ISSUE DESCRIPTION: Bethel Fish and Game Advisory Committee considers plans for a moose hunt

PROGRAM SEGMENT: Science & Environment DATE/TIME: Apr 12, 2023
2:16pm DURATION 02:14

DESCRIPTION OF SEGMENT: On Monday the Bethel Fish and Game Advisory Committee held elections and heard new proposals on hunting and game regulation.

ISSUE DESCRIPTION: Tuluksak students compete in the Native Youth Olympics Bethel Invitational despite challenges faced in their community

PROGRAM SEGMENT: Sports DATE/TIME: Apr 5, 2023 1:48am DURATION:
2:13

DESCRIPTION OF SEGMENT: Tuluksak has faced several challenges in the past few years, including a fire that wiped out the washeteria in January 2021 and the recent water line break from the water plant. Those challenges didn't stop the village's Native Youth Olympics (NYO) team from traveling to Bethel and competing. The two-day invitational meet was held on March 31 and April 1.

ISSUE DESCRIPTION: Newtok residents say a portion of the public school will be demolished this summer

PROGRAM SEGMENT: Public Safety DATE/TIME: May 2 ,2023, 8:11pm
DURATION: 4:23

DESCRIPTION OF SEGMENT: For years, residents in Newtok expected severe erosion along the Ninglick River to render the community's school useless. But it was a generator fire in January that has kept students in the Y-K Delta village from attending regular classes for months. The school was also the center of Newtok's social events. People played pickup basketball games in the gym. Now residents in Newtok have nowhere to gather.

ISSUE DESCRIPTION: Chevak Native Village joins others in federal lawsuit against Donlin

PROGRAM SEGMENT: Politics DATE/TIME: June 9 , 2023 12:32am
DURATION: 1:26

DESCRIPTION OF SEGMENT: The number of Kuskokwim River Tribes challenging the federal permits for the Donlin Gold project in court has doubled from three to six. They say that the process was flawed and that Tribal consultation was inadequate. They want the court to order the federal government to take a closer look.
