The closures will occur once the school year ends this month.
TEXAS BAN ON SANCTUARY CITIES SIGNS BILL (SB4)	NOTICIERO UNIVISION EDICION DIGITAL	5/8/17	12:03	0:26	Texas Gov. Greg Abbott signed a bill that would ban sanctuary cities, this bill establishes criminal and civil penalties for local government entities and law enforcement that don't comply with immigration laws and detention requests. The new measure would fine government entities up to $25,500 for each day the law is violated. It would also result in a misdemeanor charge for sheriffs and police chiefs who fail to comply with detention requests and in removal from office.
MORE IMMIGRANTS MIGHT DIE IN DETENTION CENTERS	NOTICIERO UNIVISION EDICION DIGITAL	5/8/17	12:04	1:30	Human Rights Watch fears more immigrants could die in detention centers under the Trump administration. The organization's investigation shows that 18 out of 21 deaths occurred between 2012-2015 during the Obama administration. The fear has grown because, according to them, the medical attention and its staff isn't the best.

BAN ON ELECTRONIC DEVICES	NOTICIERO UNIVISION EDICION DIGITAL	5/9/17	12:05	0:20	The U.S. is considering expanding a ban on most carry-on electronic devices larger than a cellphone on U.S.-bound flights from 10 airports in the Middle East and North Africa, and now it could include flights departing for the U.S. from Europe and possibly the United Kingdom. Government officials have been meeting with U.S. airlines on a nearly weekly basis and have said a decision could come in the next few weeks.
ICE TO FOCUS ON FRAUDELENTE MARRIAGES	NOTICIERO UNIVISION EDICION DIGITAL	5/9/17	12:06	0:35	ICE strengthens program to combat fraudulent marriages, this is the quickest and easiest way to get a green card. Approximately 1 of every 4 residence cards are achieved in this way. It is for this reason that fraud is so common. American citizens could get fined and even serve jail time if authorities discover fraud. According to the US Citizenship and Immigration Service (USCIS) in a fiscal year, approximately 250,000 green card petitions are filed for marriages. Of those, approximately 7,000 cases are discovered to be fraudulent.
SMALL TOWN SUES THE STATE OF TEXAS DUE TO THE SB4 BILL	NOTICIERO UNIVISION EDICION DIGITAL	5/10/17	12:02	2:00	The small border town of El Cenizo has become the first city in Texas to challenge the state's recently minted sanctuary cities ban. The city, its mayor, the Maverick county sheriff and constable joined the League of United Latin American Citizens in filing a lawsuit late Monday in a district court in San Antonio to block the state from implementing the law signed by Gov. Greg Abbott.
DETENTION CENTER FOR MINORS (SB 1018)	NOTICIERO UNIVISION EDICION DIGITAL	5/11/17	12:12	1:30	The Texas Senate passed a bill that would license immigrant family detention centers, which critics call "baby jails," as child care facilities. SB 1018 provides the Department of Family and Protective Services with broad authority to waive any minimum standards it deems necessary in order to license the facilities. The centers are used by the federal government to hold mothers and children seeking asylum. Due to federal court rulings, family detention centers can currently only hold children for a few weeks at a time, but the bill would allow the facilities to detain mothers and children for the duration of their asylum cases.

COLLECTION OF UNEMPLOYMENT BENEFITS DROP	NOTICIERO UNIVISION EDICION DIGITAL	5/11/17	12:14	0:22		Fewer Americans sought jobless benefits last week, and the number of people collecting unemployment checks fell to the lowest level since 1988. Applications for unemployment benefits are a proxy for layoffs, the numbers reflect the strength of the job market and show that most American workers enjoy job security. The government reported last week that the unemployment rate fell to 4.4 percent last month, lowest since 2007.
NEW POLICY ON SEEKING THE TOUGHEST CHARGES AND SENTENCES	NOTICIERO UNIVISION EDICION DIGITAL	5/12/17	12:09	0:19		Attorney General Jeff Sessions instructed federal prosecutors nationwide to seek the strongest possible charges and sentences against defendants they target. Friday's policy change effectively rescinds Obama-era guidelines for federal prosecutors that were designed to curtail the harshest sentences for defendants charged with low-level drug offenses.
PROPOSAL TO TURN IN IMMIGRANT KIDS TO ICE ON OKLAHOMA	NOTICIERO UNIVISION EDICION DIGITAL	5/12/17	12:10	0:52		A Republican member in the Oklahoma House is suggesting that tens of thousands of non-English speaking students in public schools be turned over to U.S. immigration officials as cost-saving measure in the cash-strapped state. Rep. Mike Ritze says he believes the state could save $60 million if Oklahoma would identify what the caucus believes is 82,000 non-English speaking students "and then turn them over" to Immigration and Customs Enforcement to determine whether they are citizens.
GLOBAL CYBER ATTACK	NOTICIERO UNIVISION EDICION DIGITAL	5/15/17	12:05	2:00		A massive global cyberattack that so far has struck more than 200,000 companies, hospitals, government agencies and other organizations in 150 countries appears to have been slowed down in Europe, according to Europol, the European Union police agency. Experts are trying to figure out who's behind a global "ransomware" software cyberattack. Our guest, expert in cyber security and hacking, explains more and what viewers can do to avoid becoming a victim.

Judges Michael Daly Hawkins, Ronald M. Gould and Richard A. Paez, all appointed by President Clinton, will decide the case, State of Hawaii vs. Donald Trump.
ELECTRONIC ANKLE MONITORS FOR UNDOCUMENTED IMMIGRANTS	NOTICIERO UNIVISION EDICION DIGITAL	5/16/17	12:15	0:35		Texas Republican lawmakers, John Cornyn and Michael McCaul, are proposing a bill that would force parents of undocumented teenagers to wear electronic ankle monitors so their children do not skip deportation hearings. The bill would also punish "sanctuary cities".
ICE SPANISH WEB PAGE AND TWITTER HANDLE	NOTICIERO UNIVISION EDICION DIGITAL	5/16/17	12:16	2:10		U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) launched a new website in Spanish and a new Twitter handle in Spanish as well. The website contains similar information to the ICE website in English, but it also provides easy access to a useful search tool to locate detainees, which helps find where detained foreign nationals are being held.
FIVE YEAR MINIMUM SENTENCES FOR UNDOCUMENTED IMMIGRANTS	NOTICIERO UNIVISION EDICION DIGITAL	5/17/17	12:09	0:22		The bill proposed by John Cornyn and Michael McCaul would also establish five-year minimum prison sentences for immigrants who illegally re-enter the country. (This is part of the bill that proposed the use of electronic ankle monitors for parents of undocumented teenagers).
DREAMER ACTIVIST WORKS IN THE SENATE'S CAFETERIA	NOTICIERO UNIVISION EDICION DIGITAL	5/17/17	12:10	1:52		Ana Gomez Ramirez is a "DREAMer" and cashier in a U.S. Senate office building, she came to the U.S. from El Salvador as an undocumented child. She constantly wonders if her work permit will be taken away by the very people she serves. Last year, Gomez Ramirez showed how all workers can benefit when undocumented people are allowed to come out of the shadows. She and other concessions workers in Congress learned that the federal contractor that employs them had misclassified them, which resulted in hourly pay below the legally required prevailing wage. With the help of a union-backed labor group called Good Jobs Nation (in which she is a leader) took their case to the Labor Department and won back pay.

----	NOTICIERO UNIVISION EDICION DIGITAL	5/18/17	----	----		NOTHING TO REPORT.
BILL H.R. 2431	NOTICIERO UNIVISION EDICION DIGITAL	5/19/17	12:13	0:33		Republican congressman, Raul Labrador (ID) and Bob Goodlatte (VA), crafted a bill that gives states more power to enforce federal immigration law. The initiative punishes "sanctuary cities", accelerates deportations, declares war on those who drive under the influence of alcohol and restricts access to benefits such as naturalization.

QUARTERLY ISSUES / PROGRAMS LISTS

Here follows a listing of some of the most significant issues responded to by NOTICIERO DIGITAL, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period JUNE 2017. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect any priority or significance.

DESCRIPTION OF ISSUE	PROGRAM/ SEGMENT	DATE	TIME	DURATION	NARRATION OF TYPE AND DESCRIPTION OF PROGRAM/SEGMENT
PARIS AGREEMENT DECISION PREVIEW	NOTICIERO UNIVISION EDICION DIGITAL	06/01/17	12:01 pm	1:29	President Trump to announce decision on climate change on Thursday, building suspense about America's role in the world. The White House signaled a withdrawal was likely, but Trump has been known to change his mind at the last minute on such major decisions. Withdrawing from the pact was one of Trump's principal campaign pledges, but America's allies have expressed alarm about the likely consequences of the U.S. abandoning the pact.
HEIMLICH MANEUVER DAY	NOTICIERO UNIVISION EDICION DIGITAL	06/01/17	12:13 pm	2:30	Each year on June 1st, the National Heimlich Maneuver Day is observed. This is a technique using abdominal thrusts to force air from the lungs to expel an object on which someone is choking on, it's called after Dr. Henry J. Heimlich, who created this life-saving procedure in 1974. A firefighter from the Miami-Dade Police Department explains to the audience how the maneuver should be performed on other adults, children and even oneself.

TEXAS DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY ROUNDING UP IMMIGRANTS	NOTICIERO UNIVISION EDICION DIGITAL	06/02/17	12:01 pm	0:52	Texas Department of Public Safety troopers are rounding up undocumented immigrants on the state's highways and roads and pushing them into a pipeline for deportation - but no one knows how many people are being affected. DPS's system for counting the detainees is grossly flawed and inaccurate. An investigation from The Austin Chronicle suggests that the department is undercounting, missing most handover incidents in the statistics it compiles for the public. The spike in traffic stops raises concerns about racial profiling, faulty recordkeeping, and the damage done to families.
CHANGES IN TPS PROGRAM	NOTICIERO UNIVISION EDICION DIGITAL	06/02/17	12:02 pm	0:23	The Secretary of Homeland Security, John Kelly, suggests changes should be made to the Temporary Protected Status (TPS) program. Saying immigrants who left their countries due to natural disasters, should consider returning to their home countries, he also stated that the TPS program should not be indefinite.
THE OCEAN CONFERENCE	NOTICIERO UNIVISION EDICION DIGITAL	06/05/17	12:23 pm	1:41	The Ocean Conference, the first United Nations conference on this issue, presents a unique and invaluable opportunity for the world to reverse the precipitous decline of the health of the oceans and seas with concrete solutions. The Conference will also promote progress in the implementation of Sustainable Development Goal 14, which is part of the 2030 Agenda adopted by all 193 UN Member States in 2015. The goal calls for efforts to conserve and sustainably use the oceans, seas and marine resources for sustainable development.
"SILENT RAIDS"	NOTICIERO UNIVISION EDICION DIGITAL	06/06/17	12:06 pm	0:26	The probability of being arrested on a routine appointment at ICE offices is growing. Almost one million undocumented immigrants with deportation orders in the United States face the fear of being deported after a routine appointment at the Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) offices in one of the so-called "silent raids".

DAPA was implemented in the 2014 Executive Action of President Barack Obama, which, in addition to protecting parents of citizens and permanent residents from deportation, it extended coverage of the 2012 Deferred Action (DACA) to "DREAMers". It also provided for a renewable work permit every three years. We spoke via Skype with immigration lawyer, Ezequiel Hernández. (DACA was not affected by this decision).

USE OF FAKE ICE UNIFORMS	NOTICIERO UNIVISION EDICION DIGITAL	06/19/17	12:13 pm	0:26	A fake ICE officer has been terrorizing the Hispanic community of a church in California, it is not the first time because fake ICE uniforms can be purchased on eBay and Etsy. Experts are advising immigrants to ask the alleged officers for their badges or credentials.
ARIZONA'S HEAT WAVE	NOTICIERO UNIVISION EDICION DIGITAL	06/20/17	12:01 pm	2:15	A heat wave is affecting Arizona, California and Nevada, causing massive power outages and prompting flight cancellations. The peak may be coming Tuesday as Phoenix is expected to hit a high of 119 degrees. Excessive heat warnings have been issued for inland California, southern Nevada and parts of southwest Arizona until Friday. More than 29 million residents in California are under a heat warning or advisory. We offer some tips on how to stay safe and avoid dehydration.
FAKE ICE AGENTS	NOTICIERO UNIVISION EDICION DIGITAL	06/20/17	12:05 pm	2:10	Undocumented immigrants continue to be victims of scams by fake ICE officers, who demand money from immigrants to avoid deportation. Lawyers are warning the community about these scammers, giving tips about what they should ask in order to confirm the officers' identities, and have always in mind federal agents or law enforcement officers should never ask for money.
TROPICAL STORM WARNING	NOTICIERO UNIVISION EDICION DIGITAL	06/21/17	12:01 pm	1:56	Tropical Storm Cindy is moving slowly towards the Gulf Coast, where millions of residents are expecting heavy rain and potential flash flooding. At least 17 million people are under a tropical storm warning from San Luis Pass, Texas, to the Alabama-Florida border. The storm could also bring up to 12 inches of rain to parts of southeastern Louisiana, southern Mississippi, southern Alabama and western portions of the Florida Panhandle.

TEMPORARY WORK VISAS	NOTICIERO UNIVISION EDICION DIGITAL	06/22/17	12:12 pm	2:08	Homeland Security Secretary John F. Kelly has decided to issue a limited number of seasonal guest worker visas, although they still don't have a total and won't begin to issue them until late July. The move offers a small amount of relief to seasonal businesses such as landscapers, summer resorts and seafood processors. However, Congress' authorization came so late that it's likely the number they issue will be less than the approximately 70,000 visas Mr. Kelly could issue.
TRAVEL BAN	NOTICIERO UNIVISION EDICION DIGITAL	06/26/17	12:05 pm	2:00	The United States Supreme Court will allow President Trump to partially apply the migratory veto of six predominantly Muslim countries for 90 days. The decision of the supreme court is temporary and its judges will hear the arguments in favor and against the veto in the fall.

The case, Hernandez v. Mesa, centers on the 2010 shooting death of 15-year-old Sergio Hernández, who was playing in a cement culvert that separates El Paso, Texas, and Ciudad Juárez, Mexico.
STUDY: SMARTPHONES DAMAGE THE BRAIN	NOTICIERO UNIVISION EDICION DIGITAL	06/27/17	12:15 pm	0:27	A new study by a group of researchers from the University of Texas found that smartphones make us less smart. They said that the mere presence of a smartphone reduces our cognitive capacity, even if it's off. 800 users were tested, measuring their cerebral capacity to contain data and concentrate. It demonstrated that the participants who had their cell phone at the table were worse than those who left it at home.

IMMIGRATION BILLS	NOTICIERO UNIVISION EDICION DIGITAL	06/29/17	12:05 pm	3:00	The House passed two bills Thursday intended to allow for stronger punishments for people who have entered the U.S. illegally and to take federal funding away from "sanctuary cities" that do not enforce federal immigration laws. Kate's law would allow for harsher punishments for those who enter the country illegally after being deported. The second bill - No Sanctuary for Criminals Act - withholds federal money from cities that limit their cooperation with immigration laws.
BAN GUIDELINES	NOTICIERO UNIVISION EDICION DIGITAL	06/29/17	12:14 pm	1:30	The Trump administration has set new criteria for visa applicants from six mainly Muslim nations and all refugees that require a "close" family or business tie to the United States. Visas that have already been approved will not be revoked, but instructions said that new applicants from Syria, Sudan, Somalia, Libya, Iran and Yemen must prove a relationship with a parent, spouse, child, adult son or daughter, son-in-law, daughter-in-law or sibling already in the United States to be eligible.
IMMIGRATION PARENTS	NOTICIERO UNIVISION EDICION DIGITAL	06/30/17	12:05 pm	2:00	The Trump administration plans to arrest parents and other relatives who authorities believe smuggled their children into the United States; a move immigrant advocates said would send a wave of fear through vulnerable communities. A new "surge initiative" aims to identify and arrest the adult sponsors of unaccompanied minors who paid coyotes or other smuggling operations to bring young people across the U.S. border.
