EDUCATION	NEWS	9/8	With COVID we saw a lot of changes this year including student housing for ECU students as thousands of them had to move off campus when the university switched to online classes due to the rising COVID cases. We broke down what students needed to do if they were stuck with a bill and locked into leases. And how to apply for waivers to wave any fees associated with the change.
EDUCATION	NEWS	10/1	We had a follow up story about parents concerned over remote learning. Some parents were concerned their children would be held back of penalized due to the challenges of remote learning. We spoke to parents whose children's grades dropped significantly during the pandemic and asked the district what plans and measures were in place to make sure this did not happen. The district said they planned to perform middle and end of year testing to asses where each student is and make sure no student falls behind. Will be doing a follow up soon on this story.
EDUCATION	NEWS	12/09	Some teachers say the pandemic is creating a stressful work environment with fears of spreading the virus with in person learning. It was a catch 22 for many teachers as they were glad to have students back in the classroom, but at same time were worried they would contract the virus, saying the virus was always on their minds. Showed the personal side of what teachers are dealing with during the pandemic.
EDUCATION	NEWS	12/15	A COVID cluster was identified in Onslow County Schools causing concerns for parents and staff. It happened just as students were about to head home for the holiday. Many questioned if they could return safely after the holidays as the cases continued to rise. Dixon High School had 6 cases but district wouldn't say if it was staff members or students. District said they were closely monitoring the situation and would make adjustments as needed.

ISSUE	PROGRAM	DATE	SUBJECT
ENVIRONMENT	NEWS	10/20	We delved into a problem that has plagued the City of Kinston for years which is flash flooding. City leaders announced a flood mitigation study would be completed, giving residents hope a solution is coming soon. State leaders are working with the Environmental Defense Fund who is paying for the study.
ENVIRONMENT	NEWS	10/28	We covered a man in our area who was in the hospital fighting off the deadly flesh-eating bacteria, vibrio. Vibrio is found in water sources. While it is rare, vibrio is on the rise in North Carolina. The man contracted the bacteria in the Neuse River in Craven County, not by an open wound but instead ingested infected shellfish. The number of cases in NC jumped from 21 in 2007 to 41 in the most recent data.
ENVIRONMENT	NEWS	11/1	The state received more than a million dollars in Environmental grants that will help and improve the environment. Some of the money will go to help protect local waterways and systems.
ENVIRONMENT	NEWS	12/3	An oyster species could help restore shoreline on Neuse River that was damaged by Hurricane Florence. Scientists at Duke University are working with leaders at Marine Corp Air Station Cherry Point to try to regenerate the Eastern North Carolina Oyster. Researchers say the species could help build back land that was eroded away due to hurricane.

GOVERNMENT	NEWS	09/01	We covered the announcement by the governor to move into phase 2.5 pertaining to COVID. This latest phase allowed museums, aquariums, playgrounds and gyms to open at a limited capacity, but the new phase did not allow bars and nightclubs to reopen. We broke down what people could and could not do and asked the governor what this meant for sports fans? Which we learned was 7 percent capacity. We asked the questions and provided viewers with the information they needed to know moving forward.
GOVERNMENT	NEWS	9/16	We covered a story about possible changes to NC Voter ID law. The change caused confusion about whether a voter needed to bring a photo ID to the polls. We explained to viewers this change would not have any effect on the 2020 election. We let voters know no ID would be required unless you were a first-time voter.
GOVERNMENT	NEWS	10/5	We attended a Beaufort County Commissioners meeting where commissioners were discussing possibly defunding 5 deputy positions. Employees of the sheriff's office asked commissioners not to defund them but one of the commissioners wanted to see data on the number of calls for service that would not be serviced before approving the $279,000 it would take to fund those 5 positions.
GOVERNMENT	NEWS	10/15	We covered the Trump Rally in Greenville. We looked into what was being done to prevent the spread of COVID as there were hundreds of people at the airport cheering him on. Trump staffers handed out masks and hand sanitizer to those who attended and also enforced temperature checks before any one was allowed inside the rally. We focused on the safety measures being taken and the rally itself with team coverage of the event.

SOCIAL	NEWS	9/10	The Flame Catering opened its door to provide an academic hub for students who needed help with remote learning. The hub provided WIFI, lunches and had teachers on site to help the students at a low cost of 10 dollars per day. We told parents how they could sign up and helped parents find resources available to them that they may not have known about.
