Giuliani on his claim that Clinton is "too stupid to be president" because of Monica Lewinsky scandal: "I'm the right person to level this charge" Clinton Campaign Manager Robby Mook on leaked audio from Clinton primary fundraiser: "The original piece completely mischaracterized what she was talking about"

OCT. 2, 2016 -- In an interview with "Meet the Press" moderator Chuck Todd, Trump adviser and former New York City mayor Rudy Giuliani addressed The New York Times' report on the Republican presidential nominee's tax deduction: "If he didn't take advantage of it, he would have been sued.... The reality is he's a genius."

Giuliani also defended his comments from Monday night, in which he said Democratic presidential nominee Hillary Clinton is "too stupid to be president" because "she attacked Monica Lewinsky": "She was wrong to attack the victim... I'm the right person to level this charge, because I've never made such a charge." When noted that he has his own infidelities, Giuliani responded, "Well, everybody does... I've never ever attacked someone who's been the victim of sexual abuse." Watch the full interview here: <http://nbcnews.to/2dn90fM>.

Sanders' supporters as kids who are essentially still living in their parents' basement. "I really encourage everybody to listen to that full audio," he told Todd. "She was talking about young people that she'd met who were frustrated that they graduated from college and went into an economy where they couldn't find the job they wanted or expected."

founder of The Blaze, characterized voter attitudes right now: “We're not going to lose our houses or our jobs or our country. We're losing something much more important. We're losing ourselves. We're losing our civility. We're losing our decency. We're, we're losing our neighbors and our family.” Watch Moore in full here: <http://nbcnews.to/2cKsSLX>, and Beck in full here: <http://nbcnews.to/2cKsSLX>.

EXCLUSIVE: Kaine: “I share those concerns and questions” of other politicians about AT&T/Time Warner merger PLUS: Kaine: “I would want to at least serve until there’s a replacement to be named” in a lame duck Senate Trump campaign manager Conway on nominee’s threat to sue accusers: “It’s a way to defend himself.... He’s just putting people on notice”

OCT. 23, 2016 -- In an exclusive interview with moderator Chuck Todd, Democratic vice presidential nominee Sen. Tim Kaine addressed whether he and former Sec. Hillary Clinton would pursue a version of T.P.P. if elected, noting “we aren't against trade,” but “we haven't talked about that in particular.” Kaine said it was not a requirement to come out against the controversial trade deal before joining the Democratic presidential ticket.

On news of the AT&T and Time Warner merger, Kaine said that he shares the “concerns and questions” raised by figures including Sen. Al Franken and Republican presidential nominee Donald Trump: “Less concentration, I think, is generally helpful, especially in the media, but this has just been announced, and I haven't had a chance to dig into the details.” Watch the full exclusive interview: <http://nbcnews.to/2eHuTGk>.

Trump campaign manager Kellyanne Conway acknowledged the Republican nominee’s place in the polls, telling Todd, “we are behind,” noting that Clinton “has tremendous advantages.” She also addressed how Trump began his rally speech in Pennsylvania yesterday by threatening to sue those who have accused him of sexual misconduct: “It’s a way to defend himself, and remind everybody what he has said many times, which is none of this is true.” When asked why he hasn’t filed suit yet, Conway replied: “We're busy winning the presidency... He's just I think putting people on notice that they can't just falsely accuse them.” Watch the full interview: <http://nbcnews.to/2eHrEPd>.

MTP: CLINTON CAMPAIGN MANAGER ON NEW 'PERTINENT' EMAILS IN FBI PROBE: "I HAVE ALL THE FACTS... THAT'S WHY WE ARE SO PUZZLED RIGHT NOW"

Robby Mook on if this 'October surprise' could cost Clinton the election: "I don't think so" GOP VP Nominee Mike Pence on Clinton Emails: "Why doesn't she ask her senior aide to release all these emails?" Pence on FBI Director James Comey: "I've always found him to be a straight shooter"

OCT. 30, 2016 -- Robby Mook, campaign manager for Democratic presidential nominee Hillary Clinton, reacted to Friday's letter from FBI Director James Comey which cited new "pertinent" emails in the Clinton probe and defended senior aide Huma Abedin's connection to the emails: "I absolutely feel I have all the facts because all the facts were put out there. The summaries of the interviews - the Justice Department said that Huma fully cooperated. That's, again, why we are so puzzled right now."

He added: "Abedin cooperated fully with the investigation that concluded this summer....They were all released out to the public at our request. If these are emails from Huma Abedin -- we don't know if they are, but if they are, we assume they'd have to be redundant because she already turned over all of her emails." Watch the full interview: <http://nbcnews.to/2ebo06s>.

Mook's statements echoed what Pete Williams, justice correspondent for NBC News, shared at the top of the program: "They may be duplicates of what they've already discovered through the emails she gave to the State Department or that the F.B.I. found on its own." He added: "They have no idea what's in these emails." Watch: <http://nbcnews.to/2e1qtIG>.

Republican vice presidential nominee Mike Pence also joined "Meet the Press," noting that he has "always found" Director Comey "to be a straight shooter." He asked: "Hillary Clinton, when this story broke, I believe she was travelling with Huma Abedin. I mean, why didn't she just turn to Huma and say, "Put these emails out?" Watch the full interview: <http://nbcnews.to/2e1jhff>.

Pence's running mate Donald Trump trails Clinton by six points in North Carolina but is in a dead heat with her in Florida, according to new NBC News/Wall Street Journal/Marist polls released this morning: <http://nbcnews.to/2dSDI32>.

Independent presidential candidate Evan McMullin commented on what might happen if neither Clinton or Trump get 270 electoral votes: "I'm confident that we would be able to compete quite well" in the House. McMullin also said that former Gov. Mitt Romney has not contributed to his campaign. Watch the full interview: <http://nbcnews.to/2e1oofN>.

MTP: VP-ELECT PENCE: TRUMP'S CALL WITH TAIWAN WAS "COURTESY," "WOULDN'T EXPECT" OUTREACH TO CHINA TO CALM WATERS

PLUS: Indiana Gov. Mike Pence: "Up to the President-elect" if Petraeus' mishandling of classified information disqualifies him to be State Sec. Former Trump campaign manager Kellyanne Conway: "We are the ones who understood America" Former Clinton pollster Joel Benenson: "We have to rebuild at the state levels"

DEC. 4, 2016 -- In an interview this morning with "Meet the Press" moderator Chuck Todd, Vice President-elect Mike Pence said that President-elect Trump's "call from the democratically-elected leader of Taiwan" was "a courtesy call." When asked if the administration-elect would be reaching out to the Chinese government this week to calm the waters, Pence replied, "I wouldn't expect so. But to be honest with you, the waters here seem like a little bit of a tempest in a teapot."

The Indiana governor also addressed the possibility of former Gen. David Petraeus in the role of secretary of state, telling Todd that it will be "up to the president-elect" if Petraeus' mishandling of classified information disqualifies him for the position. "The president-elect will weigh that against the backdrop of an extraordinary career in military service, whether it's in the role of Secretary of State or another role in this administration," he added.

Andrea Mitchell, chief foreign affairs correspondent for NBC News, emphasized the weight of the Taiwan phone call in a panel discussion following Pence's interview: "The point is the conversation happened. And even here, someone as careful as Mike Pence referred to her as the president of Taiwan....That's a no-no."

Kellyanne Conway, former campaign manager for President-elect Trump, and Joel Benenson, former pollster for Democratic presidential nominee Hillary Clinton, joined the network broadcast to reflect on a heated discussion earlier this week at Harvard's traditional election postmortem. Conway noted, "The fact is that we are the ones who understood America," while Benenson underscored that the Democratic Party has to "rebuild at the state levels." Benenson also added that, in the last four weeks of the election, he would have asked "for a faith forum to hear Hillary Clinton and Donald Trump both talk about their roots in faith and the strength of hers, which I think are dominant."

In addition to Andrea Mitchell, Rich Lowry of The National Review, Heather McGhee of Demos, and Amy Walter of The Cook Political Report also joined the show for insight and analysis.

MTP: TRUMP CHIEF OF STAFF ON REPORTS OF RUSSIAN ELECTION INTERFERENCE: "I JUST DON'T KNOW WHETHER IT'S TRUE OR NOT.... I DON'T KNOW WHO DID THE HACKING"

PLUS: Reince Priebus: "The R.N.C. was not hacked" SUNDAY EXCLUSIVE: Former Russia Amb. Mike McFaul on Tillerson pick for State: "This is disturbing to me" SUNDAY EXCLUSIVE: Calif. Rep. Adam Schiff (D): "It was a mistake" for the Obama administration to not come out as definitively before the election with reports of Russian interference

DEC. 11, 2016 -- Reince Priebus, chief of staff to President-elect Donald Trump and outgoing chair of the Republican National Committee, told "Meet the Press" moderator Chuck Todd that, when it comes to the reports of Russian interference in the election, "I just don't know whether it's true or not."

Priebus continued: "You have no idea whether the hacking even influenced the election.... I don't know who did the hacking." When asked if the president-elect wants a congressional investigation on the matter, he replied, "I don't know what investigations he wants." The chief of staff also asserted "the R.N.C. was not hacked." Watch the full interview: <http://nbcnews.to/2gOJRe5>.

Rep. Adam Schiff (D-Calif.), ranking member on the House House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence, disagreed: “The circumstantial evidence, which is all I could talk about publicly, is so profound that you’d really have to believe that, to accept Reince Priebus's argument, that the Russians aren't capable of hacking Republican institutions.” Schiff, who joined the program exclusively, noted that “it was a mistake” for the Obama administration to not come out with reports of Russian interference as definitively before the election. Watch the full interview: <http://nbcnews.to/2gOJKiD>.

“Did the Russians take some actions to try to help him?” said Mike McFaul of Trump. “I think the evidence is circumstantial enough. The former ambassador to Russia also shared doubts about Exxon Mobil CEO Rex Tillerson as a potential Secretary of State for the Trump administration: “The Obama administration rightly sanctioned Russian companies, including Igor Sechin, the CEO of Rosneft, ExxonMobil's partner. We can't just reverse those sanctions in the name of economic interests now, unless Russia changes its behavior.... Initially, this is disturbing to me.” Watch the full interview: <http://nbcnews.to/2gOJkbO>.

Mike Rowe, known best for his previous show “Dirty Jobs” and founder of the mikeroweWORKS Foundation, joined the network broadcast to discuss the role of the middle class and the value of work. “5.8 million jobs in the skills gap has to tell us something, on a deeper, broader level, about opportunity.” Watch his discussion with Todd and the panel: <http://nbcnews.to/2gOG28C>.

Also joining the show for insight and analysis were presidential historian Doris Kearns Goodwin, former R.N.C chair Michael Steele, former State Dept. official Rick Stengel, and Kim Strassel of The Wall Street Journal.

MTP EXCLUSIVE: PODESTA: “THE FIRST TIME I WAS CONTACTED BY THE F.B.I. WAS TWO DAYS AFTER WIKILEAKS STARTED DROPPING MY EMAILS”

Former Clinton Campaign Chair: Election “Was Distorted by the Russians” SUNDAY EXCLUSIVE: Fmr. Defense Secretary Robert Gates on Tillerson and Putin: “Being Friendly Doesn’t Make You Friends” PLUS: Sens. Joe Manchin (D) and Shelley Moore Capito (R) on West Virginia’s Blue-to-Red Switch

DECEMBER 18, 2016 -- In his first interview since the election, former Clinton campaign chair John Podesta exclusively told “Meet the Press” moderator Chuck Todd: “the first time I was contacted by the F.B.I. was two days after WikiLeaks started dropping my emails,” adding: “that was the first and last time” he talked to the F.B.I. about his hacked email account.

Podesta also discussed whether the Trump campaign knew about Russia’s efforts, stating: “I would argue that there’s very, it’s very much unknown whether there was collusion. ... I think really not what Mr. Trump knew, but what did Trump Inc. know and when did they know it, were they in touch with the Russians? I think those are still open questions.”

When pressed twice by Todd on whether he thinks this was a “free and fair election,” Podesta replied: “I think it was distorted by the Russian intervention. Let’s put it that way.” Watch the full interview: <http://nbcnews.to/2hMWDKV>

In a Sunday exclusive interview, former Secretary of Defense and former CIA Director Robert Gates said he does not think U.S. leaders have treated the Russian cyberattacks with a sense of urgency, stating: “I think that given the unprecedented nature of it and the magnitude of the effort, I think people seem to have been somewhat laid back about it.”

Gates also defended Secretary of State nominee Rex Tillerson’s ties to Russia and Vladimir Putin, saying: “clearly the CEO of any US company that does business around the world is going to want to be on friendly relationships with the leaders and governments of those countries where they do business. But being friendly doesn’t make you friends.” Watch the full interview: <http://nbcnews.to/2i3cNza>

In a new NBC News/WSJ poll released on “Meet the Press,” more than half of Americans say they are concerned about Russia’s interference in the presidential election. More analysis: <http://nbcnews.to/2gYT0mH>

Earlier this week, Chuck Todd traveled to West Virginia to talk with Trump voters as well as the state’s two Senators, Democrat Joe Manchin and Republican Shelley Moore Capito, about why the formerly Democratic state has turned red. Sen. Capito pointed to economic troubles, saying: “We’re one of the states that is considered to be in a recession. We have six counties that are in a depression.” Sen. Manchin told Todd: “I’m more of a moderate centrist, some people say I’m conservative. And I tell people, ‘I’m fiscally responsibility and I’m socially compassionate. Call me what you want.’” Watch the full segment: <http://nbcnews.to/2gZRq5G>
