Host Tabitha Brown with guest Doug Hanes discuss the benefits of charter schools. The North Carolina Alliance for Public Charter Schools (“The Alliance”) is the state’s only 501(c)(3), nonprofit, non-partisan organization with a volunteer Board of Directors combining over a century of first-hand experience in charter school operations, law, policies, and finance. Our mission is to advance quality educational opportunities for all North Carolina children by supporting and expanding successful public charter schools and to serve as the advocacy organization and voice for charter schools in North Carolina. Our mission is to advance quality educational opportunities for all North Carolina children by supporting and expanding effective public charter schools. We will accomplish this by enabling our members to increase the number of students attending effective charter schools in North Carolina as quickly as possible by providing leadership in policy, school governance and management that supplies the supports needed to open and expand quality charter schools.

Host Tabitha Brown with guest Jessie Lewis discuss the Peacemakers organization. Peacemakers is a Christian community development organization serving the under-resourced area of South Rocky Mount in Rocky Mount, North Carolina. Our mission is to empower members of the community with the knowledge and skills necessary to lead successful and sustainable lives. In coordinating community outreach, Peacemakers believes wholeheartedly in the importance of collaboration, working with other community-based and faith-based organizations to further the impact of our services. We strive to tangibly demonstrate the love of Jesus Christ in such a way that it results ultimately in the complete transformation of the community and its people. We are a Christian organization; however, we never deny services to anyone on the basis of religion or any other demographic criteria, and never require anyone to engage in religious activities in order to receive services.

Host Shannon Battle with members of the B.U.D.S. Foundation. The B.U.D.'S Foundation – Bikers United to Defend Driving Safely was founded in memory of former Marine, Motorcyclist, and member of Mount Hebron Masonic Lodge #42 Marcellus “Bud” Farmer. Like so many other benevolent motorcyclists, Bud was a person who gave of his time, his belongings, and even offered his home for those who needed a place of refuge. Knowing that many others shared the same giving spirit, B.U.D.S Foundation is on the mission of being advocates that urge the message of safety and responsibility of motor vehicles and motorcycle riders in prevention of related accidents and fatalities by bringing awareness of the importance of cautious, defensive driving.

Host Tabitha Brown with guest Ethyl Joyner discuss the benefits of the American Legion Auxiliary. American Legion Auxiliary (ALA) members and volunteers step up to advance our mission of service to veterans, military and their families! Our annual volunteer service is worth nearly $2 billion. Over the years, The American Legion Family has influenced considerable social change in America, won hundreds of benefits for veterans, helped military families through transition and produced many important programs for our country's youth. Today, ALA members across the country are helping military families cope with the effects of multiple deployments. The toll on our all-volunteer force and their families has been enormous.
