

YES FM RADIO NETWORK (WYSM, WYSZ, WYSA)
 QUARTERLY ISSUES/PROGRAM LISTING
 JANUARY 1, 2024 - MARCH 31, 2024

The following is a listing of some of the significant issues responded to by the YES FM Radio Network, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the First Quarter of 2024. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect any priority or significance.

Description of Issue	Program/Segment	Date	Time	Duration	Narration of Type and Description of Program/Segment
Parents/Education	Positive Chats Podcast	1/12/24	9:30am	30 minutes	Our guest was Sheri Few, founder and president of the organization, U.S. Parents Involved in Education. She discussed a recent story of the swearing in of a new school board president in Pennsylvania, who was sworn in by placing her hand on a stack of sexually explicit books rather than the Bible. She discussed radical behaviors we are seeing more of in our school systems. She discussed the direction that our education system is heading towards. She discussed the importance of parents being involved and informed about what is going on in our school systems to stop sexually explicit books in schools.
Winter Weather Safety	The Wake Up Call Morning Show	1/17/23	8:00am	20 minutes	Our guest was Sandy Mackey, public affairs chief for the Ohio Emergency Management Agency. She discussed how to prepare your family, home, and car to be ready for winter weather. She discussed items to keep in an emergency kit in case you have to leave your house quickly. She shared how to winterize your house and your vehicles. She discussed ways to be ready for any type of winter weather.

School Choice Week	The Wake Up Call Morning Show	1/18/24	8:00am	20 minutes	Our guest was Beth Lawson, Director of Media/Communications for School Choice Ohio. She discussed National School Choice Week, which will bring awareness to the many excellent educational opportunities for every child. She discussed that there will be a special School Choice Fair in our area to celebrate all the education options for families and students in Northwest Ohio. She discussed various options for education.
National Sanctity of Life Day	The Wake Up Call Morning Show	1/19/24	8:00am	20 minutes	Our guest was Ed Sitter from Foundation for Life. He shared how National Sanctity of Life Day was started by presidents that opposed abortion after the Roe vs Wade case. He discussed the importance of celebrating life and promoting pro-life on the National Sanctity of Life Day.
Northwest Ohio Classical Academy Expansion	The Wake Up Call Morning Show	1/25/24	8:15am	20 minutes	Our guest was Scott Henry, headmaster at Northwest Ohio Classical Academy. He shared that they are celebrating the completion of their 15,000 square foot expansion with a ribbon cutting ceremony. He discussed that the expansion was necessary after the school has seen tremendous growth in enrollment. He discussed the classical education path that the school uses to create a unique educational experience for their students.
American Red Cross	The Wake Up Call Morning Show	2/1/24	7:00am	20 minutes	Our guest was Jim McIntyre from the American Red Cross. He shared that there is an emergency blood shortage. He discussed the importance of donating blood throughout the year to prevent blood shortages. He discussed the American Red Cross App and website that make donating blood easier than ever. He also discussed safety tips that can be found on the App.

Sporting Event	The Wake Up Call Morning Show	2/9/24	8:30am	20 minutes	Our guest was Katie Evers from Knight Eady, a sports marketing and event operation group that believes in creating unique experiences that motivate and inspire individuals to reach beyond their potential and develop loyalty and passion for their sport. She discussed the upcoming Elevate the Stage youth and college gymnastics meet in the area. She shared what makes their sporting events unique by giving young women and girls the chance to compete at the highest level of gymnastics.
Youth Mentoring	The Wake Up Call Morning Show	3/13/24	8:30am	20 minutes	Our guest was Noah Hagedorn, program director for the Toledo Mountain Mentors, a local non-profit working with at-risk youth in our area. He discussed the impact of one-on-one mentoring in the lives of youth. He discussed the physical, emotional, and spiritual needs that youth have. He shared how Toledo Mountain Mentors was started and how they will be celebrating their 40th anniversary.
Pregnancy Center	The Wake Up Call Morning Show	3/19/23	7:00am	20 minutes	Our guest was Becky Vasher from the Bowling Green Pregnancy Center. She discussed the services provided by the Bowling Green Pregnancy Center to individuals and families to empower them to choose life and make healthy, life-affirming decisions. She shared details of their upcoming fundraising banquet with speaker, Kirk Walden, who has more than 30 years of experience serving the pregnancy help community. She discussed helping individuals and families with love, serving them, and equipping them with resources.

The RIDGE Project	Positive Chats Podcast	3/22/24	9:30am	30 minutes	Our guests were Ron and Catherine Tijerina, founders of The RIDGE Project. They shared how they started The RIDGE through their personal story of recognizing the need for family support during incarceration. They discussed the need to break generational cycles of incarceration in families and communities. They discussed the programs and case management that The RIDGE Project provides to transform families and communities. They discussed families they have helped over the years create new legacies for themselves and their families by strengthening them and helping them be hireable.
-------------------	------------------------	---------	--------	------------	---