Veterans throughout the state and the general public are invited to attend the New Hampshire Veterans Home's (NHVH) Vietnam War Veterans Day ceremony on Friday, March 29th at 11:00 a.m. at 139 Winter Street in Tilton, NH. This special observance commemorates the hardships suffered and sacrifices made by three million Americans during the Vietnam War as well as their families who supported them. Nancy Warner and Terry Farish, keynote speakers, will represent the 625 Red Cross Sisters who served in Vietnam as 'Donut Dollies'. Their address will explain their mission and honor their Brothers who served in the military as well as their Sisters who served alongside them with the Red Cross. The ceremony will take place in the Home's 'Town Hall' great room, accessible via entrance at the corner of Winter Street and Colby Road in Tilton. Additional speakers will also honor those who served to provide the 'Welcome Home' soldiers did not receive when returning from deployment overseas. The Vietnam Veterans of America Chapter 41 and Service Credit Union are providing sponsorship for the event. For more information, call (603) 527-4400 or visit www.nh.gov/veterans, www.facebook.com/nhveteranshome.
