Confessions of a Surgeon: Of the millions of Americans who undergo surgery each year, how many really know the level of skill and experience of the person holding the scalpel? On this edition of About Health, Jeanne Blake interviews Dr. Paul Ruggieri, the author of Confessions of a Surgeon: The good the bad and the complicated – behind the OR doors. Dr. Ruggieri discusses his successes, failures and frustrations as a surgeon.

June 16, 2012

Exercise and the Brain: If you exercise, you know that it usually makes you feel better. Have you ever stopped to wonder why? Research proves that physical activity has a direct affect on the brain, makes us feel better physically and emotionally – allows us to think more clearly and even improves our memory. On this edition of About Health, Jeanne Blake talks to Dr. Lindsay Shaw about the effects of exercise on the brain.
