Title: Hidden Agendas: Dropping the Masks That Keep Us Apart

Airdates (Week of): July 4, 2016

Guest: Steve Brown - Author, speaker, syndicated radio broadcaster, and seminary professor at Reformed Theological Seminary in Orlando, Florida. Founder of Key Life Ministries.

Dr. Freda Crews, host, and her guest, Steve Brown discuss his book Hidden Agendas. Deep down, we all have a secret plan for getting from where we are to where we want to be, even if we refuse to admit it to ourselves. We put on masks-like religion, appearance, power, politics, or protection-to drive our agendas. But all of this leaves us feeling phony, ashamed, guilty, and afraid. There is so much more to life than hiding, pretending, and never being loved. In fact, there is already one person who sees behind the masks we wear and the hidden agendas that drive us. God always recognizes and loves the "you" behind the mask. "Being real" has to start with your relationship with your heavenly Father. God already knows you inside and out. But God doesn't know you in order to "out" you to your friends. His unconditional love for his own is reason we can pray to our Father without fear of rejection or judgment. Knowing God's love, knowing that your heavenly Father is for you not against you is the only reason to give up your masks and develop the type of authentic relationships you never thought you could have.

Title: Three Free Sins: God's Not Mad at You

Airdates (Week of): July 11, 2016

Guest: Steve Brown - Author, speaker, syndicated radio broadcaster, and a seminary professor at Reformed Theological Seminary in Orlando, Florida. Founder of Key Life Ministries.

Dr. Freda Crews, host, and her guest, Steve Brown discuss his book Three Free Sins, which teaches that the only people who make any progress toward being better are those who know that God will still love them, regardless of how good they are. This book is about the misguided obsession with the management of sin that cripples too many Christians. Jesus has made the offer to cover all of our sins – not just three. The message is that even though people can be better, they can never not sin. The author continues through the book to show readers that while they can never manage sin, they can relax in knowing that they are completely forgiven.

Title: Tying the Knot: A Premarital Guide to a Strong and Lasting Marriage

Airdates (Weeks of): July 25, 2016

Part one of a two-part program. Guest: Rob Green, Ph. D.–Pastor of Counseling & Seminary Ministries Faith Church – Lafayette, Indiana

Host, Dr. Freda Crews and her guest, Dr. Rob Green discuss his book, Tying the Knot. Advised by both tellers of fairy tales and harbingers of doom, many engaged couples simply don't know what to expect from marriage, so they focus their anxious energies on the wedding day. Rob Green, a pastor, counselor, and veteran of many premarital counseling sessions, shares that the joy, fun, companionship, and love couples hope for before marriage are not only possible, they are actually God's plan for marriage. But none of these wonderful things happen automatically when you tie the knot. A strong and satisfying marriage must be intentionally built on Jesus. Tying the Knot offers soon-to-be-married couples a practical vision of Christ-centered marriage that is realistic, hopeful, and actionable. This nine-session study guides couples through issues like conflict, expectations, communication, finances, and intimacy, showing how each can be successfully resolved with Christ at the center of the marriage.

Airdates (Week of): September 26, 2016

Guest: Ian Osborn, M.D. – Board Certified Psychiatrist Specializing in O.C.D.

Dr. Freda Crews, host, and her guest, Dr. Ian Osborn, discuss his book, Can Christianity Cure Obsessive Compulsive Disorder? and explore this relentless condition from a Christian perspective. The primary symptom of O.C.D. is the occurrence of terrifying ideas, images, and urges that jump into a person's mind and return again and again, despite the individual's attempt to remove them. Christians who suffer from O.C.D. may grapple with additional guilt, as the undesired thoughts are frequently of a spiritual nature. Yet people may be surprised to learn that some of the greatest leaders in Christian history also struggled with this malady. What did they experience? How did they cope? Were they able to overcome these tormenting, often violent, obsessions? Where did God fit into the picture? Ian Osborn shares the personal accounts of Martin Luther, John Bunyan, and Saint Thérèse of Lisieux, as well as his own story, in exploring how faith and science work together to address this complex issue.

Part one of a two-part program. Guest: Crystal Sutherland - A writer, speaker, ministry leader, and mentor for survivors of childhood sexual abuse. Crystal holds a MA in Theological Studies and has over eighteen years of ministry experience.

Dr. Freda Crews, host and her guest, Crystal Sutherland discuss her book, Journey to Heal, a path of hope and healing for adult survivors of childhood sexual abuse. A woman who was sexually abused as a child is confronted with many internal questions: Am I worthless? Will I get past the pain? Do I matter to God? These and similar questions can carve a deep hole in an already wounded soul. Too often, the lies of worthlessness are believed, the pain becomes too much to handle, and survivors find themselves making choices that lead to more heartbreak. Crystal Sutherland-herself a survivor of CSA, knows that while the recovery process is complex, healing is possible with God's help. For women who want to progress from simply coping to living abundantly, this book guides readers through seven essential steps to recovery found in Scripture. Infused with biblical truths, stories of hope from other survivors, and practical wisdom, this book leads women to discover the life of wholeness God has for them.

Guest: Amy Lynne- Author

Years passed, but Amy was unable to openly share her past with others. She had subconsciously donned a mask to hide behind, as though the mask hid her shame, guilt, bitterness, anger and fear, but all it did was hide her from reality. The compassion of a fellow Christian helped her to finally confess her past. By lifting her mask and sharing in the forgiveness of Christ, Amy was able to embrace a fulfilling and optimistic future. Behind the Mask was written for every person who chooses to conceal his or her real identity. Let God give you the strength and courage to remove your mask.

Title: Hunting Hope: Dig Through the Darkness to Find the Light

Airdates (Week of): September 19, 2016

Guest: Nika Maples – Speaker, Author and Former Teacher

Dr. Freda Crews, host and her guest, Nika Maples, discuss her book, Hunting Hope. Hope is not an accident. Sometimes it has to be hunted, and hunting it takes courage and hope hunters know how to excavate hope from hardship. They rake through the rubble of an unwanted situation, digging into difficult circumstances because they have come to expect that adversity will produce good. They believe that light always triumphs over darkness. Nika Maples became a hope hunter after suffering a massive brainstem stroke that left her quadriplegic in her twenties. Doctors warned that she had as little as 48 hours to live, and, if she lived at all, she would never walk or talk again. There was no hope on the horizon. So Nika started to hunt for it. Today, she not only walks, but she speaks to audiences everywhere about the power of hunting hope when a situation appears hopeless. Whether you or someone you know is going through a situation that feels hopeless, you will find encouragement in Hunting Hope. Whether you are experiencing a medical trauma, a financial hardship, or a relational crisis, you will find empowerment in Hunting Hope. As you read, you will cling to 20 truths about God's character and practice 5 daily disciplines that will develop your own character in crisis. Maybe we were all meant to be hope hunters.
