Vermont ETV, Inc. d/b/a Vermont PBS
EEO Supplemental Outreach Activities
(December 1, 2016 – November 30, 2017)

Vermont PBS Internship Program (#5)

Vermont PBS has an internship program whereby college students work at Vermont PBS to learn skills that can translate into employment in broadcasting following graduation. In some instances college credit is given. During the reporting period, Vermont PBS provided eleven internship opportunities to students in the areas of production, engagement, and development. The interns were students from colleges/universities in Vermont.

Training Programs (#8)

During the reporting period at least three Vermont PBS staff members received formal training in using production equipment and software.

In addition at least six staff members attended region and national conferences on fundraising, programming, management, engagement, development, and industry best practices.

List Job Openings with Media Trade Group (#12)

Vermont PBS listed each full-time opening during the reporting period with the Vermont Association of Broadcasters, a media trade group with broad-based membership, including women and minorities.

Station Tours (#16)

During the reporting period station personnel conducted station tours for young people and their adult chaperones. Tours include demonstration and hands on use of television technology as well as ample opportunity to ask questions of members of Vermont PBS staff.

During the reporting period six different groups, consisting of 137 individuals toured the station.
