Suicide or Homicide?

That question still lingers for Michelle O'Connell's family and friends nearly eight years after she was shot inside her boyfriend's St. Augustine, Florida, home and died. Her family alleges she was killed by her boyfriend, Deputy Sheriff Jeremy Banks, but the sheriff's department maintains that she committed suicide. At the request of Michelle's family, her body was exhumed, and an outside forensics expert conducted a second autopsy for them which concluded that Michelle's death was a homicide. However, authorities still maintain she took her own life. ABC News' Ryan Smith investigates. (OAD: 6/01/18)

30 Years Searching

In 1989, 18-year-old Amanda "Mandy" Stavik disappeared while jogging in her rural Washington hometown; and later, police discovered her body in a nearby river. News of her rape and murder shook her tight-knit community, but with no leads and police unable to find a DNA match to her killer, the case went cold for decades. This spring, a jury found a former neighbor of Mandy's, Timothy Bass, guilty, finally bringing an end to the nearly 30-year-old case. A two-hour "20/20" unfolds the details of how police finally got their man, including the key role a colleague of Bass' played in cracking the case.

Friday, September 27, 2019 (Season Premiere 2019/2020)

Siegfried & Roy

The season 42 premiere of 20/20 features the first prime-time interview with Siegfried Fischbacher and Roy Horn in over a decade. The famous duo open up about the infamous career-ending tiger attack that happened 16 years ago and nearly killed Roy; the recent allegations that the accident resulted from Roy's mistake on stage, which the pair denies, saying that the tiger was trying to help Roy after he suffered a stroke; and their storied career and the legacy of their Las Vegas residency. ABC News Correspondent Deborah Roberts reports.
