ISSUE Public Interest

10 06 2022 at 1600 Kresta in the Afternoon 60 minutes Broadcaster, journalist, author and public speaker, Al Kresta takes a closer look at current events, issues, and ideas. Kresta is joined by Peggy Stanton to discuss the upcoming weekend Gospel reading and helps to prepare listeners for the story of the Ten Lepers. Also, Abigail Favale, a writer and professor in the McGrath Institute for Church Life at the University of Notre Dame, looks at the roots of the Gender Paradigm. Finally, Kresta is joined by Raymond Ibrahim, a widely published author and public speaker specializing in the Middle East and Islam, who recounts heroic stories of people who helped defend the Christian west from Islam.

10 13 2022 at 1600 Kresta in the Afternoon 60 minutes Broadcaster, journalist, author and public speaker, Al Kresta takes a closer look at current events, issues, and ideas. Kresta is joined by Carter Snead, author and professor at the University of Notre Dame, to discuss what it means to be human. Justice Anthony Kennedy said of the 1992 Supreme Court Case, Planned Parenthood v Casey, that at the heart of liberty is the right to define one's own concept of existence, of meaning, of the universe, and of the mystery of human life. This viewpoint that defines humans as their ability to choose is pervasive in American law and policy, but it disregards a stubborn fact that we are naturally limited to be dependent on others. Carter Snead and Kresta discuss this viewpoint.

10 20 2022 at 1600 Kresta in the Afternoon 60 minutes Broadcaster, journalist, author and public speaker, Al Kresta takes a closer look at current events, issues, and ideas. Kresta is joined by Ryan Anderson, a political philosopher, author, and president of the Ethics and Public Policy Center in Washington D.C., to discuss why arguments about bodily autonomy and forced birth do not justify abortion, and how abortion harms every part of our society. Kresta said we all have areas in which we are ignorant, and that ignorance can be overcome by learning. However, he questions if there is a point when ignorance becomes arrogance.

10 27 2022 at 1600 Kresta in the Afternoon 60 minutes Broadcaster, journalist, author and public speaker, Al Kresta takes a closer look at current events, issues, and ideas. Kresta is joined by Matthew Bunson, Executive Editor and Washington Bureau Chief for EWTN News, Senior Fellow at St. Paul Center for Biblical Theology, and author, to discuss why there are so many members of the Pontifical Academy for Life at odds with Church Teaching. They discuss how, in 1994, Pope John Paul II set up the Pontifical Academy for Life to promote the Church teachings on the value and sacredness of human life, but four recent appointees to the Academy have publicly broken with Church teaching on abortion and contraception. Kresta then comments on the Church teaching on the doctrine of Hell.

11 03 2022 at 1600 Kresta in the Afternoon 60 minutes Broadcaster, journalist, author and public speaker, Al Kresta takes a closer look at current events, issues, and ideas. In commemoration of All Saints Day earlier in the week, Kresta looks back on a conversation with the late Fr. Thomas Dubay, priest, author, and retreat director who wrote more than 20 books on Catholic spirituality, who reflects on the everyday holiness of the saints.

11 10 2022 at 1600 Kresta in the Afternoon 60 minutes Broadcaster, journalist, author and public speaker, Al Kresta takes a closer look at current events, issues, and ideas. November 9 marks the anniversary of Kristallnacht. On that night Nazi SS officials, with the help of the Hitler Youth and regular civilians, ransacked and demolished thousands of Jewish homes and businesses throughout Germany. 267 synagogues were destroyed, and more than 30,000 Jewish men were sent to concentration camps. It is a tragedy that cannot be lost to history. Al looks at why it is important to remember this night with historian Mitchell Bard. Al then talks about the election in Michigan. Despite Republican exuberance fueled by late polls that showed tightening races, the challenges to Democratic control of the top state offices fell short. Al discusses what went wrong.

11 17 2022 at 1600 Kresta in the Afternoon 60 minutes Broadcaster, journalist, author and public speaker, Al Kresta takes a closer look at current events, issues, and ideas. In the first half of the show, Al reads and comments on the letter by outgoing USCCB President Jose Gomez. Gomez addressed his fellow bishops this week and spoke passionately on the importance of evangelization in countering the secularization of society. Then, Al talks with James Patterson on how the American understanding of public religion has evolved. At first glance, Archbishop Fulton Sheen, Dr. Martin Luther King Jr and Rev. Jerry Falwell do not seem to have much in common. However, these three were dominant religious figures in different eras of the 20th century and used contemporary media to great effect as they tried to change how Americans understood the nature and purpose of their country and the relationship between religion and public life.

11 24 2022 at 1600 Kresta in the Afternoon 60 minutes Broadcaster, journalist, author and public speaker, Al Kresta takes a closer look at current events, issues, and ideas. In the episode this week, Kresta talks with Susan Muto, author, speaker, teacher, executive director of the Epiphany Association and dean of the Epiphany Academy of Formative Spirituality, who discusses the spiritual benefits of gratitude. Next, Robert Tracy McKenzie, Chair of Faith and Learning and Professor of History at Wheaton College, and author, explains what makes Thanksgiving the Holiday at the Heart of the American Experience.

12 08 2022 at 1600 Kresta in the Afternoon 60 minutes Broadcaster, journalist, author and public speaker, Al Kresta takes a closer look at current events, issues, and ideas. In this episode, Al talks the Feast of the Immaculate Conception by looking at Marian imagery in the Old Testament with Sandra Miesel, an American medievalist and writer. Then, Kresta talks with William Albrecht, author, and Father Christian Kappes, author and academic dean and professor at Sts Cyril and Methodius Byzantine Catholic Seminary in Pittsburg, PA about discovering what the Gospels say about our Blessed Mother.

12 15 2022 at 1600 Kresta in the Afternoon 60 minutes Broadcaster, journalist, author and public speaker, Al Kresta takes a closer look at current events, issues, and ideas. In this episode, Al dedicates the hour to discussing a list of recommended books. He opened the phone lines to callers inviting them to call in and suggest thought provoking and inspiring books for other listeners to read throughout the Christmas season and beyond. A compiled list was then supplied for listeners on Ave Marias website.

Oct.15 / Show Description:

Book Review: You Shall Stand Firm
(Battle-Ready?)

Referencing a recent personal episode by way of receiving Communion, Tim lays bare the personality-profile of troublesome baby-boom Clergy. Such internal Evil , within the Church, has given rise to the "battle-ready" call of Fr William Casey to stand up and exercise fraternal charity, now, in this era of post-Fatima lukewarmness and confusion.

Oct.22/ Book Review: You Shall Stand Firm
(On God's Mercy)

Approaching an important election , the new book, "Battle for the American Mind" by Pete Hegseth , lays a good foundation for Judeo-Christian "common-ground" thinking . Tim highlights the connection between Freedom and Virtue! Then, Fr William Casey , in his book "You Shall Stand Firm", stresses the importance of accepting God's Mercy if we are to convert ourselves, our Church and our Country.

Nov.12 / Show Description:

Book Review : You Shall Stand Firm (Mercy Abounds!)

Tim focuses in on age-old Catholic Teaching on the Sacrament of Confession and its' Holy cleansing Power for the Soul. Fr William Casey also cites the writings of St Faustina and St Claude de la Colombiere for everyone's Peace of Soul. A particular highlight sees Guilty-Anger and its' resistance to dialogue.

Nov.26 / Show Description:

Life and Writings of Pope St. Clement I

After some wishful and poignant thoughts for a Christian-Unified Thanksgiving table, Tim lays forth the life of one of our earliest Apostolic Successors, Pope St.Clement I . Many of his wisdom sayings are highlighted with a particular highlight on the "other-worldliness" of true Christians.

Dec.11/ Show Description:

Book Review: You Shall Stand Firm
(the War of All-Time)

After a few poignant thoughts on the strengthening of Marriage for the holidays, Tim continues on with Fr William Casey's dead serious warning about the Spiritual Battle of All-time; God, The Devil and Us! Urging an immediate return to the Sacraments of our Holy Mother Church, Confession and Communion especially, Father reminds us that the Devil is Real and he doesn't come with a pitchfork and horns!

Dec.17/ Show Description:

Book Review: You Shall Stand Firm (on the Father of Lies)

After a brief expose on the Theology of Work and its' connection to "Spiritual Childhood, Tim returns to Fr William Casey's analysis of the origin of Lies; the Devil! Citing multiple theological lies at work over decades, Father makes clear we are Not a Church of "Nice" but rather the Church Militant.
