

Throughout the entirety of 2022, there were no written or verbal complaints submitted to the station regarding our signal interfering with public or private services.