

Public Service Report For 2nd Quarter 2010

WATC TV/Atlanta, GA

Compiled by Greg West, Director of Programming and Promotions

QUARTERLY LIST OF ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPRESENTING
STATION WATC TV 57'S
MOST SIGNIFICANT TREATMENT OF THOSE ISSUES

April 1, 2010 – June 30, 2010

Issue: Health and Lifestyle

During 2nd Quarter 2010, WATC featured programming that educated viewers on a wide variety of health related topics to improve both their physical bodies and emotional health. Such programming included the following:

Friends and Neighbors

Tuesdays at 12:00 p.m. and Saturdays at 8:30 a.m.
Encore presentations weekdays at 6:30 a.m.

This half hour series is produced by WATC TV 57 and features a variety of topics of interest to the community.

April 27, 2010 and May 1, 2010

Rev. Loraine Gary, RN, BSN, OCN with the Radiotherapy Centers of Georgia. Rev. Gary will share about her work as both a nurse and as a reverend to help cancer patients. Hosts Kelly Ingram, Donna Ritchie and Sherry Tatum.

May 11, 2010 and May 15, 2010

Hosts Kelly Ingram and Sherry Tatum talked with Church 4 Chicks founder and guest co-host Shelley Hendrix about ministry to women. Donna Ritchie joined in the next segment with Gary and Andrea Chevalier who shared from their perspectives about marriage and family.

May 6, 2010 (6:30 a.m. airing only)

Hosts Sherry Tatum, Kelly Ingram and Donna Ritchie talk with Rachel Moore and her mother DeLoris Moore about Rachel's heart transplant and the work of the National Foundation for Transplants to help recovering patients after the surgery and the organization's work to get organ donors. Also, life coach and author Len Garrison about his book Stop and Think. 30 minutes.

June 3, 2010 (6:30 a.m. airing only)

Host Sherry Tatum and guest co-host Jennifer Schuchmann talk with Ashley Hicks of PINC Ministries (Purity and Identity in Christ) about this ministry outreach to girls ages 12-18; then co-host Kelly Ingram joins Sherry to talk with Lisa Patterson of Free by Grace about promoting a healthy lifestyle through the connection of faith, food and fitness. 30 minutes.

June 7, 2010 (6:30 a.m. airing only)

Hosts Sherry Tatum and Kelly Ingram introduce guest co-host Jennifer Schuchmann and Jennifer leads talk with cancer survivor Delores Burgess about her life and her work in educating people. Delores also shares a song in the program. 30 minutes.

June 8, 2010 (6:30 a.m. airing only)

Theresa Sherard, MD shares about The Full Plate Diet and offers weight loss and meal suggestions during this interview with hosts Kelly Ingram, Sherry Tatum and guest co-host Jennifer Schuchmann. 12 minute interview within the 30 minute program.

June 12, 2010 (regular Tuesday airing did not occur)

The hosts talked with Dr. Kady Williams and Dr. Helena Solodar to discuss hearing loss and the new technology available to air hearing. 12 minute segment within the 30 minute program.

June 15, 2010 and June 19, 2010

The hosts talked with Taylor LeBaron to discuss his weight loss and how that changed his life. Today, he is an author and speaker who encourages young people to get their health and weight under control. Also featured: Kay Bratt, author of Silent Tears: A Journey of Hope in a Chinese Orphanage shared about her experience volunteering in a Chinese orphanage and how that changed her life.

June 22, 2010 and June 26, 2010

Hosts Kelly Ingram and Donna Ritchie opened the program and pitched to host Sherry Tatum with an interview with Dr. Ian Smith from Celebrity Fit Club and author of the motivational book Happy. Also joining the interview was Linda Robinson who shared about her weight loss experience due in part to Dr. Smith's diet plan.

You Can Make It

Fridays at 12:00 pm and Saturdays at 10:00 am

Weekly series with host Joanne Thompson and special guests preparing new recipes and discussing various lifestyle topics. Appearing on several episodes during this quarter was Mary Beth Oxendine who demonstrated simple ways to change your eating habits to a healthier diet. 30 minutes.

About Health with Jeanne Blake

Saturdays at 12:30 p.m. (rotating with other programming)

This series produced by the City of Boston, Massachusetts features host Jeanne Blake addressing various health topics. 30 minutes.

Saturday, May 15, 2010

Approximately 12 million people – one in 25 – in the U.S. has a food allergy. Food allergies are most prevalent among young children, affecting one in 17 children under the age of 3. On this edition of About Health, Jeanne Blake talked with Dr. Lynda Scheider, Children's Hospital Boston and Paul Antico, a father of two boys with allergies and the founder of Allergyeats.com.

Saturday, June 12, 2010

For years we've heard about AIDS in Africa. It's social and economic impact are almost incomprehensible ... unless you've worked there. On this edition of About Health, Jeanne Blake talked with Pat Daoust, the former Director of the Global AIDS Initiative for Physicians for Human Rights, who has worked in Africa on the issue of HIV/AIDS primarily in sub Sahara Africa which is more heavily affected by HIV/AIDS than any other region of the world. Jeanne Blake also speaks with Michael Shankle, Director, The MALE Center, AIDS Action Committee of Massachusetts, Inc. about the resurgence of HIV/AIDS in gay men.

Time for Hope

Thursdays at 11:30 a.m. and Saturdays at 7:00 a.m.

This 30-minute program is hosted by Dr. Freda Crews and features a discussion of life-related topics such as overcoming divorce, improving one's self-esteem, etc. Produced in Spartanburg, South Carolina by Bible Study Time, Inc. Time for Hope is a Christian mental health program that addresses issues of concern to the community. Topics featured this quarter included the following:

April 8, 2010 and April 10, 2010

Host Dr. Freda Crews talked with Bill Perkins to discuss his book When Good Men Get Angry which was written with psychological insight, biblical wisdom and practical common sense. They discussed ways men can see past their defensiveness and anger and become the sort of men God wants them to be through understanding a new identity in Christ, using anger for good and not destruction.

April 15, 2010 and April 17, 2010

Dr. Freda Crews talked with Ken Sutterfield to discuss The Power of an Encouraging Word. Ken shared how he feels we are to encourage one another and seek out people who need encouragement.

April 22, 2010 and April 24, 2010

Dr. Freda Crews talked with Jeanette Towne about her book From Prisoner to President which chronicles the true story of a naïve young woman's spiritual and physical battle to escape a ten year sentence as a domestic prisoner. She rebuilds her life and rises through the corporate world to become the president and CEO of a multi-million dollar corporation.

May 20, 2010 and May 22, 2010

Dr. Gregory Jantz talked about his book Happy for the Rest of Your Life. Happiness seems to be a destination we are supposed to teach, but we never seem to get there. Dr. Jantz offered ways through scriptural truths and personal examples to how to find happiness. Host Dr. Freda Crews.

June 3, 2010 and June 5, 2010

Authors Jay and Laura Laffoon talked with host Dr. Freda Crews about He Said, She Said, a book in which the authors share how to access the power of encouraging words rather than hurtful words to bring strength and vitality to a marriage. The Laffoons shared what they learned after interviewing over two thousand couples.

Also, health-related public service announcements (American Red Cross, American Cancer Society, American Lung Association, etc.) air throughout the programming day. Approximately 20 minutes of public service announcements air weekdays and on Saturdays. A limited number of public service announcements air on Sundays.

QUARTERLY LIST OF ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPRESENTING
STATION WATC TV 57'S
MOST SIGNIFICANT TREATMENT OF THOSE ISSUES

April 1, 2010 – June 30, 2010

Issue: Community Impact

WATC TV presented the following as part of its commitment to inform viewers on what is taking place through the work of non-profit organizations within the Atlanta area and beyond to help others. Such programming during 2nd Quarter 2010 included the following:

Friends and Neighbors

Tuesdays at 12:00 p.m. and Saturdays at 8:30 a.m.
Encore presentations weekdays at 6:30 a.m.

This half hour series is produced by WATC TV 57 and features a variety of topics of interest to the community.

June 1, 2010 and June 5, 2010

Phil Campbell of Samaritan's Feet appeared on the program with hosts Sherry Tatum, Donna Ritchie and Kelly Ingram to discuss the work of the worldwide ministry to serve those in need by washing their feet and providing them with a new pair of shoes and socks.

June 4, 2010 (6:30 a.m. airing only)

Hosts Sherry Tatum, Donna Ritchie and Kelly Ingram talked with Fred Elsberry of the Better Business Bureau about the various scams that are taking place and ways to prevent being taken by a scam. Also, fitness instructor and life coach Len Garrison demonstrated some exercise and stretching techniques with Kelly. 30 minutes.

The Gravedigger Show

Saturdays at 4:30 pm

Host Joe Oreskovich talks with community leaders and residents on a wide variety of topics of interest to Atlanta. The series has been honored in the past by the State Bar of Georgia with the Silver Gavel Award for excellence in educating the community on legal matters. 30 minutes. WATC TV 57 Production.

Right Now with Jennifer Schuchmann

Saturdays at 12:30 p.m. (rotating with other programming)

June 26, 2010

David Rawlings of ZAKA Search and Rescue shared about the work of the organization in recruiting volunteers to help in areas of natural disasters and also assist in areas such as Israel. 30 minutes. WATC TV 57 Production.

Atlanta Live

Weeknights at 7:00 pm and encore presentations weekday mornings at 7:00 am

WATC presents Atlanta Live every weeknight live from 7-9 pm featuring representatives from various non-profit organizations promoting upcoming events, giving news about the work of the organization, and encouraging the citizens of metro Atlanta to become involved and volunteer. Some of the community organizations and churches featured during this quarter included:

Monday, April 5

Apostle Michael Dowell of Douglasville, Georgia starting ministry training centers in Georgia and Florida.

Tuesday, April 6

Kris Eldridge and Tom Schuter of Fellowship Baptist Church of Roswell, Georgia promoting an event to help the 10% of Roswell residents living below the poverty line.

Monday, April 12

James and Monica Satcher of Kennesaw, Georgia planting a church in Haiti.

Tuesday, April 13

Dr. William Hill of Higher Living Community Impact Center in Jonesboro, Georgia talking about an upcoming Black Leaders Conference. Also, Ben Mathes of Rivers of the World talking about his ministry on waterfronts and mission to Iraq.

Friday, April 16

Bishop Murphy Pace of Powerhouse of Deliverance Cathedral in Stockbridge, Georgia sharing about the ministry.

Thursday, April 22

Bobby Howard and James Bignon talking about an upcoming concert to help encourage organ and tissue donations through LifeLink of Georgia.

Friday, April 23

Ruth Langdon, Bunni Cook and Celeste Easter of Inside Ministries of Carrollton, Georgia talking about the ministry work to help current and former female inmates.

Monday, April 26

Leroy Barber of Mission Year in Atlanta, Georgia, an urban ministry outreach focused on Christian service and discipleship.

Wednesday, April 28

Mackenzie Bearup of Sheltering Books, a children's book drive collecting books for homeless shelters and residential treatment centers for children in six states.

Tuesday, May 18

Rev. Robert Crummie of Carver Bible College in Atlanta, Georgia shared about the school.

Monday, May 24

Dr. Coy Barker and Vic Saum of Elevation Point Church of Loganville, Georgia talking about its outreach to children and families with an upcoming event.

Thursday, May 27

Richard and Tanya Curren of Boundless Limits, International in Easley, South Carolina sharing about an upcoming conference.

Wednesday, June 2

Phyllis Morrow and Pamela Persaud representing Neighborhood Assistance Corporation of America sharing about the work to build healthy communities through affordable homeownership.

Wednesday, June 9

Pastor Adam and Belinda McNatt of Lilburn, Georgia sharing about an upcoming Jamaican benefit.

Thursday, June 10

Brian Smith sharing about a benefit concert to help in Haiti relief. Also, James and Monica Satcher of Kennesaw, Georgia sharing about an upcoming crusade in Haiti.

Monday, June 14 (morning airing only)

Dr. Deborah Isom of Begin Again Ministries sharing about the ministry's work in feeding the homeless in downtown Atlanta.

Monday, June 14 (evening program)

Dr. Craig Soaries and Minister David Jackson of Global Empowerment Center in Atlanta, Georgia talking about an upcoming young adult conference.

Wednesday, June 16

Pastor Timothy Landry of Jesus Christ First Ministries of Lilburn, Georgia discussing the ministry.

Tuesday, June 22

David Glover of Gainesville, Georgia talking about his work as National Consultant for Disabilities Ministries for the North American Missions Board of the Southern Baptist Convention and sharing about ministering to special needs people and their families.

Wednesday, June 23

Eliza Jackson of Amazing Grace Outreach of Riverdale, Georgia sharing about a benefit concert.

Public service announcements from various non-profit organizations (Boys Town National Hotline, CARE, National Arbor Day Foundation, USO, American Heart Association, etc.) air throughout the broadcast day. Also airing spots from Georgia Association of Broadcasters such as National Guard.

QUARTERLY LIST OF ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPRESENTING
STATION WATC TV 57'S
MOST SIGNIFICANT TREATMENT OF THOSE ISSUES

April 1, 2010 – June 30, 2010

Issue: Children's Programming/Teen Programming

During 2nd Quarter 2010, WATC TV aired educational children's programming weekday afternoon to teach moral values and to educate on a wide variety of subjects. The programming during this quarter included the following:

Where On Earth in Carmen Sandiego? (Weekdays at 4:00 p.m. in April; Mondays at 4 p.m. in May)

This animated series is based on the success of the popular computer game. It tells the story of world-class thief Carmen Sandiego and his pursuers, a pair of teen detectives. The show teaches children about geography.

Dr. Wonder's Workshop (Tuesdays at 4:30 p.m. throughout quarter)

Dr. Wonder and his crew share some life-changing truths from a Christian perspective in both sign language and English. This children's series is aimed at both the hearing and the deaf and hard of hearing community. FCC E/I: Ages 5-12.

Critter Gitters (Wednesdays at 4:30 p.m. throughout quarter)

This FCC friendly series contains material and information about animals, science, geography and solutions to ethical dilemmas. The National Parents Television Council says that Critter Gitters "offers high quality entertainment that is both educational and exciting for the entire family."

The Secret World of Benjamin Bear (Mondays at 3:30 p.m. in April)

A show about the secret life of teddy bears. They come to life when people aren't watching and have secret fun adventures.

Wheels on the Bus (Wednesdays at 3:30 p.m. in April and May)

Children's series aimed are preschoolers and features music to help reinforce the lessons being taught.

Dennis the Menace (Fridays at 3:30 p.m. in April and May)

The cartoon adventures of the classic comic strip character.

Kingsley's Meadow (Mondays at 4:00 p.m. in June)

Sugar Creek Gang (Tuesdays at 4:00 p.m. in June)

Kid Wise (Wednesdays at 4:00 p.m. in June)

Jay Jay the Jet Plane (Tuesdays and Thursdays at 3:30 p.m. in April and May)

Jay Jay is an energetic and playful six year old jet plane whose inquisitive nature leads him on exciting adventures. The show educates kids about science, nature and health; teaches life lessons like sharing, problem solving, making friends and cooperation; and introduces kids to the excitement of exploring new places, meeting new people and having new life experiences. E/I: 2-6.

NASA 360 (Thursdays at 4:00 p.m. in June)

This series is produced by NASA and features the latest in scientific discoveries and updates on the space program. 30 minutes.

Curiosity Quest (Fridays at 4:00 p.m. in April; Fridays at 4:30 p.m. in May and June)

Upbeat educational program that explores what viewers are curious about. Host Joel Greene takes the audience on location for an unscripted, hands-on educational exploration. FCC E/I; Ages 5-12.

Aqua Kids (Mondays at 4:30 p.m. throughout quarter)

A look at marine life and the people who study it.

Kids Cooking for Kids (Thursdays at 4:30 p.m. throughout quarter)

A cooking series aimed at kids featuring kids preparing healthy recipes.

Also, WATC presented the following programming aimed at educating teens:

Roc House Café (Saturdays at 1:30 p.m.)

Discussion on topics such as self-esteem and peer pressure with host Tamara James. Produced in Augusta, Georgia by Watchman Broadcasting. 30 minutes.

B.Y.O.B.B. (Saturdays at 1 p.m.)

Bible study aimed at teens and young adults with hosts Pastor Camy and B.J. Arnett. Produced on location throughout Atlanta, Georgia. 30 minutes.

QUARTERLY LIST OF ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPRESENTING
STATION WATC TV 57'S
MOST SIGNIFICANT TREATMENT OF THOSE ISSUES

April 1, 2010 – June 30, 2010

Issue: Educational/Instructional Programming

As a non-commercial educational station, WATC TV offers a mix of programming to educate and inform. Such programming during 2nd Quarter 2010 included the following:

Bible teaching:

Shepherd's Chapel

Late night from 12:00 a.m. – 6:00 a.m. and weekdays from 1-2 p.m.

Crosstalk

Fridays at 11:00 a.m.

Manna-Fest with Perry Stone

Mondays at 10:30 a.m.

Mike Murdock

Mondays at 11:00 p.m. and Fridays at 9:30 a.m.

Precepts for Life with Kay Arthur

Fridays at 10:00 a.m.

Origins

Fridays at 11:30 a.m.

American Religious Townhall

Sundays at 4:30 p.m.

Documentaries:

Word Pictures

Thursdays at 10:00 a.m.

Community Interest:

The Gravedigger Show

Saturdays at 4:30 p.m. (WATC TV 57 Original Production)

Atlanta Live

Live Monday through Friday at 7 pm and reaired weekdays from 7-9 a.m. (WATC TV 57 Original Production)

Friends & Neighbors

Tuesdays at 12 noon and Saturdays at 8:30 a.m.; plus encore presentations weekdays at 6:30 a.m. (WATC TV 57 Original Production)

Let's Talk with Tracy Wells

Thursdays at 11:30 a.m. and interview vignettes within Gaither Homecoming every Saturday at 6 p.m. (WATC TV 57 Original Production)

The Bobby Hurd Show

Occasional community service guests on program airing Tuesdays at 10 p.m. and half hour version on Sundays at 6 a.m. (WATC TV 57 Original Production)

Reflections

Medical series airing Saturdays at 4:00 p.m. (WATC TV 57 Original Production)

TV 57 Presents/Right Now

Occasional half hour specials produced by WATC TV

Arts:

Babbie's House

New episodes Mondays at 12 noon; plus encore presentations various weekday afternoons at 5 p.m. (WATC TV 57 Original Production)

Friends & Neighbors

New episodes Tuesdays at 12 noon and Saturdays at 8:30 a.m.; plus various encore presentations weekdays at 6:30 a.m. (WATC TV 57 Original Production)

By The Book

Interviews with authors about latest releases (Thursdays at 9:30 a.m.)

Art Insight

Art instruction series airing Saturdays at 12 noon

Atlanta Home & Style

Interviews, movie reviews, and lifestyle tips presented Saturdays at 11:30 a.m.

Lifestyle Programming:
You Can Make It

P. Allen Smith Gardens
The Peggy Denny Show

At Home With Arlene

Love, Marriage and Stinking Thinking
About Health

In The Kitchen

Instructional cooking series airing Fridays at 12 noon and Saturdays at 10 a.m.

Gardening series airing Saturdays at 11 a.m.

Instructional cooking series airing Wednesdays at 12 noon and Saturdays at 9 a.m.

Instructional cooking series airing Thursdays at 12 noon and Saturdays at 9:30 a.m.

A marriage/relationship series presented with humor and music on Saturdays at 8 a.m.

Saturdays at 12:30 p.m. (alternating weeks with other series)

Series of cooking specials airing at various times (WATC TV 57 Original Production)

Atlanta-Based Ministry Programming (Partial List):

There's Hope America

Transforming Truth

Call & Ask

Ben and Sherry Gaither

Dwight Keith

Jim Whittington

Concord Baptist Church

Skip Horton

Willow Springs Ministry

God's True Worshippers

New Life & You

Overcomers

Beulah Baptist Church

Timothy Flemming

Jackson Memorial

Walk of Faith and Praise

Sundays at 9:00 a.m.

Sundays at 11:00 a.m. and Tuesdays at 6:00 p.m.

Sundays at 1:30 p.m.

Sundays at 5:00 p.m.

Sundays at 7:00 p.m.

Mondays at 10:00 p.m.

Tuesdays at 10:00 a.m.

Tuesdays at 10:30 a.m. and Saturdays at 9:00 p.m.

Wednesdays at 11:00 a.m.

Wednesdays at 10:30 p.m.

Thursdays at 10:00 p.m.

Fridays at 6:30 p.m.

Saturdays at 7:00 p.m.

Saturdays at 8:00 p.m.

Saturdays at 8:30 p.m.

Saturdays at 9:30 p.m.

QUARTERLY LIST OF ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPRESENTING
STATION WATC TV 57'S
MOST SIGNIFICANT TREATMENT OF THOSE ISSUES

April 1, 2010 – June 30, 2010

Issue: Senior Citizens

WATC TV features programming on a regular basis to inspire seniors and to educate people on the wisdom that can be obtained from senior citizens. Programming during 2nd Quarter 2010 included:

Atlanta Live: Seniors Today

First Thursday night of the month from 7-9 p.m.

Encore presentation on the following Friday from 7-9 a.m.

"Seniors Today" hosts Betty Cornett and Pat Mathis talk with guests on topics of interest to the senior community and their caregivers. Presented this quarter:

Thursday, April 1, 2010 (encore on Friday, April 2, 2010)

Hosts Pat Mathis and Betty Cornett featured a night of music featuring senior citizens. Guests included soloist Ray Shaw, The Legacy of Praise Quartet of Lawrenceville, Georgia, and One Lord, One Heart of Snellville, Georgia. 2 hours. WATC TV 57 Production.

Thursday, May 20, 2010 (encore on Friday, May 21, 2010)

Due to May Praisethon, Seniors Today was presented on this special night with hosts Betty Cornett and Pat Mathis. Guests included Alex Harvey along with Gineille who shared about his musical career spanning many decades. Susan Larson, Senior News Writer for Senior News, shared about various topics of interest for seniors to learn about. Also, Betty conducted an interview with Bishop Martin and Rosa Mutybele. Music by Alex Harvey. 2 hours. WATC TV 57 Production.

Thursday, June 3, 2010 (encore on Friday, June 4, 2010)

Host Pat Mathis and Betty Cornett interviewed Bishop Eddie Long of New Birth Missionary Baptist Church in Lithonia, Georgia about his latest book 60 Seconds to Greatness. Pastor Kevin Powell shared about his book The Serpent in Today's Garden. Jennifer Ennis of Canine Assistants talked about the work of this non-profit organization which provides and trains special service dogs for those with physical disabilities and special needs. Sharon Kay King of Songs of Sharon Ministries gave her testimony of overcoming drugs and alcohol. Sharon also sang several musical selections during the program. 2 hours. Originally aired on February 4, 2010. WATC TV 57 Production.

Friends Concert

Friday, May 28, 2010 at 9 p.m.

This one-hour concert shot in Tennessee featured a wide variety of senior citizens reuniting and performing many gospel favorites. A co-production of WATC TV 57.

Time for Hope

Thursdays at 11:30 a.m. and Saturdays at 7:00 a.m.

This 30-minute program is hosted by Dr. Freda Crews and features a discussion of life-related topics such as overcoming divorce, improving one's self-esteem, etc. Produced in Spartanburg, South Carolina by Bible Study Time, Inc. Time for Hope is a Christian mental health program that addresses issues of concern to the community. Topics featured this quarter included the following:

May 13, 2010 and May 15, 2010

Dr. Freda Crews talked with guest Jack Shaw, an accomplished Christian businessman and senior citizen, to discuss his book Little by Little. He shared his wisdom on ways a person can gain the right perspective of life and offered guidelines for making decisions. He shared insights on how to transition from a hapless "journey of life" to a purposeful "journey FOR life."

Note: Jack Shaw also appeared on Atlanta Live on Wednesday, April 21, 2010 to share.

Public service announcements on various health-related topics of interest for seniors are aired throughout the broadcast day.

QUARTERLY LIST OF ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPRESENTING
STATION WATC TV 57'S
MOST SIGNIFICANT TREATMENT OF THOSE ISSUES

April 1, 2010 – June 30, 2010

Issue: Empowering Women / Overcoming Domestic Abuse

WATC TV featured programming to educate and empower women to be everything they can be during 2nd Quarter 2010. An emphasis this quarter was on educating women about domestic violence and sharing ways to break free from being trapped in a bad situation and overcoming the hurt and pain. Such programming included the following:

Atlanta Live

Weeknights at 7:00 pm and encore presentations weekday mornings at 7:00 am

Atlanta Live is the flagship program of WATC TV and is produced live most weeknights in the studio of WATC. The program has a series of rotating hosts and features sharing guests on a wide variety of topics. 2 hours.

Monday, April 5, 2010 (morning broadcast only)

An encore presentation of a February 2010 program featuring host Evangelist Cherisse Stephens interviewing Rev. Tresmaine Grimes, PhD of Sarah's Daughters Ministry of New Rochelle, New York. Dr. Grimes believes that many are struggling to fruitfulness and fulfillment in their lives today. Dr. Grimes shared the Word of God to address such situations as infertility, past traumas, abuse, depression and many other issues. Peggy Baker of Operation First Response of Culpepper, Virginia challenged viewers to help families of the military and the returning wounded. (Additional encore presentation on the evening broadcast of April 30, 2010.)

Monday, April 5, 2010 (evening broadcast) (encore Tuesday, April 6, 2010)

Hosts Myles and Delana Rutherford talked with A.J. (Angie) Kiesling, author of Where Have All of the Good Men Gone? about the many single women in the church who would like to be married but have not been able to find that special someone. Angie shared her findings after surveying more than a hundred Christian singles to get some answers to these questions. 20 minute interview within the two-hour program.

Friday, April 9, 2010 (encore Monday, April 10, 2010)

Host Tonya Lee talked with Elva "Precious Love" Thompson and Anthony Smith of Precious Heart Foundation which helps those in abusive relationships. 20 minute interview within the two-hour program.

Thursday, April 15, 2010 (encore Friday, April 16, 2010)

Betty Cornett and co-host Chris Aikens talked with Emily Fitzpatrick, Founder/President of On Eagle's Wings Ministries and the Hope House Project of Asheville, North Carolina, about the work of the ministry. This ministry reaches out to women and children who are forced to work in the sex trade (victims of sex trafficking). 30 minute interview within the two-hour program.

Monday, April 19, 2010 (encore Tuesday, April 20, 2010)

Jim Hughes of Church by Design talked with Pastor Travis Jennings of The Harvest Church Tabernacle in Lithonia, Georgia about upcoming conferences including the Wailing Women Win Conference that was being held on April 22-24. 20 minute interview within the two-hour program.

Thursday, April 29, 2010 (encore Friday, April 30, 2010)

In this special Seniors Today edition featuring a tribute to motherhood, hosts Betty Cornett and Pat Mathis talked with Kim Gravel about the impact her children had on her life. Kim also shared many funny "mommy stories". Also, Teresa Kemp and her mother Serena Wilson were featured. Teresa shared about overcoming cancer and her continuing work to teach young people about the legacy of the Underground Railroad and how quilts played an important part in the history. Music by Logan Smith and Daves Highway. 2 hours.

Monday, May 24, 2010 (encore Tuesday, May 25, 2010)

Hosts Jim and Jennifer Hughes talked with Windy Stephens of Stone Mountain, Georgia who shared her testimony of being a battered wife and becoming homeless and how she helps other victims of abuse today. 20 minute interview within the two-hour program.

Tuesday, May 27, 2010 (encore Wednesday, May 28, 2010)

Pastor Leroy Doe of Concord Baptist Church talked with Taedra Morris, author of Hell is Not Always Hot, about her testimony of going into deep depression after losing her hair and how she now helps others going through depressions. 20 minute interview within the two-hour program.

Tuesday, June 1, 2010 (encore Wednesday, June 2, 2010)

Hosts James and Regina Howard talked with Genna Sapia-Ruffin, author of Delivered from Temptation, about overcoming being in a cult and suffering domestic abuse. 20 minute interview within the two-hour program.

Friday, June 4, 2010 (encore Monday, June 7, 2010)

Tonya Lee talked with guest Traci Alexander of Mylonn Ministries of Buford, Georgia. Traci shared about her women's retreats called "Balancing Life's Demands. 20 minute interview within the two-hour program.

Monday, June 7, 2010 (encore Tuesday, June 8, 2010)

Bishop Samuel McGill of Lilburn, Georgia talked with Dr. Margaret Moore of Caring and Sharing Ministries of Riverdale, Georgia about the "Sister to Sister Prayer Summit" bringing women together to pray and encourage each other. 20 minute interview within the two-hour program.

Monday, June 14, 2010 (encore Tuesday, June 15, 2010)

Jim Hughes talked with Susan Auci of Real Womens Ministries in Atlanta, Georgia about "God's in 2 Recycling" focusing on how God is ever-ready to recycle/change/redeem anyone and make their lives new. 20 minute interview within the two-hour program.

Friends and Neighbors

Tuesdays at 12:00 p.m. and Saturdays at 8:30 a.m.
Encore presentations weekdays at 6:30 a.m.

This half hour series is produced by WATC TV 57 and features a variety of topics of interest to the community. The series is hosted by Sherry Tatum, Donna Ritchie and Kelly Ingram and featured Jennifer Schuchmann and Shelley Hendrix as guest co-hosts during the quarter. A sample of episodes airing during the quarter aimed at women are as follows:

May 11, 2010 and May 15, 2010

Hosts Kelly Ingram and Sherry Tatum talked with Church 4 Chicks founder and guest co-host Shelley Hendrix about ministry to women. Donna Ritchie joined in the next segment with Gary and Andrea Chevalier who will be sharing about marriage and family.

May 25, 2010 and May 29, 2010

Debbie Taylor Williams shared with hosts Sherry Tatum, Donna Ritchie and Kelly Ingram about her latest book The Plan A Woman in a Plan B World and also shared about her P.R.A.Y. with Passion Conferences.

June 12, 2010 (regular Tuesday airing did not occur)

The hosts talked with Dr. Kady Williams and Dr. Helena Solodar to discuss hearing loss and the new technology available to air hearing. Also featured was Helen Cuneo with Project Orphan Quilt, a quilting group raising funds for children in need in places such as Haiti. The discussion included a look at the art of quilting and how these women are using their talents to help others.

June 30, 2010 (6:30 a.m. airing only)

Host Sherry Tatum talked with Jenny Sanford who shared about her life since leaving her husband, Governor Mark Sanford of South Carolina, after news broke of his affair with another woman.

Time for Hope

Thursdays at 11:30 a.m. and Saturdays at 7:00 a.m.

This 30-minute program is hosted by Dr. Freda Crews and features a discussion of life-related topics such as overcoming divorce, improving one's self-esteem, etc. Produced in Spartanburg, South Carolina by Bible Study Time, Inc. Time for Hope is a Christian mental health program that addresses issues of concern to the community. Topics featured this quarter included the following:

April 22, 2010 and April 24, 2010

Dr. Freda Crews talked with Jeanette Towne about her book From Prisoner to President which chronicles the true story of a naïve young woman's spiritual and physical battle to escape a ten year sentence as a domestic prisoner. She rebuilds her life and rises through the corporate world to become the president and CEO of a multi-million dollar corporation.

April 29, 2010 and May 1, 2010

Jack Countryman talked with host Dr. Freda Crews about his latest books: Time with God for Mothers and an Invitation to Prayer for Mothers. Jack shared how he feels women need to be encouraged in their calling of motherhood and grow in their relationship with the Lord.

May 6, 2010 and May 8, 2010

Author Mary Byers talked with host Dr. Freda Crews about The Mother Load. Mary shared about the importance for women to take care of themselves while caring for others and offered ways to have a more balanced life.

May 27, 2010 and May 29, 2010

Jane Boucher, author of Escaping Domestic Abuse: How Women Get Out and Stay Out, talked with host Dr. Freda Crews shared how the bruises, scars and emotional wounds will affect one in every three women in the United States. Jane shared stories of courageous women who broke away from abusive relationships to escape the agonizing pain to find lasting peace.