Broken Arrow School Uses New Shelter for First Time

Date: 10/09/18 5pm

Duration: 2:00

Justin Ayer

A tornado warning this afternoon prompted the kids at Timber Ridge Elementary School to use their brand-new shelter for the first time. The shelter doubles as the school gym and has the highest level of protection on FEMA's rating scale. Charlie Hannema, BAPS public relations officer said that before today, the shelter had only been used for drills. The shelter is able to house the entire student body and staff, which is upwards of 600 people. The room has reinforced walls and ceilings with concrete at the top and can provide near absolute protection from even an EF-5 tornado.

Flood Control! Officers Gear Up for Wet Weekend

Date: 10/12/18 9pm

Duration: 2:00

Rick Maranon

The Army Corps of Engineers are keeping an extra eye on area dams this weekend ahead of the expected rainfall. Travis Miller, the Keystone lake managers says some corps members will work overtime to combat all the rain that's fallen in other parts of the state now draining into the Cimarron and Arkansas river, along with the remnants of Hurricane Sergio. He says they have doubled the amount of water they're releasing in an effort to keep the lake from flooding. There is currently no flood risk along the Arkansas River, but since Keystone Dam is a popular fishing spot, officials are warning it will be dangerous and likely flooded.

McAlester Storm Response Team Heads to Florida

A local PSO team went to Florida to help restore power after Hurricane Michael. The McAlester Storm Response Team are working around the clock with Gulf Power Company to get power back on to people in the Callaway, Florida area and the surrounding communities.

Tulsa Homeless Shelters Brace for Cold

Date: 11/09/18 5pm

Duration: 2:00

Rick Maranon

The Center of Hope in downtown Tulsa is the area's largest homeless shelter and the staff are on notice for the coming cold temperatures. They are ready for anyone needing their help to get out of the cold. Major Mark Harwell with the Salvation Army, who runs the shelter, says while the non-profit's famous red kettle campaign is just now beginning, it's last year's donations that are keeping the shelter's lights and heaters on while providing hot meals. EMSA is warning everyone that it is possible to get frostbite in Tulsa or at least suffer from cold exposure this weekend even if you have a home or a coat. The Salvation Army is also taking donations for used coats to pass along to someone that needs it.

Snow Causes School to Lose Power

Date: 11/12/18 5pm

Duration: 2:00

Amber Hughes

While the area snowfall didn't impact many students today, one preschool did end up having to close because the power was knocked out. The University Methodist Preschool says that not only did the wintry mix make the drive to school difficult, it also knocked out the building's electricity. Within 15 minutes of school starting, messages cancelling school were sent to parents. The church also placed a sign on the door. Staff say the power flickered on and off for hours and wasn't fully restored until the afternoon.

City Prepares for Wintry Weather

Date: 11/26/18 6pm

Duration: 2:00

Rick Maranon

Tulsa Mayor G.T. Bynum, Tulsa Area Emergency Management, the National Weather Service, and PSO joined up Monday to ask residents to prepare for the winter season ahead. The city says it will focus on main streets before addressing residential areas for emergency crews. Stan Whiteford with PSO said ice storms are more likely to knock your power out than snow. PSO are warning residents not to run generators into their homes and that a professional needs to install any new generators that will be used to restore power to your home so line workers aren't electrocuted when trying to restore power.

Cherokee County Takes Direct Hit from Tornado

Date: 12/02/18 9pm

Duration: 2:00

Justin Ayer

Residents in the small community of Welling are dealing with tornado damage tonight after a rare December tornado ripped through Cherokee county. The National Weather Service rated the tornado at EF-2. Cherokee Nation Emergency Officials were out tarping torn roofs, while residents picked up scattered debris in lawns and torn trees. One resident said the tornado was a reminder to not take warnings lightly, even in December. That system also spawned 2 tornadoes right across the state line in Arkansas.

Rare December Tornado Causes Damage

Date: 12/03/18 5pm

Duration: 2:00

Paris Holmes

A rare EF-2 tornado tore through Cookson on Friday, causing damage to homes and neighborhoods. Resident Brandy Hicks said the tornado ripped the shingles off the roof and the entire roof of her covered porch. The area around Tenkiller Air Park also saw its share of damage as the tornado damaged some of the hangers where people stored their boats and planes. County workers have been making their rounds, trying to clear debris and get neighborhoods back to normal. The storm system ended up producing 38 tornadoes across 4 states according to preliminary reports.

Tailholt Plans Tornado Recovery Benefit

Date: 12/21/18 9pm

Duration: :20

Clay Loney

The community of Tailholt in Cherokee county has planned an event next month that will help victims of the recent EF-2 tornado. An Indian Taco and silent auction is scheduled for January 26th at the Caney Community Center. All proceeds will go toward helping those that still need assistance with recovery from the damage.

Tulsa Police Arrest Man in 39th Homicide of the Year

Date 10/03/18 5pm

Duration: 2:00

Preston Jones

Tulsa Police have arrested 27 year old Jessdun Markham in the death of 26 year old Dequelon Penn at the Sunset Plaza apartments. Officers say shortly after midnight, Penn's girlfriend called 911 saying her ex-boyfriend, Markham, had shot and killed Penn. When they arrived on the scene, officers found Penn dead in a doorway and Penn was gone. Two women who live in the same building as Penn said they heard gunshots. Police said Markham fled about 2 miles away to the YMCA, where they caught him on the roof. TPD said he confessed to shooting and killing Penn but never gave a motive.

Sand Springs PD Looks for Chase Suspects

Date: 10/24/18 5pm

Duration: 2:00

Cailey Dougherty

Officers in Sand Springs are searching tonight for two people they say lead them on a chase on a stolen motorcycle. Police say the whole thing started in Tulsa at 31st and Memorial after officers spotted a stolen bike with a man driving a woman passenger. TPD followed them onto highway 64 towards Sand Springs, where SSPD was set up. Officers tried to stop the motorcycle when it passed them, but that's when the chase picked up with speeds up to 70 MPH. Police lost the suspects once they got into a rural area west of town but an officer found the bike outside the same home where he had previously recovered a different stolen motorcycle last Saturday. As officials were searching the area for the suspects with K9s and a chopper, they found a third stolen motorcycle as well. Osage County officials say they don't have enough probable cause to obtain a search warrant on the home but they would keep a close eye on it.

Body Discovery Leads to Arrest

Date: 10/26/18 5pm

Duration: :20

Clay Loney

The discovery of a man's body along a county road north of Pawhuska has led to three arrests. According to investigators, Maurice Kent, Daniel Keene, and Toby Bighorse got into an argument on the first of October with John Adkins. The suspects reportedly told authorities they made Adkins get out of the car, and a physical altercation ensued. The suspects claim they left in the vehicle after the fight and left Adkins standing in the road. But investigators eventually found Adkins' body near the area where the suspects say they left him. Investigators believe he was killed during an attempted robbery. All three suspects are charged with second degree murder.

Family Mourns Murdered Daughter

Date: 11/05/18 9pm

Duration: 2:00

Naomi Keitt

Tulsa Police say Lauren Kidd was reported missing last Tuesday. By Friday, her ex-boyfriend Konner Brunner was behind bars, accused of shooting and killing her in an apartment complex parking lot.

Detectives say Lauren was last seen with him on October 27th. Brunner admitted to shooting and killing her, and dumping her body in a recycling bin. Her body has yet to be located.

Woman Caught with Meth

Date: 11/13/18 9pm

Duration: 2:00

Cailey Dougherty

A Tulsa woman is behind bars tonight after police say they caught her with meth while she was trying to use phony money at a north Tulsa convenience store. Officers arrested Elli Jencks last night at the S&K Food Mart near Pine and Sheridan. Jencks tried to use a counterfeit $20 when making a purchase at the food mart. The cashier said he could tell the money was fake and called police. When officers arrived, they found another counterfeit bill in her purse that had the exact same serial number as the other fake bill she tried to pass off. Officers found meth inside a box of Altoid mints in her purse as well.

Burn Victim Is Released From Hospital

Date: 11/28/18 9pm

Duration: 2:00

Jackie Delpilar

Fire Captain Jerry Brown says a woman who was burned after a disturbing crime on Thanksgiving is finally home and recovering. Brown said Alfred Ricketts doused his girlfriend in lighter fluid, then set her on fire outside of her home during an argument. The suspect then ran off and investigators have spent the past 5 days trying to find him. Ricketts was arrested Wednesday morning for first degree arson and endangering human life. Firefighters say the victim suffered second and third degree burns to her hands and upper body. If convicted, Ricketts would face up to 35 years in prison.

Single Traffic Stop Leads to Six Arrests

Date: 12/14/18 9pm

Duration: 2:00

Jackie Delpilar

Six men are in the Tulsa County jail tonight after what started as a simple traffic stop in north Tulsa. Police say they pulled over an SUV near 36th St N and Garrison when they smelled the strong odor of marijuana coming from inside. The six men got out and police searched the car. Officers say they found a bag of marijuana, a digital scale, and two guns, one of which was stolen. The six men were questioned but none of them owned up to the stolen gun or the bag of pot. All six men are now facing a charge for knowingly concealing stolen property and marijuana possession. 3 of the men are facing even more charges, suspected of drug dealing and transporting a loaded gun.

Pizza Delivery Driver Carjacked

Date: 12/21/18 9pm

Duration: 2:00

Paris Holmes

The Wagoner County Sheriff's office said a Domino's Pizza delivery driver was robbed at gunpoint by 3 juveniles. It happened east of 32nd Street South in Broken Arrow. Deputies say they kids even took his car. The Sheriff's office said after they got the call, they coordinated with Tulsa Police, who tracked the vehicle and after a short chase caught the thieves in the 61st and Peoria area of Tulsa. Wagoner sheriffs said one of the suspects was later identified by the victim, and that they all three could be connected to other crimes in Tulsa.

Police Investigate Christmas Eve Pawn Shop Burglary

Date: 12/25/18 5pm

Duration 2:00

Amber Hughes

Tulsa Police are investigating who is responsible for breaking in and stealing weapons from a midtown Tulsa pawn shop. Officers say the burglary is unusual because the suspects came in from the roof, instead of the normal front or back door. The thieves rappelled through a hole in the roof and left with at least 10 AR-15 rifles. TPD have worked for hours collecting evidence, dusting for prints, and looking for DNA. They say it isn't clear but they think more than one person was part of the operation. Investigators say there wasn't any video of the burglary so they are looking for the public's help.

Broken Arrow Offers Shelter Rebate

Date: 10/4/19 9pm

Duration: :20

Shae Rozzi

The city of Broken Arrow is offering a storm shelter rebate program for people who are looking to put in a shelter before storm season. Officials say you have to own the property, live in city limits, and are not on a flood plain to qualify. To register for the rebate, you must attend one of two meetings at Central on Main. OTT says the rebate is to encourage citizens to install a safe room in their house.

Bartlesville Expands Mission Center

Date: 10/15/18 5pm

Duration: 2:00

Preston Jones

The Agape Mission of Bartlesville is open and ready to serve meals in a brand new building today. The 9700 square foot, 1.6 million dollar building is triple the size of the old facility. The new cafeteria can seat close to 100 people, more than double the size of the old one. Director Sherri Smith says the expansion is all to help those in need. The mission already serves about 60,000 meals a year, including the Food for Kids program but with the holidays coming, they expect the need to grow and that they're finally prepared to meet that need.

Tulsa Homeowners Petition Gathering Place Parking

Date: 10/22/18 9pm

Duration: 2:00

Paris Holmes

Homeowners in the Maple Ridge neighborhood are dealing with headaches that are coming with the massive influx of people to their area for the Gathering Place. Roberta Clark lives right beside the Gathering Place and said that although she loves the park, a few things need to change. Visitors are parking on both sides of the neighborhood street, sometimes illegally. The temporary parking lot also gets muddy when it rains, which forces the park to close it and guests seek parking in the neighborhoods. Clark started a petition hoping Gathering Place officials will tackle the parking issues. Tony Moore, executive director for the park says they are aware of the issues and are working with Tulsa Police to find a solution. They are also encouraging guests to take advantage of the two satellite lots and the free shuttle.

Historic Bridge Moves from Sperry to Skiatook

Date: 11/07/18 9pm

Duration: 2:00

Cailey Dougherty

A historic bridge from 1940s has been a landmark north of Sperry over Hominy Creek for decades, until the Oklahoma Department of Transportation decided to demolish it during a road project, unless someone else stepped in. The owners of OK Tank Trucks thought the bridge was worth saving, so three years later they hauled the 40-foot-tall bridge to Skiatook, moving electric and cable lines along the way. They are now working to open a park and monument site for people to visit the historic bridge. The business owners are taking donations for the bridge project to help with the large task of replacing all the flooring and repainting the bridge to its original color.

Tulsa Police Implement New Report System

Date: 11/20/18 5pm

Duration: 2:00

Sara Hart

The Tulsa Police Department has picked a vendor and are well on their way to implementing a brand-new records system. Right now, officers have to use multiple databases to work a single case. Major Matt Kirkland says the new system will put all the information into one database, making the department more efficient and more accurate. They will be able to track crime trends more easily, possibly helping to catch serial criminals more quickly as well. It's a long process, and TPD expects that it won't be fully implemented until the year 2021. Another benefit is that the crime tracker on the TPD website will be updated in real time, and the experience in city courts for things like traffic tickets will become more user friendly.

Tulsa Buys New Police Chopper

Date: 11/28/18 9pm

Duration: :20

Shae Rozzi

The City of Tulsa is set to buy a new police helicopter. The city says the department's older chopper needs to be replaced. The chopper they're looking to replace is 11 years old and has seen a lot of use. The city will remove gear in the current chopper like the infrared cameras and repurpose it in the new one. They also hope to get some trade-in value on their old helicopter when buying the new one.

Fire Department Gains New Cadets

Date: 12/14/18 9pm

Duration: :20

Clay Loney

The Tulsa Fire Department held a graduation today for 15 new cadets. The graduation took place this afternoon at Tulsa Community College's north campus. The graduating class consisted of 14 men and one woman. This was the first class that was able to receive college credit through TCC while doing their firefighter training.

Muskogee Plans New Grocery Store, Shopping Center

Date: 12/18/18 9pm

Duration: 2:00

Paris Holmes

The City of Muskogee has big plans in the works for a shopping center they are calling "Bacone Commons". Businessman Bill Johnson has been working to purchase the building that was home to Bacone College's library since June. The site will be home to a new, modern grocery store. Johnson has owned grocery stores throughout the years and knew the building was the perfect place for another one. Johnson hopes to also open a discount store for other non-food items in the future. It is all part of his plan to provide goods at reasonable prices to help lower income families keep more dollars in their pockets. With his non-profit Genesis 12:2, he hopes to take the store's profits and help families get better housing to climb out of poverty overall. By purchasing the old library building, Johnson is also helping Bacone College stay open after serious financial difficulties.

Popular Claremore Restaurant to Close

Date: 12/21/18 9pm

Duration: 2:00

Paris Holmes

A popular Claremore restaurant will close its doors after 45 years in business. Gripado's Donuts and Deli has employed hundreds of local residents over the years and customers are sad to see it go. The restaurant is known throughout Claremore for their sandwiches and donuts that were so good they were usually sold out before noon. Owner Carlos Gripado says closing after so long is hard, but he's been dealing with health problems that prevent him from working. Gripado says he looked for a buyer but didn't find anyone interest.

Tulsa School Celebrates Renovations

Date: 10/09/18 9pm

Duration: :20

Shae Rozzi

Community members held a ribbon cutting today to celebrate the renovations being done at Emerson Elementary. The ceremony took place near East Jasper and MLK boulevard in downtown Tulsa. The event marks the completion of the school remodel and classroom additions. Officials say the project was part of a $415 million-dollar bond that was passed by Tulsa voters in 2015. Ellen Decker, project manager for the Tulsa Public Schools bond office said the improvements were a great community effort and include six new classrooms and a new auditorium.

Tulsa Public Schools Participate in School Safety Week

Date: 10/23/18 5pm

Duration: 2:00

Jenny Young

City Year Tulsa and Tulsa Public Schools campus police officers are teaming up to spend the week going from campus to campus greeting students as they show up for class. It's a way of recognizing National School Safety Week, officials say. Yesterday kicked off America's Safe Schools Week. It's a national movement to motivate law enforcement and policy makers, students, parents, and people in the community to advocate for school safety. City Year volunteers and campus police plan to visit several schools around Tulsa this week.

OSU Medical School Plans to Expand to Tahlequah

Date: 10/31/18 5pm

Duration: 2:00

Amber Hughes

The Oklahoma State University's medical school plans to expand to Tahlequah in a partnership with the Cherokee Nation in response to a critical need. In less than two years, the Hastings Hospital in Tahlequah will be transformed into a teaching hospital, becoming the first tribal affiliated medical school in the nation. Classes will start in 2020. The first medical school class will accept up to 50 students and house 200 doctors in training once fully operational.

Tulsa Police Hold Youth Forum

Date: 11/09/18 5pm

Duration: 2:00

Mallory Thomas

The Tulsa Police department held their tenth annual Mayor's Police and Community Coalition with many Tulsa area high schoolers tonight. The TPS Chief of Police, Matthias Whicks, says students have the opportunity to speak with officers one on one. Students learn about police stops, how to act if stopped by an officer, and give feedback to TPD about ways to keep their schools safe. It's also a learning opportunity for the officers. While only a handful of students from each high school attended, they are hopeful officers are able to visit TPS high schools to get more students involved.

Muskogee Schools Awarded Grant

Date: 11/13/18 9pm

Duration: 2:00

Paris Holmes

The Muskogee School District has been awarded a 1.16-million-dollar grant from T-Mobile to tear down a barrier between students and success due to a lack of internet access. Dr Jarod Mendenhall, superintendent of Muskogee Public Schools says that while all students have been issued Chromebooks, many are not able to use them at home because they don't have internet access. The money will go toward purchasing hotspots for each student as well as provide free high-speed wireless access to 5800 MPS students. Mendenhall believes this is a way to even the playing field and provide opportunity some of their students wouldn't otherwise have. MPS says all secondary students will get their hotspots before winter break, and the rest of the students will get theirs before spring break.

Sand Springs School Evacuated

Date: 11/26/18 5pm

Duration: 2:00

Justin Ayer

Sand Springs' Clyde Boyd Middle School was evacuated today due to what fire officials believe was a heater malfunction. Deputy chief Justin Hall said crews arrived at the school around 2:30pm this afternoon with ONG. Crews went into the school with carbon monoxide monitors and the alerts were high. The school does not have CO monitors as they are not a requirement, only recommended. The superintendent says the students started feeling sick around lunchtime and were evacuated. The 6th graders are able to return to class as they are in a second building, but the seventh and eighth graders had to stay in the gym where the CO levels were clear. Some parents chose to pick up their kids, but all students were safe.

Anderson Students Receive Annual Free Book

Date: 12/18/18 5pm

Duration: :20

Shae Rozzi

The students at Anderson Elementary School received a free book to take home today as part of a program to build stronger readers in Tulsa. The Tulsa chapter of the Association of Women in Communication helped make it happen. Since the program started, they've provided books to more than 2,000 students. It's a day teachers and employees say they look forward to every year. Over 300 books were given out today.

Sand Springs Schools Receives Donation

Date: 12/18/18 9pm

Duration: :20

Shae Rozzi

Local car dealership Bill Knight Lincoln presented a check for $8,000 to the Sand Springs Education Foundation today. The money is from the "Driven to Give" fundraiser that was held in October. People were invited to test drive cars and each person behind the wheel helped raise money. The money will go directly into funding grants for teachers. The dealership has raised a total of $45,000 in the six years of donating.

Local Convenience Store Company Surprises Tulsa Elementary

Date: 12/21/18 5pm

Duration: :20

A local Fiesta Mart convenience store presented William Penn Elementary in North Tulsa with a big fat check today. Through the sale of their "Supporting Our Schools" cups and customer donations, they were able to donate over $3,200 to the school. The company said thanks to its customers, they've been able to raise more than $10,000 for Tulsa area schools.

Health Department Tests Emergency Response

Date: 10/22/18 5pm

Duration: :20

Sara Hart

The Tulsa Health Department plans to test its plans for public health emergencies. It involves the rapid distribution of medicine and medical supplies. They are setting up a pop-up clinic Wednesday to simulate an emergency situation. They will also give free flu shots to kick off their "Don't Bug Me" campaign.

Health Department Hosts Pop-up Flu Clinic

Date: 10/24/18 5pm

Duration: 2:00

Mallory Thomas

The Tulsa County Health Department hosted a pop-up flu shot clinic today. After last year's flu season, Leanne Stephens with THD says they wanted to make sure everyone had a chance to get the vaccine this year. The clinic was held at the Oklahoma State University Tulsa campus downtown, and officials said they brought around 1,000 vaccines with them. Even though flu season has just started, the department said Oklahoma has already seen hospitalizations. Last year the department gave out over 10,000 flu shots.

Jordan Blake started Reckless Saints of Nowhere in Pryor after seeing a need to provide people a place to live and a job after treatment for opioid addiction. Blake says thirty-day programs are successful less than 4% of the time, but 12-month treatment programs have an 80% success rate. Right now, there are two people in recovery living at the home, but there's space for four more. Kyle Vaughn, a former addict and current employee says they would like to open more houses to help more people. The nonprofit has also helped pay for the treatment of more than 1,000 people.

Lawmakers and Schools Work To Introduce Vaping Bill

Date: 12/19/18 5pm

Duration: 2:00

Michelle Linn

Most schools have a ban on e-cigarettes, but Senator JJ Dossett wants to make it even harder for kids to bring them onto campus. Senator Dossett wants to expand the state's anti-tobacco law to ban them at school as well. Three years ago the senator was a teacher at Owasso and said e-cigarettes were just starting to pop up. Now studies show that last year, close to half of all Oklahoma students reported they had at least tried vaping. State law already bans all tobacco products at schools. If lawmakers pass Dossett's bill and e-cigarettes are included, staff members will have to go off campus to vape. If they are caught using the products at school, they will be subjected to a fine.
