QUARTERLY LIST OF ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPRESENTING
STATION WATC TV 57's
MOST SIGNIFICANT TREATMENT OF THOSE ISSUES

July 1, 2011 – September 30, 2011

Issue: Remembrance of September 11

The impact of September 11, 2011 changed America forever. On the tenth anniversary of the attack on the World Trade Center, the Pentagon, and the fourth airplane that crashed in Pennsylvania, WATC aired special programming to celebrate the heroes of 9/11 and remember the victims and their families.

Atlanta Live

WATC's flagship program airing live weeknights from 7:00 – 9:00 p.m. with an encore presentation the following weekday morning from 7:00-9:00 a.m. and again from 4:00-6:00 p.m. on 57.2.

Friday, September 9, 2011

A live broadcast featuring first-hand testimonies from people who were at the Twin Towers. Also, Bishop Ken McNatt and Pastor David Cooper return to the program to share what it was like when they were on the live program a decade ago. Highlights of their messages from 9/11/01 were shown. Host Rick Goins.

Nite Line: September 11 Special

Saturday, September 10, 2011 from 10 p.m. – 12 a.m. and Sunday, September 11, 2011 from 10 a.m. – 12 noon on 57.2.

This two-hour program featured interviews with firefighters with the Boiling Springs Fire Department who shared their thoughts and feelings about 9/11/01. One firefighter told of his first-hand experience of being at the World Trade Center following the attacks. Also interviewed were military personnel sharing about the climate of the world at the time of the attacks. In addition, clips from the live Nite Line broadcast of 9/11/01 and interviews with Nite Line hosts Jimmy and Joanne Thompson were featured.

STATION WATC TV 57's
MOST SIGNIFICANT TREATMENT OF THOSE ISSUES

July 1, 2011 – September 30, 2011

Issue: Women's Issues

WATC features a number of programs to encourage women in all aspects of life: physical, spiritual and emotional. Here are some highlights of programming aimed at women which aired during 3rd Quarter 2011 on WATC:

Time for Hope

A half hour program addressing mental health issues from a Christian perspective with host Dr. Freda Crews. Wednesdays at 6:00 a.m. and Thursdays at 11:30 a.m. on 57.1.

August 17 and 18, 2011

Licensed Psychologist Dr. David Hawkins shared about his book Saying It So He'll Listen, which addresses effective ways for women to take their interactions at home to a deeper level. Topics of discussion included how a wife can get her husband's undivided attention, ways she can be honest with her husband without hurting his feelings or starting a fight, and whether or not she can expect him to change.

August 24 and 25, 2011

Jeanette Towne discussed her story of the spiritual and physical battle she endured as a domestic prisoner. She shared the horror and harrowing escape and celebrates her journey as she rebuilds her life and rises through the corporate world. Her book, From Prisoner to President, chronicles her story of the miraculous touch of God in a seemingly hopeless situation.

August 31 and September 1, 2011 (Part 1) and September 7 and 8, 2011 (Part 2)

Author J. Lee Grady shares about his book 10 Lies Men Believe: The Truth About Women, Power, Sex and God. The author has spent eight years confronting the abuse of women in more than twenty countries. This program is aimed at men who may be struggling with addictions, abusive tendencies and other emotional problems rooted in a lack of proper fathering, but is also excellent for women who may be suffering because of the mistreatment of men in their lives.

Friends & Neighbors

This half hour program features hosts Sherry Tatum, Donna Ritchie and Kelly Ingram. The series airs weekdays at 6:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. and on Saturdays at 8:30 a.m. WATC TV 57 Original Production.

July 12, 2011 and July 16, 2011

The hosts talked with Tonya Lee about relationships, marriage, divorce, biblical issues and more through her experiences as a pastoral counselor.

July 19, 2011 and July 23, 2011

The regular hosts were joined by former co-host Kim Gravel and they talked with introduce praise and worship singer/songwriter Kelly Willard who shared about her struggles with the pain of losing loved ones within a short amount of time and how she fell into a depression. It was a time of encouragement and love on the set among the women as they discussed this emotional story.

August 9, 2011

The hosts talked with Stacey Kisner from North Georgia ATA about empowering people, especially women, with self defense techniques. Stacey presented a demonstration on actual techniques to use if being attacked.

Babbie's House

Half hour series featuring host singer/songwriter Babbie Mason. WATC TV 57 Original Production.

September 15, 2011

Babbie talked with speaker and author Carol Harper about her personal story and how it led to her writing the book Of Face Value.

September 19, 2011

Babbie talked with speaker Tanya Curren about her testimony and her work today to encourage women through her Boundless Limits ministry.

September 22, 2011

Encore presentation with speaker/singer Shannon Perry about her book Grace in High Heels: Real-Life Reflections of Humor, Hope and Healing. She talked about her ministry of encouraging women through humor, music and teaching.
