

Quarterly Issues for January-February-March 2013

Issue: E-Waste Recycling

Programming: This was an interview with Ed Blundell, the mayor of Red Hook, as well as a Red Hook Council member to discuss the importance of E-Waste Recycling in the Village of Red Hook as well as a food drive for needy Red Hook families.

Date: January 11, 2013

Duration: 9 minutes

Issue: Anti-Fracking in New York: “ Dear Governor Cuomo” Film

Programming: This was an interview with Jon Bowermaster, the director of the film “Dear Governor Cuomo” to discuss the horrific effects of fracking on the environment and to the people who live with it.

Dates: February 7, 2013

Duration: 10 minutes

Issue: One Billion Rising

Programming: This was an interview with Zoe Dunn, to discuss the global benefit show, “One Billion Rising”, an event held in Kingston, NY on Valentine’s Day of 2013 that shows support from people that want to end violence against women all over the world.

Date: February 13, 2013

Duration: 10 minutes