Issue: Child Protection

Description:

Tim Schaffner, Executive Director of Trumbull County Children's Services, talks about how the pandemic has impacted the agency and its clients since the early days of the pandemic (almost a year ago as of this date). The agency experienced a decline in referral calls of nearly 50% due to lockdown and remote learning for students. In recent months the agency is seeing somewhat of a 'return to normal'. Tim says there is always a need for foster families and encourages those interested to apply.
