SUBJECT: Allegany County Library System

Discussion: The Allegany County Library System continues to remain connected to the community by creating events and activities to fit the community needs. From story time with children, cookbook club, community centered events like “meal in a mug” events where they do a demonstration of how to cook with little ingredients and resources. They have also partnered with UPMC to offer a body balance resistance class program. All these programs are free and require little work ahead of time or registration. They plan to continue to offer programs as mentioned as well as adding new programs for the community.

SUBJECT: The American Red Cross

Discussion: The Red Cross serves your local community with the primary mission of blood donation and disaster preparedness. Volunteers are always needed and appreciated. Technology has made it easy for donators to schedule appointments and access the closest donation site. The Red Cross saw a decrease in donations and the interviewee gave examples of the professionalism of the staff and their expertise; expressing the importance of blood donation and encouraging the public to donate while the process has been made easier.

SUBJECT: Harper Strong

Discussion: Harper Struntz is an 8-year-old girl who fell ill in September. Her symptoms remained the same and increased in discomfort. She was admitted to the children's hospital of Pittsburgh where she received treatment for both liver and heart failure. A benefit will be held Jan 27th to help her family offset costs of treatment and relocating. She is currently residing at the Ronald McDonald house in Pittsburgh awaiting a heart transplant. Five local bands will be taking the stage at the event. Chinese auction and 50/50 raffles will be available as well. They are looking for any help from the public including monetary donations as well as gift certificates. There is a gofundme on the Harper Strong Facebook Page.

SUBJECT: Catholic Schools Week

Discussion: Catholic Schools week is an annual education to celebrate Catholic education all over the United States. Starting the last Sunday in January and will run all week. Event will be held during the week like “bring a friend day” this event includes a shadow day and it’s a great way for non-Bishop Walsh students to see what a day in the life as a Bishop Walsh student looks like. They have an event where they partner younger students up with older students as a prayer buddy and they have that buddy for an entire year where they can connect and learn about each other.

SUBJECT: Mineral County Pre-K Headstart Registration

Discussion: Mineral County Head Start is a Pre-Kindergarten program for children. Call your home school, the school that is in the district you are living and schedule an appointment. Residents looking to enroll their kids need to gather the required documentation such as an updated vaccination record, proof of live birth two proofs of residence and a social security card. They cannot enroll a student in the state of West Virginia without a live birth certificate which many people get confused about and they provide resources to help the public obtain that. They ask the public requiring assistance to call their office and they will assist in obtaining the required information needed.

SUBJECT: Friend's Aware

Discussion: On February the 14th they will be celebrating Friends Aware's 70th birthday. On February 14th in 1954 the Long family hosted a group of families who encountered the same difficulties as they did; trying to get their children educational opportunities in the local school systems. The school systems had no programs to offer them at the time and they went as a group to the school system requesting change. This encounter is what evolved into what Friend's Aware is today. Friends Aware is a full-service program for adults with special and developmental needs. They offer full day and residential programs. They are developing an employment service to help participants find jobs.

SUBJECT: Energy Express

Discussion: Energy Express is a summer literacy program for children. The program includes art, writing and drama learning activities. They are requesting the public to collect items now as they will be accepting them in May and June. Requested items are everyday household items that are thrown out often without a second thought, like items such as egg cartons, fabrics, milk cartons, paper towel roll and many other items. These items allow the children to think critically and artistically about how to make them work for their projects. More information can be found on the Energy Express, Mineral County Facebook Page.

SUBJECT: Diamond Mine Dress Consignment Fundraiser

Discussion: Diamond Mine Dress Sale to benefit the Mountain Ridge School District. People can donate or cosign used dresses. A portion of cosigned gowns will go to the Mountain Ridge School District. The event will be held at the City Place in Frostburg and sponsored by She's So Pretty in Lonaconing MD. The interviewee works as a social worker for Allegany County Public Schools and this fundraiser was an idea of her own. She knew there was a huge need for a secondhand dress sale for the students in Allegany County not only to do a little spring cleaning but to provide the less fortunate an opportunity to get a Homecoming or Prom dress that is second hand that might have only been worn for a few hours.

SUBJECT: Parents Night Out

Discussion: Parents Night Out events are comprised of specialist from organizations providing innovative programing for parents. There was a grant received from the Maryland Family Network and after collaboration with other agencies it was decided parents need help with parenting children with different behavioral needs or issues. Most parenting programs are evidence-based programs where you must commit to x number of weeks and people don't see the benefits. These techniques will be acted out in a theatre style and show how these techniques work. There will be four different dates and each date there is three different skits with a family café hopefully leading to bring on parent support groups. They are providing dinner, transportation and childcare if needed.
