Issues/Program Lists for First Quarter of 2018

“Our Faith, Our Diocese” is a monthly hour-long program that follows a news magazine format. It includes interviews, coverage of events and ministries, previews of upcoming activities, catechesis on the faith, and other segments, including how the Catholic Church serves the community through programs that provide assistance to the needy; address social issues such as hunger, homelessness, poverty, addictions, immigration and refugee resettlement, and family challenges; educate and inform people of all ages and offer spiritual sustenance to the residents of northeastern and north central Pennsylvania. Each program debuts the second Sunday of every month at 8 p.m. and then typically airs another six times during that month at various times during the daytime and evening hours. It is also available for viewing on the Diocesan website.

#####

Catholic Television of the Diocese of Scranton also broadcasts the Daily Mass from St. Peter’s Cathedral in Scranton every weekday throughout the year at 12:10 p.m., with a few exceptions for holidays. CTV also broadcasts approximately 35 Pontifical Masses and ecumenical or interfaith services throughout the year, on Saturdays, Sundays, or weekday evenings.

CTV also broadcasts the 10 day Annual Solemn Novena in honor of Saint Ann every July 17 -26 from St. Ann’s Basilica Shrine in Scranton.

In the January 2018 edition of Our Faith...Our Diocese:

We'll look back on the rich history of those Catholic immigrants who came here in search of a better life and see how a new generation of immigrants continues to enrich the Church of Scranton.

As the Church of Scranton celebrates the 150th anniversary of its founding, we'll see how the Diocesan Office for Parish Life carries on a long tradition of doing all it can to nurture vibrant faith communities throughout the Diocese.

As we prepare to celebrate the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, we'll take a closer look at ongoing efforts to promote understanding and cooperation among Christians right here in Northeastern Pennsylvania.

We'll show you how Catholic Schools here in the Diocese of Scranton will once again be taking part in the annual celebration of Catholic Schools Week.

And we'll see how Catholic teens from around the Diocese will soon be gathering at Camp Ladore in Waymart to take part in ISLI, the International Student Leadership Institute.

In the February 2018 edition of Our Faith...Our Diocese:
 Teaching the Catholic faith to our young has been a vital mission of the Church of Scranton since its founding back in 1868. In our opening segment today, we'll see how this tradition of academic excellence rooted in faith continues to this very day. We'll share with you highlights from the Ecumenical Celebration of God's Word that was recently celebrated at the Cathedral of St. Peter.
 We'll look at some of the many programs that Catholic Social Services provides for the homeless in our Diocese.
 We'll see how the Diocesan Vocation Office is helping young Catholics discern God's call in their lives.
 And Fr. Robert Simon, pastor of St. Catherine of Siena Parish in Moscow, reflects on the great opportunity this Lenten season affords us to renew our baptismal vows.

In the March 2018 edition of Our Faith...Our Diocese:

We'll share with you highlights of the Pontifical Mass marking the actual Anniversary Sunday of the founding of the Diocese of Scranton.

We'll look back on the significant growth the Diocese of Scranton has witnessed in our on-going efforts to promote ecumenical and interfaith dialogue since the Second Vatican Council.

In our conversation with Monsignor Vincent J. Grimalia, Coordinator for Ecumenical and Interfaith Relations and the Rev. Dr. Robert M. Zanicky, Pastor of First Presbyterian Church, Wilkes-Barre, we'll see how local leaders of various Christian faith traditions have come to a point where we now focus more on what we share in our common, as opposed to what divides us.

WVIA producer, Kristen Doran gives us a sneak preview of the documentary that will debut on WVIA later this month on the history the Diocese of Scranton.

And as he reflects on our upcoming celebration of Easter, Fr. Greg Reichlen, pastor of St. John's parish in East Stroudsburg, asks the question "Are we keeping Christ alive in our lives?"

In the April 2018 edition of Our Faith...Our Diocese:

We'll see how the role of the laity has evolved over the last century and a half and how faithful across the Diocese continue to answer God's call to serve the Church and its people.

We'll talk with some of the men who attended last year's Catholic Men's Conference at King's College and learn why they're looking forward to attending this year's conference.

As the Diocese continues to celebrate its 150th Anniversary, one of our Diocesan agencies is observing a significant anniversary of its own. We'll see how the Catholic Youth Center here in Wilkes-Barre has been making a difference in the lives of thousands of area children for the last 70 years.

And we'll share with you highlights from this year's Holy Week services that were celebrated at the Cathedral of St. Peter.

In the June 2018 edition of Our Faith/Our Diocese:

Since its founding 150 years ago, the Church of Scranton has witnessed many changes, but one thing that hasn't changed is the Diocese's commitment to providing young men and women with a quality education rooted in our Catholic faith. In our opening segment, we'll see our Catholic colleges and universities continue their mission of developing minds and hearts.

As the Diocese continues to celebrate the 150th anniversary of its founding, Bishop Bambera is celebrating Masses in each of the four regional Catholic schools systems. We'll share with you highlights of the Mass for the Holy Cross Regional System which was celebrated on May 14th at the Cathedral of St. Peter.

We'll also share with you highlights of the Mass Bishop Bambera celebrated on Pentecost Sunday at the Cathedral when he administered the sacrament of Confirmation for several young people and adults from around the Diocese

On Sunday, June 9th, Bishop Bambera ordained Edward Casey and Ryan Glenn to the priesthood here at the Cathedral of St. Peter. In today’s program, we’ll look back on the ordination as Fr. Casey and Fr. Glenn embark on their new ministry of service to the Church of Scranton and its people.

We’ll also see how the Quo Vadis Days summer camp is helping young men from around our Diocese deepen their faith, learn more about all vocations and better discern God's call in their lives.

Several hundred Catholic teens from around the Diocese will be coming together here at Misericordia University in Dallas on June 27th to participate in the 12th annual Light the Fire Summer Youth Rally. We'll learn how the Light the Fire Youth Rally affords participants an opportunity to enjoy a day of prayer, music, fun and fellowship with other young people who share a common love for their Catholic faith.

From July 9th – 12th, Catholic teens from around the Diocese will be gathering at Misericordia University in Dallas to take part in ISLI, the International Student Leadership Institute. In our closing segment, we’ll see how ISLI continues to empower young Christians to take on leadership roles in their Church and society.
