Tips From a Former Smoker – 08/26/15 - TFN

:60 spot Tiffany talks about losing her mother who was a smoker and died when Tiffany was 16 years old. Tiffany decided to quit smoking in 2012 when her own daughter turned 16. She started reading about how to quit smoking. She set a quit date. Threw out lighter, matches, and ashtrays. She began exercising more. I'd still get cravings, especially on long car rides. I put a picture of my mother in my car. It reminds me about my daughter 1-800-QUIT-NOW. www.cdc.gov/Tips

Make the Connection – Veterans Affairs 03/12/14 – TFN

:60 spot I joined the military because I wanted to contribute to something bigger than myself. After a while it takes a toll. I was counting the days until I came home to my family. At first it was good to be home. Then I realized things were different, I was different. I had trouble focusing and relating to things the way that I used to. A buddy noticed and told me that there are resources out there for Veterans. I found resources that helped and connected with other Veterans with similar experiences. Once I made connections things started to turn around. Find resources and support at maketheconnection.net. U.S. Dept. of Veterans Affairs.

Kidney Disease – 03/21/16 - TFN

:60 spot There is a progressive and potentially fatal health condition that effects one in seven American adults, and causes more deaths annually than either breast cancer or prostate cancer. One third of Americans are at risk of developing this disease, and yet the symptoms are so difficult to detect that most people don't even know they have it until they become critically ill and require emergency medical intervention. Can you guess what it is? It's chronic kidney disease, a preventable and treatable condition that takes a terrible toll on overall health and quality of life for millions of Americans.

Our kidneys play a vital role in keeping us healthy and ensuring our bodies work properly. Their primary function is to filter wastes and extra water out of our blood to make urine. Our kidneys also help control blood pressure, maintain healthy bones and make red blood cells. When someone develops kidney disease, their kidneys stop functioning properly which can lead to serious health issues and even death.

Now, Optum created this public service campaign to join the National Kidney Foundation and health advocates around the country in raising awareness about the prevalence, prevention, and treatment of kidney disease. The PSA helps listeners understand what kidney disease is, who is at risk for developing it, and what they can do to avoid serious kidney health issues. It also shares simple steps everyone can take to help prevent or slow the progress of kidney disease, and how to spot the signs that someone may need to seek care for a kidney health issue.

Protect Your Everyday – 02/10/16 – TFN

:60 spot I'm a fire fighter, a teacher, a barber, a farmer, a mom. We are part of your everyday life. It's the moment you experience uncertainty. Something or someone's behavior doesn't seem quite right. These are the moments to take a pause. If something doesn't feel right it probably isn't. It's not about being afraid or paranoid. It's about standing up to protect our community one detail at a time. A lot of little details can become a pattern. We should trust our instincts just like you should. Only you know what's not supposed to be in your everyday. If you see something, say something to authorities. www.dhs.gov/IfYouSeeSomethingSaySomething

MS – Together we are Stronger – May 18, 2016 – TFN

:60 spot Sharing has never meant as much as it does now. We share the things we love most in life for the world to see. What if we could do more with our sharing than just collect likes? What if the sharing could be used to make a difference? Now there's a place where we can put all that sharing to good use. The National MS Society is asking people to make a difference and share with someone else whatever is important to you. We've created a place that will help you get your experience out to the world. If you have a story, share it. If you have a solution, share it too. www.wearestrongtogetherms.org

Guest: Charlene Emerson with the Club Lighthouse Players. She has lived in Philadelphia, North Carolina and now in SA about a year. Early in her life she was on a path to Broadway Theater. The Lord intervened and she began a group of Actors for Christ. She felt her job should be done by a man but God directed her to be a director. She gives her work in the theater as to God’s Glory.

When she writes she shares herself with the world and encourages others to allow God to use them. She has learned to focus on God’s works through her and relies on Him.

A theme she shared: “2017, keeping it coming, keeping it clean.” Her plays are entertainment and a message where many times the Holy Spirit moves.

The next production is called, "All things are possible" and is a series of one act plays that are family friendly. There is a 3 pm play, which is half price and a 7 pm performance. It has an evangelistic message with proactive moments. Located at Guadalupe Central Arts at 723 Brazos, SA 78207. Telephone is 210 338 2545.

Guest is Eric Materigan of Save22 for military vets. He uses John 15:13 as scripture. "Greater love has no man than this, that he lay down his life for his friends." The US dept. of veteran affairs statistics show that 20-22 vets commit suicide a day in this country. Eric served as a Marine from 99-03 and is partnered with John Brown, co-founder of Save 22. They help equip, mentor, and disciple vets as the enemy attacks and nurtures them with scripture. We have been at war for 15 years and they also include WW11 vets to the present day. Vietnam vets have been treated the worst and many are forgotten.

Save 22 helps them get help as needed with financial and psychiatric help. They help them to connect with counselors outside the VA and gets the community to help in a true Spiritual way. His church, Emmanuel Worship Center has meetings every Thursday at 7 pm. They help them have accountability and guides them. The church is a critical to have awareness and they are asking for Ambassadors to lead meetings. There are 100,000 vets in SA. He started Save 22 about 6 months ago with the Gospel and the Holy Spirit leading.

He gave a testimony of one who had tried suicide and ready to try again. He presented him with the choice to surrender to quilt and hopelessness or to choose Jesus who gives hope. He took one step at a time. In emergency call 911 or begin reading Psalm 91. Many people do not know what the vets are going through. Last Chance Ministries number is 210 227 4451.

Bridging the Gap – 28:00 Minutes – Saturday 7:30 p.m. 01/28/17

Host: Jimmy Robles of last Chance Ministries. BTG is inspired by faith, committed to action. They are a community coming together to bring a positive change to SA. Website is last-chance-ministries.org and telephone 210 227 4451. BTG helps ordinary people to reach out in and extraordinary way.

There are several guests today: Mark of Vision with a Purpose. Chitiqua from Redeemer Praise Church. Martha from Citywide prayer. Janet Lesse and Charlene Emerson from Club Lighthouse. They are here to “Make a Difference.” MAD”. They have hope for the nation.

April 26 at 12noon, Franklin Graham will be in Austin to pray on the Capital Steps. (1100 Congress Ave) Prayer is powerful.

Mark is from a 4 year old church at Novalitas and 1106 Malone. He had been a youth and worship leader and planned to join the Army as a musician but chose to be a soldier for God. He went to seminary and worked 13 years in SA before he started this ministry. He spoke last week about the “butts of a leader.” Moses had many.

BTG proclaims Jesus and He is our coach. Pastor Jimmy spoke of a word for the year, “Overflow”. When you turn a cup up right it is turned, away from selfishness, bad attitudes, turns evil to good, no jealousy or envy but we are still cracked cups. However God will mend them. He feels that the year is the year of Jubilee when the Lost is restored. Jesus is our Jubilee. He believes that this year will have a wealth transfer and many will find money not expected. God will open doors. There will be abundance, perfect health and a sweeter year. The year will bring the fall to the devil’s children.

Janet has experienced “Open doors.” She is an employee of Last Chance Ministries and has been in the welfare system and able to get out because the father of her child had an accident and when he got the money it went to her after 20 years of lack of child support. She now owns her home, is free of food stamps and works at the church. She had lived with her significant other and is married now. She thanks the last chance ministries for giving her the Word and the Love of God.

Charlene spoke briefly about the Christian Theater she is involved with, “Club Lighthouse”. It is used to evangelize through drama. Christ is the light in the darkness. There will be a free performance the day before Easter. Phone: 210 330 2545. Call for information.

Ministry Matters – 28:00 minutes – Saturday 1:00 p.m. & 8:30 p.m.
01/07/17

Host: Randy Garcia, Guest Cindy Hochart at cindyhochart.com. She is the writer of “Find your burning bush, discovering your unique purpose for your life”. It is a series of stories. She was very successful in the corporate world but very lost and felt she wasn’t doing God’s plan for her life. She talked about how stress can influence emotionally with depression and cause physical symptoms such as high BP, Cardiac disease and Diabetes.

She spoke of Desperation, not fulfilling jobs and feeling trapped with Inspiration, a passion for helping others, feeling the impact of doing it and productivity. God is in the middle of it all when we focus our gifts on helping others. Her book can be bought on her website.

Randy asked if she feels she can hear from God and she feels everyone does it in a different way.

Seven steps to know God's purpose for you: 1. Communication with God, 2. Attitude of Gratitude, 3. Feeling of purpose, 4. Practicing grace and forgiveness, 5. Develop and sustain strong relationships, 6. Controlling your thoughts, positive and negative, 7. Live a healthy, happy lifestyle.

Your plans influence your decisions and your decisions influence your plans. Tests for God's will: Advice of wise counsel, Will it compromise current commitments and is it consistent with what we believe God is and how we know Him?

Randy asked if God has a plan for everyone and she feels He does. She is writing a new book for the Corporate Work world. She closed with prayer.

Guest: Trish Moye, faith relations person for Habitat for Humanity in SA.

What is it? They partner with needy families to help them become home owners. They will be able to pay monthly about $550, if they qualify. This includes taxes and insurance. Median income to qualify is $28,000. Last year they built 55 houses in SA and are working for 50 this year. They have had 11,000 volunteers. The organization is in its 40th year and the first house was built in SA.

They work with volunteers, sponsors, congregations and people who pray for them, give offerings and sponsor a part of the house. Phone is 210 223 5203 ext. 148. Email: faithrelations@Habitat SA.org. H for His the general contractor. They work Tuesdays to Fridays under a house leader and are currently working on 10 houses in SA. The homeowners work beside them and learn all about taking care of their new home. They offer a "Hands up", not a handout! It is God's love in action. She encouraged people to pray and see if God wants them to be involved in this place of serving. There are 128,000 children in SA in need of affordable housing.

Charles Stanley spoke of Teen Challenge, Phone 210 624 2075 and website; tctexas.org. They also have a restored thrift store at 8306 Pat Booker Rd at 1604.

Next guest: Eric Madrigal of "Save 22". The Veteran's affair states there are 22 veterans committing suicide every day. He served from 1999 to 2003 and knows the big transition to being home. John Brown is co-founder with him. SA is called military city with 106,000 veterans and many amputees who have been treated and left by the wayside. While serving he made a covenant and God protected him to eventually start this ministry. He became a believer in 2005 after prayers of his mother for many years. Veterans aren't receptive to the Gospel at first but hear it better from another veteran_

Their primary spiritual need is Jesus. That is often not met, just physical needs. All military needs Jesus. You can help by awareness, donations and assistance. Primary sources are churches and they will train ambassadors to help them. Veterans have many positive qualities and need the Gospel.

He closed in prayer for the peace to cover each veteran in the days to come

While serving he made a covenant and God protected him to eventually start this ministry. He became a believer in 2005 after prayers of his mother for many years. Veterans aren't receptive to the Gospel at first but hear it better from another veteran_

Their primary spiritual need is Jesus. That is often not met, just physical needs. All military needs Jesus. You can help by awareness, donations and assistance. Primary sources are churches and they will train ambassadors to help them. Veterans have many positive qualities and need the Gospel.

He closed in prayer for the peace to cover each veteran in the days to come

Urban Missionaries – 26:00 Minutes – Sunday 2:30 p.m. 01/01/17

Host of Urban Missionaries is Berta Brannstrom.

Guest: Cindy Hochart, author, public speaker, life coach, project manager who holds a Master's degree. Her book is "Find your burning bush" Discover God's unique plan for your life.

Cindy grew up in a non-Christian home but did attend church and accepted the Lord at 10 years old but did not continue following Him. She has held a job in health care and was vice president of a large firm. Her neighbor invited her for 8 years to return to church, which she did and felt it was like going home.

Her Pastor spoke of God having a mission for her and she became distraught and her mission was unfulfilled. She was 55 years old and was blessed but empty. She was dis-satisfied and desperate and God intervened. She traveled by plane a lot and one day had suicidal thoughts. Then her healing began but she felt under qualified to write and was looking for a purpose.

Her book is a "field manual for the stressed out and lost." It can be bought at Amazon or at www.cindyhochart.com. Kindle edition is free. All her life she had wanted to be an author but not sure of what. The book contains stories of people whose lives were changed. Jack Campbell who wrote,

"Chicken soup for the Soul" states that all we need to see ahead is 200 feet and God will direct us.

She begins by suggesting that we "look at our natural gifts, pray more fervently and discover God's unique plan for your life. She researched the Scriptures and felt fully inspired with a plan to write the book. You must be intentional and think positive.

She lists 3 keys to rewire your brain to "positive". 1. Believe in God, 2. Approach life with gratitude and 3. A sense of mission. She suggests going to web site and doing a 30 day burning bush challenge. If we are grumpy people in desperation not inspired people who are upbeat and cheerful, no one wants to be around us. We each need a personal vision and a mission to reach others.

Her seven steps to a happy life are:

1. Communicating with God
2. An attitude of gratitude
3. Feeling of purpose
4. Practice forgiveness
5. Develop supportive relationships
6. Control your own thoughts
7. Live a healthy life style

Berta spoke of many who "need to discover their purpose" and Cindy says, "Be aware show God's love and compassion. He wants to use us all.

Berta closed in prayer.

Urban Missionaries – 26:00 Minutes – Sunday 2:30 p.m. 01/08/17

Host Berta Brannstrom, Guest, David Brown who with his wife Allie are involved in the International House of Prayer, 24/7 in San Antonio.

He heard about this in Kansas City where Mike Bickle spoke and began to "love the Lord with all of his heart and mind." He had been saved about 3 years. He heard another speaker who spoke of the heart of King David and his desire grew to know Jesus better and be involved in a friendship with him.

He wanted a day and night arena so that others could know God as he does for his sake and God's sake.

He spoke about us not seeking Him, only when in trouble. To do this is to focus on friendship with Him. They started 2 and a half years ago, sold their house and began with 2 hours of prayer and worship a week and now up to 80-100 hrs.

He revered "The Tabernacle of God" in several scriptures. David was the first high priest and not in the lineage of priesthood but the line of Judah as Christ is. He wanted to return the Ark of the Covenant but did it wrong and man died because of it. David wanted no barriers in the tabernacle. Jesus is our high priest in the order of Melchizedek.

All awakenings in the past began with a groaning for God and then an outpouring of the Holy Spirit.

How to reach IHOP. Meets at the Kings Mission Fellowship, 610 Morrison Blvd. Saturday: 5-8pm for service and prayer, Monday and Wednesday 9-4pm. Website: satabernacle.org.

Berta closed in prayer and David will return with more information next week.

Urban Missionaries – 26:00 Minutes – Sunday 2:30 p.m. 01/15/17

Host: Berta Brannstrom, Guest: David Brown of the International House of Prayer. It is part 2 of her interview with him.

She quoted Acts 15:16 where God says He will restore the tabernacle of David. This will include 24/7 time of worship, day and night. The movement began in Kansas City with Mike Bickle. David spoke of the verses in Revelation 4 about the prayer of the saints and worship draws the presence of God. It brings every nation, place, and tongue, both Jews and Gentiles for the purpose of evangelism. There is a passion to overcome the Islamic stronghold and pursuing God's kingdom.

David spoke of "Friendship with God". We are to love God with all our heart, soul and strength. The house of prayers gives inroads to the Gospel as they pray and brings the presence of god to SA through worship which began with the Disciples of Christ.

They presently are in "Kings Mission Fellowship" at 610 Mourasond Bld, 78221. They are looking for a place to hold at least 200 people. Asking for people to donate at 210 427 6753 or recommend a facility. Web site is: www.satabernacle.org.

Their focus is community and they want God to legislate with our city, done with love to bring Glory to God.

Classes are held on Mon and Wed and are taught by IHOP University. They include one hour class followed with instrumental time, class discussion and finish with a devotional and worship with the reading of the Word. These are held 9 am to 4 pm as well as prayer on Saturdays, 5-8 pm.

Berta recommended a book by her husband, "The secrets of King David revealed" which can be purchased at www.nisanantonio.com. David Brown finished with a story and the need for love, worship and unity for Christ.

Urban Missionaries – 26:00 Minutes – Sunday 2:30 p.m. 01/22/17

UM 1 22 17 Full Gospel Business Men's Fellowship.

Host: Berta Brannstrom, Guest: John Singletary. He is part of FGBMF SA where "men help men." He has been in the ministry since 1990.

Demas Shakarian founded the group in 1952. It is now in 126 nations and there are 8000 worldwide. He began noticing that there are not many men in church and began having meetings at a banquet or breakfast where believing men share their testimonies.

Last week's meeting the speaker was Charlie Duke, a on time atheist who became a Christian. He had worked as a beer distributor and quit that job. He met with the President of Honduras and other officials and many came to the Lord. Then his wife also became a believer in Jesus at one of the events. It is a neutral place for men to come. At the first meeting, Oral Roberts was speaker to about 20+ men. It progressed and grew to other states.

Five men went to China and they asked, "Why are you afraid of the Bible?" If it is only a book can we print 1 million copies for your people. Now they have printed one hundred million.

He spoke of a Supreme Court Justice in Austin who gave his testimony. Henry B. Gonzales, a congressmen attended there. Jesus draws them in! John's history, he worked at Trinity church and invited men and women to come to the Lord. They came and saw fruit. Then there became a chapter in Mexico. Demas' son Richard is now head and has followed his father's vision for the group.

They teach marriage seminars, finances, in universities and show God's love and blessing to the men they meet. They meet at the Holiday Inn Airport the first Saturday of the month at 9am. The meal is free but there is a love offering. Location: 77E. Luportin St. and reservations are suggested. Call for them and for information at 210 639 0526. They do not want this to be a "church" but to help people plug into a church. They have praise and worship at the meetings and often the women of the church lead them. Berta closed in prayer.

n

Host: Berta Branstrom, Guest: John Singletary, leader of "Full Gospel Business Men's Fellowship International." The group began in 1952 because so many men do not attend church. They meet for breakfast or dinners and testimonies of other business men are heard. There are 126 nations involving 8000 business men. It is the largest men's group meeting in the world. He stressed that the church is needed but this is a casual setting men may go to rather than church.

He spoke of growing up in political family. They even founded a school where Lyndon Johnson applied but didn't get hired! His roommate did.

You cannot be truly successful without the Lord. He was part of a construction business and told of how he was owed money and wasn't paid. He went to a friend after his check bounced. He was not able to give it to him but he went to another source. This was at 3 pm and he was 33 years old. Still no money. When he got home, his grandmother came into money at that time and gave him all he needed. "If God will do it for me, he will do it for you. God's love is always available." God gives us multiple chances also.

God is the God of relationships: in churches, work, marriages and families. He never fails. Love brings unity and He will give us the ability to forgive others as He forgives us.

The vision of the Fellowship is to be an arm of the church. Their slogan is "Fishers of Men". He feels that often churches need good businessmen involved. The meetings are the first Saturday of the month at the "Holiday Inn Airport". Meals are free and there is a love offering. Website: FGBMFI.org and his phone is 210 639 0526.

He told that his parents came to know the Lord at a meeting where he had spoken. Jesus wants to be your Lord. They also do seminars for businesses and work with college students with mentoring. There is also a Hispanic chapter. He encourages musicians to volunteer for meetings and is reaching out to the military. Berta closed in prayer.
