September 21, 2017

Host Pastor David Smith. Guests included Kelly Garner who shared about a near death car accident in 2001 that he did not thank God for sparing his life. In 2014, Kelly had another accident that was a wakeup call for him. While helping others during a snow storm, Kelly fell off a cliff on to some rocks and laid unconscious in 8 degree temperature until a search and rescue team found him the next day. This accident was full of miracles along a long road to recovery. Kelly, through this experience, learned to appreciate life and to not take anything for granted and shares that with others. Twenty minute interview within the ninety-minute program.

Also, Jason Fowler shared his story and also was a musical guest. Jason 's debut solo album, "Letters From The Inside" released in 2014 and produced by Jason Hoard, Third Day, Jamie Grace, Natalie Grant, tells his journey back from hopelessness. Jason admits that his diehard, all-or-nothing approach to life has sometimes been both a blessing and a curse. Living a rock-n- roll lifestyle eventually caused the artist to hit rock bottom. At rock bottom is where he began recovering from a place of hopelessness. Fifteen minute interview within the ninety-minute program.
