Hagerstown Aviation Museum Event PSA

Open Airplane Day – October 7, 2023

EAA Young Eagles Flights – October 7, 2023

The Hagerstown Aviation Museum will host an Open Airplane Day and the EAA (Experimental Aircraft Association) Young Eagle flights on Saturday October 7th from 9AM until 4PM in our newly renovated Dome Hangar.

This will be the final open event of the season and the renovations of the Dome Hangar near completion and we prepare for the Grand Opening of the museum building to the public.

This will be an opportunity to see the recent renovations of the original, 1943 Fairchild test flight hangar. The museum's newly acquired RC-26B Air Force Intelligence, Surveillance and Reconnaissance airplane and our iconic "Dustoff" Huey UH-1V air ambulance helicopter will be on display.

Weather permitting, the museum's two PT-19 WW II trainers will be available for experience flights.

The museum, housed in part of the former Fairchild Aircraft facility, is adjacent to the Hagerstown Regional Airport.

Entry to the event will be through the Basore Drive gate; signs will be posted to guide attendees.

A $5 entry donation is suggested.

FRIENDS OF THE WASHINGTON COUNTY HERITAGE MUSEUM ANNOUNCES ITS HOLIDAY OPEN HOUSE!

(Boonsboro, MD) Saturday December 2nd Sunday December 3rd (11AM-4PM) kicks off the 2023 Christmas season for the annual Holiday Open House being hosted by the Friends of the Washington County Heritage Museum.

Santa will be giving out candy canes to children as they sit next to him in his north pole sleigh and tell him what they want Christmas. You will enjoy live Christmas music being played on the old Moller pipe organ that was built in Hagerstown over 120 years ago.

Activities for children will include making an ornament for their Christmas tree and a museum scavenger hunt. Have your child write a letter to Santa at home and put it in his mailbox that will be at the museum. Take a stroll through our 1800's rural village and homestead that will be decorated.

There are plenty of photo opportunities so bring your camera!

No admission - Donations are always appreciated.

The Gift Shop will be open both days.

The Friends of the Washington County Rural Heritage Museum is a non-profit dedicated to the preservation of the heritage of early Washington County. They maintain the original buildings that were donated and moved from various locations in Washington County along with three indoor museums full of Antique Cars, Tractors, Wagons, and examples of early home life.

Location: Rural Heritage Museum at the Washington County Agricultural Education Center. 7313 Sharpsburg Pike Boonsboro MD 21713. A few miles south of Antietam Battlefield on Route 65 South.
