

Quarterly Needs and Programs Report

2nd Quarter, 2015

Description of Programming

KSJQ Perspective

A three-minute program on a topic of interest, often one of the top news stories of the week, based on interviews with the people involved. Perspective is broadcast Saturday at 5:50 a.m.

Education

5.30.15 Missouri Western is signing up students for two summer programs; with Dr. Britt Johnson and Dr. Gerald Smalls of the Department of Health, Physical Education, and Recreation.

6.13.15 Acting superintendent of the Saint Joseph School District leaves to become superintendent of schools in Mountain Home, Arkansas; with Dr. Jake Long.

Health

6.6.15 City of Saint Joseph considers closing the North American Native Animals exhibit at Krug Park because of health concerns about the animals; with City Councilmember Pat Jones.

6.20.15 Conservation Commission approves new regulations to try to slow the spread of Chronic Wasting Disease; with deer biologist Jason Sumners.

Law Enforcement

4.18.15 Saint Joseph observes National Public Safety Telecommunicators Week by honoring its emergency dispatchers; with Saint Joseph Police Chief Chris Connally.

Service Organizations

4.25.15 Fundraising event for The Center, which provides mental health services for hundreds of clients, regardless of ability to pay; with Erin Lippincott of The Center in Saint Joseph.

Quality of Life

4.4.15 New book club forming in Saint Joseph as part of the online book club started by Facebook founder Mark Zuckerberg; with Dan Danford of Family Investment Center in Saint Joseph.

5.2.15 Activities planned for Apple Blossom Festival weekend in Saint Joseph; with Brian Myers of the Downtown Association, Matt Unzicker of Saint Joseph Passport, and Roger Martin of the Uptown Redevelopment District.

5.23.15 Grand opening of Saint Joseph's first off-leash dog park; with Kappy Hodges of the Friends of the Animal Shelter.

6.27.15 Northwest Health Services expands its 340-B prescription drug discount program; with Chief Medical Officer Dr Cristyn Watkins.