THE WEEK IN POLITICS

WEEK IN POLITICS

THERE'S A NEW TWIST IN THE GOVERNMENT'S INVESTIGATION OF HILLARY CLINTON'S E-MAILS AND THE ROLE OF ATTORNEY GENERAL LORETTA LYNCH, AFTER A CONTROVERSIAL MEETING WITH BILL CLINTON RAISED EYEBROWS. NBC'S ANDREA MITCHELL HAS IT ALL COVERED.

Mitchell Live Lead:

BECAUSE OF THE POLITICAL UPROAR OVER THAT MEETING BETWEEN LYNCH AND FORMER PRESIDENT BILL CLINTON, IN A HIGHLY UNUSUAL STEP IN THE MIDDLE OF AN INVESTIGATION, LYNCH WILL ANNOUNCE TODAY THAT SHE WILL ACCEPT THE RECOMMENDATION OF CAREER PROSECUTORS AND THE FBI ON THE HILLARY CLINTON EMAIL CASE AND NOT OVERRULE THEM. THIS ALL STEMMED FROM WHAT SHE HAD DESCRIBED AS A CHANCE ENCOUNTER.

(-- PKG --)

The former President in Phoenix campaigning for his wife. The Attorney General visiting local police, but it was a 30 minute meeting on her government plane when they crossed paths at the airport that's causing controversy.

SOT Donald Trump - HANNITY

"I ACTUALLY THOUGHT THEY WERE JOKING. I THOUGHT THE PEOPLE THAT TOLD ME WERE, YOU KNOW, I -- I SAID NO WAY, THERE'S NO WAY THAT'S GOING TO HAPPEN. AND IT HAPPENED.. UH, AND I AM JUST -- I'M FLABBERGASTED BY IT. I THINK IT'S AMAZING."

Judicial Watch, the group that sued for Hillary Clinton's e-mails - demanding an investigation.

Lynch calling it a social chat - about golf and grandchildren.

SOT Loretta Lynch

"THERE WAS NO DISCUSSION OF ANY MATTER PENDING FOR THE DEPARTMENT. THERE WAS NO DISCUSSION OF BENGHAZI, NO DISCUSSION OF THE STATE DEPARTMENT E-MAILS, BY WAY OF EXAMPLE."

Even some Democrats expressing uneasiness about the meeting. Former Obama advisor David Axelrod tweeting:

"I take lorettalynch & billclinton at their word that their convo in Phoenix didn't touch on probe. But foolish to create such optics."

Although others - Senator Cory Booker and Chuck Schumer - defending Lynch.

The president - not commenting, when asked.

8

NAT SOT OBAMA

"THANK-YOU VERY MUCH EVERYBODY."

Meanwhile, Donald Trump, also courting controversy - with a crack about Mexico while blasting free trade deals. Hearing a plane overhead during his remarks he quipped:

SOT Trump

"THAT COULD BE A MEXICAN PLANE UP THERE, THEY'RE GETTING READY TO ATTACK."

And NBC News has confirmed that both New Jersey Governor Chris Christie and former House Speaker Newt Gingrich are being vetted as possible Trump running mates.

This as NBC's new battleground map today shows Clinton maintaining an edge over Trump, Florida moving from a Toss-up 2 months ago to now leaning Democratic. On the downside - Nevada and Pennsylvania - formerly leaning her way - are now both TOSS-UPS.

Mitchell Live Tag:

BUT AS TRUMP MOVES TOWARD HIS VICE PRESIDENTIAL CHOICE, THE CLINTON CAMPAIGN IS NOW DEALING WITH THE SELF INFLICTED WOUND OF THIS BLOWUP OVER THE EMAIL INVESTIGATION, A CONTROVERSY NOT LIKELY TO BE DIMINISHED BY THE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S SPEECH TODAY.

First Read's Morning Clips: Lynch Will Accept FBI Recs on Clinton Probe

OFF TO THE RACES: Lynch will accept FBI recommendations on Clinton email probe

The Wall Street Journal does a deep dive into how a third party could affect the election.

CLINTON: Breaking, from the New York Times: "Attorney General Loretta E. Lynch plans to announce on Friday that she will accept whatever recommendation career prosecutors and the F.B.I. director make about whether to bring charges related to Hillary Clinton's personal email server, a Justice Department official said. Her decision removes the possibility that a political appointee will overrule investigators in the case. The Justice Department had been moving toward such an arrangement for months — officials said in April that it was being considered — but a private meeting between Ms. Lynch and former President Bill Clinton this week set off a political furor and made the decision all but inevitable."

"Citing the agency's own errors in the handling of a request for emails of four former aides to Hillary Clinton, the State Department is asking a federal judge to extend the deadline to complete processing of the records by more than two years," POLITICO writes.

SANDERS: Joe Biden says that Sanders "is going to endorse" Hillary Clinton.

advertisement

But then on MSNBC Thursday night, Sanders didn't confirm or deny that an endorsement is coming.

POLITICO reports that he is itching for a convention fight.

TRUMP: The Washington Post reports that Chris Christie and Newt Gingrich are at the top of the VP shortlist.

Mike Pence is "in play" for the job as well, NBC News reports.

NBC's Benjy Sarlin reports on the infighting within Trump's Reddit fans.

And Trump faced wild questions at his New Hampshire town hall, including one from a woman upset with "heebeejabees" working at the TSA.

Trump is headed for some potentially rocky terrain in Colorado.

One thing we know for sure about the GOP convention? It'll be unpredictable.

Trump has already parted ways with his newly hired digital strategist, writes POLITICO.

"For Trump, feuding with powerful business interests makes him an attractive candidate for many disaffected working-class voters, including some who have supported Democrats in the past," the Washington Post writes. "But the loud dispute also risks alienating many of the Republican Party's wealthy benefactors at a time when he is struggling to kick his long-dormant fundraising operation into gear. A stridently protectionist message could also push some moderate Main Street Republicans to support Democratic rival Hillary Clinton, in much the same way that many Republicans in the foreign policy world have done."

And from the Washington Post: "Donald Trump used money donated for charity to buy himself a Tim Tebow-signed football helmet"
