| April 10, 2018 | Host Sherry Tatum. Sharon Tooson grew up in church most of her life. Having had a broken relationship with her father, she found herself searching for "Daddy's love" in many lost relationships. At the age of 28, pregnant and alone, she had to decide whether to keep her child or abort. She decided to keep her son and to be a single mom. Sharon found a church in Alexandria, Virginia, where she rededicated her life to the Lord. The church really showed her the love of God and how she needed to depend on Him. She grew stronger in her walk with God and raised her son to love the Lord and His word. Sharon didn't get married until she was 40. After several bad relationships she started praying for a husband and the Lord granted her prayers by sending her a godly man who loved her and fathered her son into being a man. Through all this Sharon has experienced God's healing of her brokenness with men and her relationship with her earthly father. |

Host Ann White talks with Pastor Bola Adepoju of Austell, Georgia sharing about the Vision of Women on Purpose. The Vision of Woman on Purpose (WOP) is to empower "youth and women leaders" to become change agents in the community by using biblical principles and practical teachings. Our motto is "Transforming Women into God's Champion." Often times we walk in other people's lanes or try to fulfill someone else's purpose. Fifteen minute interview within the ninety-minute program.

May 16, 2018

Hosts Nancy Lewis and Sandra Davis Forrest. Rachael Miller of Refining Women Worldwide lives in Hampton, Georgia with her husband, Randall Miller. She was raised in the church and fell in love with the Lord personally while in college and has been serving God her entire life. Her ultimate goal is to expose the crippling effects of procrastination to help women move into their God given destiny. God has gifted her with the unique ability to speak directly into the lives of others with precision to help them reach their maximum potential and understand their purpose.

Also, Dr. Alexcius Branch from Tucker, Georgia shared her story. She accepted Jesus as her Lord and personal Savior as a child and has been on a quest to fulfill her God-given purpose since. Her mission is to empower, uplift and inspire God's people to reach their full potential by living their lives on purpose. She accomplishes this through speaking, mentoring, philanthropy and community service such as through the National Council of Negro Women. The National Council of Negro Women is a coalition comprised of 200 community-based sections in 32 states and 38 national organizational affiliates that works to enlighten and inspire more than 3,000,000 women and men. Its mission is to lead, advocate for and empower women of African descent, their families and communities. Fifteen minute interviews within the ninety-minute program.
