He believes that the development of a relationship with God is the most important attribute that a believer can attain. This goes beyond a physical building or a program; knowing Him pass people, places and experiences makes all the difference when faced with life and its tests. His mission is to help those who are connected to him regain the mobility of their lives that they had before their life's traumas. He will share about his church ministry "The Rehab Church" and the origin behind it. Host Pastor Yves McKenzie. Fifteen minute interview within the one-hour program.

Cyndee Knight is a member of the Hope Now Ministries USA which is a registered 501(c)3 organization that began ministry work in 1992 to serve the least, the lost and the last in Ukraine. Their founder, Rev. Vic Jackopson was invited to visit Ukraine after the fall of the Soviet Union and the subsequent independence of the country. They discovered children living in dire poverty without food to eat, prisoners living in inhuman conditions and widows struggling to survive. Through this encounter, God called them to bring the love and joy of Jesus to the people of Cherkassy region, Ukraine. Over the years, the team has worked to improve the quality of life for orphans living without families, brought faith to those in prisons and fed hungry people living on the edge of existence.

Love Him Love Them began as a non-profit social services organization in 1998 by David and Linda Gunter in the fifth worst crime ridden neighborhood in America, Vine City, Atlanta, Georgia. As real estate investors at that time, they had homelessness, drugs and prostitution thrown in their faces on a daily basis. They wanted to make a difference so they took one of their rental properties and "turned it into" a homeless shelter. Because funding came from friends and family and not government grants, they were free to operate and share Jesus on a daily basis. The shelter and the non-profit was named George's Place in honor of Linda's daddy. Adrienne Johnson believes if you trust God and allow Him to order your steps you will live a fantastic life. She also believes God sees your tears and hears your prayers. She is the founder of Wo Ye Bra and her mission is to empower women and girls in West Africa.

Wo Ye Bra has a dual-purpose, to train women to run their own business and to keep girls in school. They do this by providing all of the resources and training for impoverished women to learn how to sew. This includes providing a free sewing machine, fabric, supplies, patterns and micro-funding, as well as marketing, sales training and finance education.

The women accepted into the Wo Ye Bra program are identified by village faith-based leadership as those who have asked for a miracle. 90% of the women in the program have children. Wo Ye Bra graduates leave poverty and are able to provide food, shelter, clothing and education for their entire families. Through their own success and work, they become productive members of their community. Some of our graduates have even hired neighbors to work in the sewing business with them.
