' Association, and Gene Barr, President & CEO of the Pennsylvania Chamber of Business & Industry, who discuss the effects of the state budget proposal on the business community. Then, host Terry Madonna is joined by Bob Latham, Executive Vice President of Associated Pennsylvania Constructors, for a discussion of the state's transportation needs.

WBPH Issues Programming

Monday, July 9th, 2012

8:30pm

30 min.

Voter ID Debate, Summer Recess, and State Agriculture

This week's Pennsylvania Newsmakers features a discussion of the continued debate over the state's photo voter ID law and legislative action before the summer recess with Robert Swift, of Times-Shamrock Newspapers, and Matt Belanger, of WGAL-News 8. Then, joining host Terry Madonna is Joan Hendricks, Dean of the University of Pennsylvania's School of Veterinary Medicine, for an assessment of the importance of the school to state agriculture.

WBPH Issues Programming

Monday, July 23rd, 2012

8:30pm

30 min.

Senator Pat Toomey and the Financial Literacy Update

This week's Pennsylvania Newsmakers features a special interview with U.S. Senator Pat Toomey on the federal budget, deficits, entitlement reform, and Mitt Romney's Vice Presidential selection. Then, joining host Terry Madonna for the Financial Literacy Update are Jim McCormack, CEO of the Pennsylvania Credit Union Association, and April Singleton, the 2012 Pennsylvania Credit Union Association Youth Ambassador.

WBPH Issues Programming

Monday, July 30th, 2012

8:30pm

30 min.

Orie Sentencing, Budget Negotiations, and Cost of College

This week's Pennsylvania Newsmakers features journalists Brad Bumsted of the Pittsburgh Tribune-Review, and Tony Romeo of KYW/KDKA Radio, who provide an update on the state budget negotiation and the sentencing of former state senator Jane Orie. Then, joining host Terry Madonna are Mike Wishnow, Senior Vice President of the Pennsylvania Credit Union Association, and Bob Marquette, CEO of Members 1st Credit Union, for a financial literacy update focusing on the value of a college education.

WBPH Issues Programming

Monday, August 6th, 2012
8:30pm
30 min.

Governor Corbett on Judicial Appointments, the Shell Refinery Tax Break, and more

This week's Pennsylvania Newsmakers features a special interview with Pennsylvania Governor Tom Corbett. Host Terry Madonna talks with the governor about liquor store privatization, the shell refinery tax break, judicial appointments, payday lending, school reform, and more.

WBPH Issues Programming

Monday Aug 13th, 2012

8:30pm

30 min.

Senator Pat Toomey and the Financial Literacy Update

This week's Pennsylvania Newsmakers features a special interview with U.S. Senator Pat Toomey on the federal budget, deficits, entitlement reform, and Mitt Romney's Vice Presidential selection. Then, joining host Terry Madonna for the Financial Literacy Update are Jim McCormack, CEO of the Pennsylvania Credit Union Association, and April Singleton, the 2012 Pennsylvania Credit Union Association Youth Ambassador.

WBPH Issues Programming

Monday, August 20th, 2012

8:30pm

30 min.

Voter ID Controversy and Senior Health Care

This week's Pennsylvania Newsmakers features a discussion of Pennsylvania's controversial voter ID law with journalists Amy Worden, of the Philadelphia Inquirer, and John Micek, of the Allentown Morning Call. Then, joining host Terry Madonna for a discussion of senior health care are Dr. Judith Black, Medical Director of Senior Markets for Highmark and Christine Heasley, Highmark's Manager of Health Equity and Quality Services.

WBPH Issues Programming

Monday, August 27th, 2012

8:30pm

30 min.

Party Convention Previews and the Financial Literacy Update

This week's Pennsylvania Newsmakers features a preview of the upcoming national party conventions with Dr. John McLarnon, Associate Professor of History at Millersville University, and Berwood Yost, Director of the Center for Opinion Research at Franklin & Marshall College. Then, joining host Terry Madonna for the financial literacy update are Mike Wishnow, Senior Vice President of the Pennsylvania Credit Union Association, and Greg Smith CEO of PSECU.

WBPH Issues Programming

Monday, September 3rd, 2012

8:30pm

30 min.

Medicare, the ACA, and Utility Infrastructure

This week's Pennsylvania Newsmakers features a discussion of the Affordable Care Act and Medicare with Mike Strazzella, Senior Vice President of Federal Relations for the Hospital and Healthsystem Association of Pennsylvania. Then, joining host Terry Madonna is Terry Fitzpatrick, CEO of the Energy Association of Pennsylvania, for a discussion of advanced meters and utility infrastructure.

WBPH Issues Programming

Monday, September 10th, 2012

8:30pm

30 min.

Upcoming Legislative Agenda and the Latest on Voter ID

On this week's Pennsylvania Newsmakers, Matt Belanger of WGAL News 8 fills in for Terry Madonna and talks with State Representatives Stan Saylor (R-94th District) and Eugene DePasquale (D-95th District) about transportation funding, property taxes, and the general upcoming legislative agenda, followed by an interview with Secretary of the Commonwealth Carol Aichele about the specifics of the Voter ID legislation.

WBPH Issues Programming

Monday, September 17th, 2012

8:30pm

30 min.

The Part-Time Legislature, Voter ID, and Ideas for Reform

This week's Pennsylvania Newsmakers features Amy Worden of the Philadelphia Inquirer and Keegan Gibson, Managing Editor of PoliticsPA.com, who discuss Voter ID, a part-time legislature, and redistricting. Then, joining Terry Madonna is Tim Potts, President of Democracy Rising, to talk about a number of legislative reform proposals with broad public support.