KAVV's General Manager, Paul Lotsof, is a close observer of the Benson scene with particular emphasis on city government. From time to time, he develops editorial commentaries designed to provide Benson area residents with an in-depth developments.

ISSUE: Election for Arizona District 14 representative and senator:

Between August 21 and August 24th KAVV aired a total of 10 editorials each lasting four minutes. The subject matter was term limits for state legislators and the candidacies of Gail Griffin and David Gowan. The editorial noted that in 1992 Arizona voters adopted term limits for members of the Arizona Legislature. Mr. Lotsof expressed the opinion that Gail Griffin was making a mockery of term limits by running for the Arizona House of Representatives after being term limited in the Arizona State Senate. This editorial also expressed doubts about the fitness of David Gowan who was running for a seat in the seat in the Arizona Senate that Griffin was vacating.
