Good Morning, Shane –

On behalf of the Duplin County Partnership for Career Planning, I want to sincerely thank you for sending such a FABULOUS representative to cover our media/mass communications booth. Dominic was so pleasant and did an excellent job with our students. I understand that February is an extremely busy month for television stations with little spare time to do anything but the business at hand so thank you for truly going above and beyond the call of duty to accommodate our needs.

If our partnership can ever return the favor or assist or organization in anyway, please do not hesitate. God's blessings to you and your great team for continued success.

With Warmest Regards,

Vickie

Hey Shane,

I'm just sending you this e-mail as a follow-up after my ECU classroom visit today.

I had a great time! I spoke to Dr. Scott Curtis' Weather & Climate class in the Brewster Building on-campus at ECU. There were about 60 students or more in attendance during my visit. I presented a powerpoint presentation that shows what I do as a meteorologist at our station and what goes into forecasting. The powerpoint consists of pictures, forecasting models, and other information. I also talked about the television business in general.

The students had plenty of questions, ranging from a variety of topics about the weather and having a career in the television.

My visit was a little over an hour, but I could have talked all day. They were great!

Take care,

Dominic

Excellent visit for Oriental's Chowder Cook-off

Lee Duer of the Oriental Woman's Club contacted me and asked if I would consider being one of the judges for the Chowder Cook-off, along with two veterans of television station WCTI-Ch. 12 in New Bern. I couldn't resist being apart of this event and having the opportunity of working with such fine Eastern Carolinians as Skip Waters and Alizé Proisy.

Working with Skip and Alizé was a pleasure and a dream come true. They both are strong supporters and proponents of Eastern North Carolina. I enjoyed our conversational time together and they told me of several restaurants that I should visit. We talked food and enjoyed the chowder.

Oriental is the sailing capital of North Carolina. It is also one of the prettiest locations that I have had the privilege to visit. The waterfront is simply beautiful. The people are friendly and welcoming. The sun was shining and the sky was blue and the Neuse River was filled with sailboats with brightly colored sails.

The judging took place in the Oriental Marina Courtyard. The spot is ideally suited and my mind kept going back to an earlier time. The area has a "Brigadoon" effect upon me. It's almost mystical. I even found myself humming "Almost Like Being in love."

Lee was the perfect "hostess with the mostess!" If the local Chamber of Commerce ever needs a spokesperson, well . . . Lee would be ideal. Lee took care of the three of us and made us all feel welcome. She represented the town perfectly and created in me the desire to come back. This is not the last time that you will see me in the wonderful town! Guess what, Lee? I'm coming back. And I'm coming back soon. I plan on visiting every business and eatery in town!

This was the fourth year of the Chowder Cook-off. I would strongly suggest that you right
