QUARTERLY LIST OF ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPRESENTING
STATION WATC TV 57's
MOST SIGNIFICANT TREATMENT OF THOSE ISSUES

October 1, 2010 – December 31, 2010

Issue: Health and Lifestyle

During 4th Quarter 2010, WATC TV featured programming that educated viewers on a wide variety of health related topics to improve their physical bodies and emotional health. Such programming included the following:

Time For Hope

Wednesdays at 6:00 a.m. and Thursdays at 11:00 a.m.

This half hour series is a Christian-based mental health program that addresses issues of concern to the community. Host Dr. Freda Crews. Produced by Bible Study Time of Spartanburg, South Carolina.

October 20 and 21:

Dr. Freda Crews talked with author Vernon Sigmon (Parenting with a Plan) about the need to awaken the parent in the role of parenting. Vernon is a Parent Educator Supervisor with the Chester County School District of Chester, South Carolina and a licensed minister. He feels that a parent needs to create a blueprint for their child to direct them on the path of responsible adulthood.

October 27 and 28:

Rob Moll, author of The Art of Dying: Living Fully into the Life to Come, talked with Dr. Freda Crews about numerous issues dealing with death. Death will come to us all, but most people live their lives as if death does not exist. Most people find themselves at a loss when death approaches and Rob feels that people do not know how to die well. The discussion touched on issues on how to guide one through caring for the dying as well as on how to grieve.

November 3 and 4:

Shari Richard shared with Dr. Freda Crews about her project titled Eyewitness and Window to the Womb 2. Shari answered questions regarding fetal development and child birth issues. She also discussed abortion complications, post abortion syndrome and healing.

November 17 and 18; November 24 and 25; December 1 and 2; and December 8 and 9:

Dr. Freda Crews is a Licensed Professional Counselor and Certified Clinical Mental Health Counselor. In this four part series airing four consecutive weeks, she discussed coping with grief and loss, an ever present and universal reality. Guest Dr. Alistair Walker shared in Part One about his own personal loss and how he was able to cope with it. Guests including Loretta Lynn shared their personal stories in Part Two and they addressed the psychological and physiological problems and untimely depression that can develop resulting from grief and loss. Part Three addressed topics such as the loss of a child to loved ones with terminal illness and the importance of communication. Dr. Walker returned in Part Four to share about the recovery from the death of his wife twelve years prior and how he was able to recover and find joy again.

December 22 and 23:

The topic of "Depression and the Holidays" was addressed with host Dr. Freda Crews and guest Dr. Glen Havens. Dr. Havens is a psychiatrist and he shared about how people experience depression around the holidays and find themselves dealing with disappointment due to unrealistic expectations and family dynamics. They discussed how to manage this seasonal depression.

December 29 and 30:

Guest Elizabeth George talked with host Dr. Freda Crews about her latest book Small Changes for a Better Life: Daily Steps to Living God's Plan for You. Small changes in life can transform your life into one of greater achievement, commitment and joy. Using the Bible as a guide, Elizabeth explores how to find fulfillment and excel in relationships, spiritual life and further God's plan for you.

About Health with Jeanne Blake

Monthly airings on Saturday mornings at 12:30 p.m.

Episodes this quarter included "Skin Cancer: Jeanne Blake's Personal Story" where host Jeanne Blake talked with Dr. Carl Schanbacher of South End Dermatology and Skin Care who treated her for skin cancer. More than 3.5 million cases are diagnosed annually and is the most common form of cancer. But people tend to ignore the numbers until it happens to us.

C. J. Connelly shared her story of being diagnosed with Scleroderma, a progressive life-threatening disease that is characterized by the thickening of the skin and other organs. About 300,000 Americans – mostly women – are living with this disease. C.J. shared how she is leaving a legacy for her grandchildren – a series of children's books that deliver important life lessons.

Another episode addressed "Bullying – What Everyone Needs to Know" and covered how it is cruel behavior that leaves lasting negative effects. Dr. Robin D'Antona talked with host Jeanne Blake about bullying behaviors. Dr. D'Antona is the author of several books including 101 Things Everyone Should Know About Bullying and Bullying in Athletics.

The work of an organization called WATCH – World Against Toys Causing Harm was featured in another episode. WATCH's Director James Swartz talked with Jeanne Blake about this year's ten worst toys and the dangers involved with these toys.
