Adrian Washington was raised up going to church so she knew God based off what she was taught but did not have her own relationship with Him. When she got married she continued to maintain a relationship with God but it was still not her own personal relationship. She and ex-husband started to really experience hardships when they moved away from family. She had no one else to turn to so she started speaking to God for herself. It was during those lonely times in her home that she realized only God could help her and bring her out of the dark place that she was in. It taught her to lean on Him and trust His plans for her life. Her relationship elevated when she stopped worshipping to please others and began worshipping to please God. She stopped letting everyone tell her what was right for her and let God lead her. The way she was able to hear His voice was through fasting, praying and reading the word on her own. She believes God wants her to use her ability to encourage and motivate others to empower people to follow their hearts and accomplish their goals. She has always been a natural born leader and believes that keeping God first and working hard will take you anywhere. She knows the enemy does not want her to be able to speak. She had to have surgery on her throat a year ago that could have caused her to lose her voice but God. She will talk about what motivated her to write her book titled Lord Why Me?.

Familiarly called Minister Donald, Dr. Donald Johnson has a story to share. His bouts with an identity crisis, brokenness, rebellion, addictions, and sexual immorality proffered him an impressive opportunity to experience God's grace, mercy, love, and forgiveness. A modern-day prodigal son, Donald surrendered his life to the Lord in 1989. He writes about God's amazing grace and his own experiences in the autobiography, This Far by Grace, the Incredible Story of One Man's Journey out of Darkness into God's Marvelous Light. Now, a Bible Teacher, evangelist, Christian educator, theologian, and author, Johnson travels the world explaining God's word, proclaiming its truth, and helping people change through the Gospel of Christ. Hosts James and Regina Howard. Sixteen minute interview within the one-hour program.

October 26, 2022

A skilled musician and highly sought after psalmist, David Daughtry has been an essential fixture within the Gospel music and entertainment industries for over a decade. Having been groomed and mentored by some of the industry's finest, Daughtry's matriculation into the industry as a national recording artist seemed destined, almost inevitable. Serving his tenure as Director of Praise & Worship at West Angeles COGIC (Bishop Charles E. Blake) and lending his vocals to some of the world's most renown singers (Aretha Franklin, Michael Buble, Beyonce Knowles, Yolanda Adams etc.), Daughtry is back with his sophomore project, still spreading the message of Jesus Christ to all who will receive. David's first project is still in heavy rotation with the hit single "God Is Great/Leap", a favorite among congregations and gospel lovers. A true minister of the Gospel, David Daughtry is on a mission to sing to the glory of God that souls might be saved, and lives may be changed by his power divine. David saw the power of God when God spared his life when he was used as a hostage in a bank will share more of his testimony of the goodness of God.

November 4, 2022

Independent artist, songwriter, and singer Robert Hawkins has experienced life at the high moments of greatness and honor and has lived through low and turbulent pits of anguish. He writes music and sings about an infallible hope called Jesus. With his music and his incredible testimony, he is dedicated to helping others find that same hope and victory. Robert's ministry extends beyond music into a very personal mission to see people holistically well. His battle with addiction and triumph in recovery led him to launch The Recovery Gathering. Robert created this to offer a safe space where those who suffer from addiction, mental illness, trauma, or any need of rehabilitation can gather to celebrate recovery through the Word of God and songs of worship. He will talk about overcoming his addiction and what he's doing now to help others through his ministry. Hosts Gail Williams and Carl Ray. Fifteen minute interview within the one-hour program.

November 10, 2022

Cason, a young man that was broken, depressed and in bondage until he gave his heart to the Lord. Cason's life has been given a new spirit, and a new direction to share his testimony and ministry with others that they may know Christ as their Savior and the importance to have a private prayer life and Bible study. Cason feels God has opened a door to minister the gospel to coaches and athletes through the ministry of FCA. Hosts Pastors David and Kim Smith. Sixteen minute interview within the one-hour program.

November 11, 2022

Shane Sims was a spiraling addict that ended up being charged with accessory to felony murder and armed robbery, and subsequent sentence of Life plus fifteen years imprisonment. His relationship with God was not to get out of the problem that he had created for himself, but to reconnect with Him in a way that would enable him to endure whatever it was that he was about to face. Having this type of relationship with God is truly liberating because the worship and labor comes more naturally when you aren't looking /asking for anything in return. He believes that his mission is to build bridges between people, create the opportunities that were not available to him or his parents during their battle with the disease of addiction and to advocate for the weak and voiceless.

Tlayra Jordan, better known as Ms.T in the recovery community, is an Ohio native and a loving mother of seven beautiful children. It was her recovery from a drug addiction that lasted over ten years that led her to working in the field of recovery. During her addiction she suffered the loss of several loved ones, loss of custody of all her children, and hit a low that left her feeling there was nothing left but death. However, it was her faith that was instilled within her as a child, the love for her children and the determination to beat the disease of addiction that gave her the strength in the 12th hour that would lead to the restoration of her life, her family and sanity.

Today Ms.T, is a Certified Addiction and Empowerment Specialist and the Owner/Director of Mother to Mother Recovery Center located here in Elberton, Georgia. Ms.T uses her lived experiences, her training and evidenced based practices to help other women and mother's suffering from the disease of addiction recover, reclaim, and restore their own lives and families. Host Jordan Colletta. Fifteen minute interview within the one-hour program.

Ivan Rudenok was born in Krasnoyarsk, Siberia (Russia). Early in his life, he enjoyed sports, especially Judo. When he was fifteen, his dad was drunk and got killed in a fight in Green Grove (In Russian: Zelenaya Roscha). This was extremely hard on him and his family. During this time, his mom became a believer. She started going to church, but he mocked her new "hobby". She tried to share the Gospel with him, but he did not listen to her because he considered himself as a strong-willed, self-sufficient person, who did not need anyone. His mom kept praying for him, but he kept doing sports and spent his weekends with his drug-addicted friends. Soon, he had to quit sports because the drugs had severely affected his health. His employer asked him to quit his job because of his health issues. He soon received a terrible diagnosis: pre-cirrhotic condition of the liver. The doctor told him he had one or two years to live. He got scared. After receiving this diagnosis, he decided to go to church in Green Grove with his mother. At this point everything changed! He heard the message of the Gospel and gave his heart to the Lord.

STATION WATC TV 57's
MOST SIGNIFICANT TREATMENT OF THOSE ISSUES
October 1, 2022 – December 31, 2022

Topic: Enriching the Lives of Children, Teens and Young Adults

As a non-commercial educational broadcast station, WATC TV provides quality E/I children's programming to its viewers as well as programming to educate parents on issues that will be helpful to them. In addition, the station covers topics to educate and inspire teenagers and young adults. Such programming during 4th Quarter 2022 included the following:

Dr. Wonder's Workshop

Learn important lessons of faith and virtue with Dr. Wonder and all his friends on this unique, fun and educational kids' program.

Dr. Wonder's Workshop is targeted toward deaf and hard-of-hearing children, but is also perfect for hearing children who can't speak because of illness or disability, people learning English as a second language, stroke victims, and educators who work with children. E/I age range is 7-12 year old.

Scaly Adventures

The Scaly Adventures cast, composed of Pierce, Tanya and Rick Curren, traveled the world featuring many different animals, as well as their own reptiles. The purpose of the show is not only to teach what reptiles are really like, but also to inspire kids through family-friendly programming. Each episode focuses on teaching children how they should "interact with, care for, and protect animals."

Missing

Missing is a weekly half-hour educational/informational series focusing on actual cases of missing persons. The series, which is appropriate for family viewing and children ages 13-16 in particular, provides information and descriptions of missing children, including endangered runaways as well as victims of abductions. The show also presents peer-to-peer advice on safety in public places and in cyber space, including real-world examples of how to avoid potentially dangerous situations. The program emphasizes taking active responsibility for personal safety and promotes situational awareness, presented in a calm and non-threatening manner suited for teenagers. E/I age range is 13-16 years old.

Biz Kids

Biz Kid$ is a weekly half-hour series focusing on financial literacy and entrepreneurship for teens, targeting 13 to 16-year-olds. Using a mix of strong financial education tools, dynamic sketch comedy, and inspiring true stories of young entrepreneurs, Biz Kid$ provides important information for future success. Each episode features math, language arts, and social studies as well as teaching teens about money and business.

Elizabeth Stanton's Great Big World

Elizabeth Stanton has been a world traveler her entire life. From an early age she has experienced the culture of Europe, the wonders of the Far East and the natural beauty of remote destinations. In her own syndicated television series, Elizabeth Stanton's Great Big World, Elizabeth travels the globe with her celebrity friends exploring other cultures, learning about history and finding opportunities to help out those in need, while shedding some light on what others less fortunate are dealing with. The series is a top rated show on FOX affiliates nationwide and can be seen in 90% of the US.

Elizabeth is very passionate about giving back and is a supporter of Marines Toys for Tots Foundation, donating thousands of toys to the organization over the last few years. In addition, she has donated money earned from her show to the homeless men, women, and children of Los Angeles, ultimately helping to feed over 4000 families in Los Angeles for two months.

She continues to film new episodes of Great Big World, which recently celebrated a 100th episode milestone. E/I age group 13-16 years old.

DragonflyTV is an Emmy-Award winning science education television series produced by Twin Cities Public Television. The show aired on PBS Kids from 2002 to 2008, with reruns until 2010 on selected stations. Seasons 1–4 were co-hosted by Michael Brandon Battle and Mariko Nakasone. Seasons 5–7 were hosted by Eric Artell and are produced in partnership with science museums. DragonflyTV was created in collaboration with Project Dragonfly at Miami University, which founded Dragonfly magazine, the first national magazine to feature children's investigations and discoveries. DragonflyTV pioneered a "real kids, real science" approach to children's science television and led to the development of the SciGirls television series.^[1] DragonflyTV and SciGirls were funded in part by the National Science Foundation to provide a national forum for children's scientific investigations. Reruns of DragonflyTV air in off-network syndication to allow commercial stations to meet federal E/I mandates.

Sonya Thompson is an author and educator who has taught children with special needs for many years. She is presently a contractor with the state of Georgia and serves families of infants with vision and hearing impairments. Her mother was a Sunday school teacher. She led her to receive Christ in her heart at age eleven. She's grateful to have had Christ in her life at an early age. A turning point in her Christian walk was when she was a sophomore in college and met a couple of friends who were members of Campus Crusade for Christ. Their lives mirrored the God kind of life that we all strive for and she was significantly impacted by their commitment and daily walk. There are sources that state 50% of Americans read below an 8th grade level. As an educator, Sonya desires to plant seeds of literacy in young children by encouraging them to enjoy reading.

She is currently writing a children's series. Her children's books teach important life lessons through heart-warming stories. She will share what inspired her to write her book and the challenges that came with it. She resides in Conyers, Georgia. Host Koach Katlyn. Fifteen minute interview within the one-hour program.

Terence J. Davis has been serving in ministry for over two decades. He is a native of the Pee Dee Community of Georgetown, South Carolina, and U.S. Retired Army Veteran. He is the oldest of four siblings. As a young teen, he enjoyed hearing the stories of God's power and His ability to grant eternal life for all who believed. He encountered countless near-death experiences on and off the battlefield, that led to salvation and baptism in the year of 1995. This new life transformation was the start of a commitment to a Christian lifestyle of faith and total surrender to God's call to action in Manhood Discipleship.

Through the Christian Business Men's Connection of Atlanta, T.J. Davis has joined forces in a men's movement, dedicated to educating and empowering men to move forward in their purpose, passion, visions and dreams along with taking the leadership role and being a strong presence in their families and communities. He also served on various non-profit organizations and missionary boards. His Mission is to enlighten, equip and empower men to understand their purpose by sharing a message of hope through the Word of God that invokes Salvation and a personal relationship that encourages them to live a righteous life according to God to discipleship and male mentorship. He will talk about his personal testimony and his men's ministry. Host Kay Thompson. Sixteen minute interview within the one-hour program.

Carl Ray has just the country music flair we've all come to love and appreciate in the tradition of great country music. This singer, song writer, likened to Vince Gill for his tenor appeal, has made a great impact on the country music scene with his incredible talent, handsome smile, dynamic personality, and hypnotic voice. Born and raised in Houston, Texas, he highlighted the major stage as a young person while opening the stage for The Spinners, BB King, Teddy Pendergrass, and Harold Melvin and The Blue Notes. As his musical interest developed and expanded, Ray began writing more of his own songs, and he was soon discovered by Reggae International Artist, Johnny Nash. It was Ray's relationship with Nash that led this young prodigy and developed his love for country music.

Paige O'Neal is an American Songwriter, Philanthropist and lover of precious our pets. Born in Miami, Florida, Paige grew up in Alexandria, Virginia. While growing up there, Paige grew up developing a sensitivity and compassion for those who were less fortunate or anyone that simply needed help. She is also founder of the non-profit organization "Mostly Mutts Animal Rescue". Paige O'Neal is also a songwriter and has been since college. Her love for music, songwriting and her love for people and animals intersected with the formation of a new non-profit organization called Musical Charities. Musical Charities uses the musical gifts of musicians to help ease the pains and issues we face in our communities. They will talk about the non-profit event to help those in need. Keianna Williams is a woman who understands what it feels like to be stressed, unfulfilled, depressed, and to experience deteriorating health as a result. For seven years, she worked a job that she absolutely hated, leading to sickness, financial strain, postpartum depression (after giving birth to twins), and ultimately one of the darkest periods of her life. However, it was within that painful stretch that the present-day entrepreneur, real estate agent, author and motivational speaker found her purpose. In 2012, Williams launched her first business, The Lifestyle Exchange. Since then, she has helped to transform the lives of hundreds of women by motivating and empowering them to overcome their traumas and become the best versions of themselves, inside and out.

In 2020, Williams co-authored a bestselling book with fifteen other women from around the world titled She Rises, which shared their brave stories of overcoming various challenges to become self-sufficient, confident and successful in making their dreams a reality. Williams has become a sought-after figure in her native city of Atlanta for her leadership and her powerful women's events, which she hosts throughout the year. So much so, that news has begun to spread nationwide. She will share about her book and her business. Host Jordan Colletta. Fifteen minute interview within the one-hour program.

Sarah Grace was given her first opportunity to speak at a women's conference in her early twenties. It was there that she first shared the testimonial of her life changing decision to surrender her life to God in response to the teachings of Jesus Christ. Shortly after that, she entered into apprentice style preparation for Christian ministry where she eventually became a licensed and ordained member of clergy. She has since received a diversity of titles, awards, and recognitions affirming her calling from God to both Christian community and the world at large.

Sarah Grace also ventured into self-publishing releasing several books, all with the focus of empowering others through her testimonial accounts and Biblical teachings. Sarah Grace serves as president of the Charis Global Outreach, which is the umbrella for her diverse non-profit work and also she also serves on the board of directors for two other non-profits with Christian missions including From Your Father, which has a mission to minister to single mothers, and Worship Without Walls Experience Ministries whose mission is "Teaching believers the authority they have upon their confession of Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior." Sarah Grace is also a member of the internationally known Christian Women in Media organization. She will share her testimony of her past and how it helped her to become the woman she is today. Hosts John and Nikita Citizen. Fifteen minute interview within the one-hour program.
