Issue: Animal Welfare

Description:

Mary Louk is Board President for Animal Charities Humane Society of Mahoning County. This non profit is devoted to animal rescue and employs a humane agent to investigate and take action in cases of animal abuse and neglect. Mary explains the process and notes that even when a case of animal neglect is discovered the case must go through proper legal procedure before an animal can be removed. Another option is to convince the owner to surrender the animal to Animal Charities where it can get be properly cared for and rehabilitated prior to being available for adoption.
