

Memorandum

TO: Public File

FROM: KKXT

DATE: March 31, 2022

SUBJECT: Report for First Quarter 2022

The public service mission of KKXT is to provide an important local music, arts and cultural news and education service in North Texas. The following is a list of examples of programming that contributed to this important service in the Dallas/Fort Worth/Denton region in the 1st quarter of 2022 (January 1, 2022 – March 31, 2022) through:

- Music and arts discovery, discussion, education and enrichment experience for audience, artists, and performers
- Vital contribution to Regional, Texas, and American culture by exposing, supporting, and nurturing diverse, new, and emerging artists
- Bringing artists into the lives of the audience through news, discussion, presentation, and live performance
- Weekday local and regional arts and events spotlights, and concerts highlight

KXT Live Sessions, Local Show, eTown, Latin Alternative and Sheroes

Program: eTown

Date: 1/2/2022

Description: This week, listen back to eTown's 2003 season this week with a full show from that year, featuring two exceptional musical guests: from Donegal, Ireland, the band Altan, once dubbed by The Wall Street Journal as "the preeminent Irish band in the world;" plus one of the most talented songwriters around, Chuck Prophet. Nick chats with Ross Haenfler and Brett Johnson about their book, "The Better World Handbook." And the award segment this show is one of Helen's absolute favorites: it's a classic eCheivement story about the creation of an incredible community garden in one of the poorest neighborhoods in New York.

Program: Sheroes Radio

Date: 1/2/2022

Description: Sheroes promotes gender equality in music, showcasing new voices and celebrating women who paved the way. This week, hear music from Snail Mail, Tasha, MICHELLE, and LUMP – Celebrate the (at the time) Shero Birthdays of Mitski, Sylvia Peterso, Patrice Rushen – This week's Shero in the Spotlight is Amythyst Kia – and this week's Radio Shero is (The one-and-only) Nilufer Arsala!

Program: Latin Alternative

Date: 1/2/2022

Description: This week, a highlight on recent releases from CimaFunk, Los Lobos, Suenatron, The Voxes, Pehuenche, Bonifrate and more

Program: KXT Arts Daybook

Date: January 3, 2022

Description: Producer Jackson Wissdorf reported on arts and cultural events and experiences in North Texas including - The Oak Cliff Cultural Center offered a workshop on Ukrainian embroidery. The focus was be on patterns. Participants created their own pattern using paint and paper with the goal to create a community pattern. "Dear Evan Hansen" began its one week run at Bass Performance Hall in Fort Worth. The Tony and Grammy-Award winning musical is about a high school senior with Social Anxiety disorder. The Amon Carter Museum featured a retrospective on the work of Scott & Stuart Gentling. The brothers' artistic careers spanned 40 years. They created the Zipper mural in downtown Fort Worth and the dome mural at Bass Performance Hall. Bishop Arts Theatre Center in Dallas hosted screened the documentary "Luchadoras" along with the "Lucha Libre" exhibition at the Oak Cliff Cultural Center.

Program: The Local Show

Date: 1/6/2022

Description: The KXT Local Show is a full hour supporting local music, curated, and hosted by KXT's Amy Miller, showcasing new and classic tunes from North Texas artists spanning a broad mix of genres, including hip hop, Latin, rock, blues, jazz, folk and R&B. Some of the local North Texas artists featured on this episode of the program included: Simone Nicole, Damon K. Clark, Zeke Forever, and Jacob Metcalf

Program: eTown

Date: 1/9/2022

Description: This week, a potpourri of favorite moments from 2003, with musical guests that include Paul Brady, The Waifs, Marcia Ball, James "Blood" Ulmer, Derek Trucks and more. Plus, Nick's conversation with Jim Proffitt is one you'll definitely want to hear.

Program: Sheroes Radio

Date: 1/9/2022

Description: Sheroes promotes gender equality in music, showcasing new voices and celebrating women who paved the way. Hear new tunes from MICHELLE, AURORA, Mitski, Big Thief, Hurray For The Riff Raff, Silvana Estrada, Aoife O'Donovan, Anais Mitchell – This week's is a throwback to late-2021 with Thao Nguyen (Thao & the Get Down Stay Down) about her most-recent album, 2019's Temple, which also saw a re-released deluxe edition last October!

Program: Latin Alternative

Date: 1/9/2022

Description: Chile has a rich musical tradition, and has exported its rock, pop, electronic and hip-hop music around the world! This week on L.A. a spotlight on Chilean artists including Mon Laferte, Camila Moreno, Gepe, Los Bunkers, DJ Bitman, Claudia Acuña, Pau, DJ Raff and more.

Program: KXT Arts Daybook

Date: January 10, 2022

Description: Producer Jackson Wissdorf reported on arts and cultural events and experiences in North Texas including - The central branch of the Fort Worth Public Library hosted a discussion on Thursday with Dale Long, a survivor of the 1963 bombing the 16th Street Baptist Church in Birmingham, Alabama. Long shared his story and the experience of meeting Martin Luther King, Jr. The City of Garland kicked off the New Year with its Throwback Thursday movie series with the 1986 comedy 'Ferris Bueller's Day Off.' The movie screened the newly refurbished Plaza Theatre in old downtown Garland. 70 pieces by New Mexico-based jewelry designer Paula Crevoshay were showcased at the Perot Museum in Dallas. The creations are inspired by nature and illustrate the link between minerals, gems and jewelry. The Fort Worth Symphony Orchestra performed Rimsky-Korsakov's "Scheherazade" at Bass Performance Hall. The symphonic suite is based on the Persian collection of stories, "One Thousand and One Nights." Astrophysicist Neil deGrasse Tyson spoke at the Winspear Opera House in Dallas. Tyson explores the expectations of where we should be in space and the geopolitical, cultural, and economic realities that limit it.

Program: The Local Show

Date: 1/13/2022

Description: The KXT Local Show is a full hour supporting local music, curated, and hosted by KXT's Amy Miller, showcasing new and classic tunes from North Texas artists spanning a broad mix of genres, including hip hop, Latin, rock, blues, jazz, folk and R&B. Some of the local North Texas artists featured on this episode of the program included: Yokyo, Joshua Ray Walker, Luna Luna

Program: eTown

Date: 1/16/2022

Description: This week, hear an episode (in its entirety) from the 2004 show archives. Musical guests include the legendary singer/songwriter Steve Earle, making his fourth etown appearance, as well as Citizen Cope (Clarence Greenwood) visiting eTown for the first time. Plus, a moving e-Chievement Award story about a doctor bringing healthcare directly to the streets for people experiencing homelessness.

Program: Sheroes Radio

Date: 1/16/2022

Description: Sheroes promotes gender equality in music, showcasing new voices and celebrating women who paved the way. Hear new tunes SASAMI and Widowspeak – Celebrate the Shero birthdays of Sade, Janis Joplin, and Dolly Parton! This week's Shero in the Spotlight is drummer, vocalist, and songwriter, and member of the indie darlings, Low, Mimi Parker!

Program:Latin Alternative

Date: 1/16/2022

Description: This week, hear L.A.'s 'Best of 2021' episode spotlighting the very best Latin releases of the past year - Highlights include songs from Fito Paez, C. Tangana, Don Omar & Residente, Santi Mostaffa, Raye Zaragoza, LosPetitFellas and many more!

Program: KXT Arts Daybook

Date: January 17, 2022

Description: Producer Jackson Wissdorf reported on arts and cultural events and experiences in North Texas including - Professor and author Clay J. Small talked about detecting art forgery and his newest novel at University Park Library. Edward Ruiz, also known as Confetti Eddie, performed his show "Mystery of the Two Headed Jaguar" at the Four Day Weekend Theater in Dallas. His show was about discovering the treasures inside ourselves. Artstillery, the community-focused performance company, celebrated its fifth anniversary with a photography retrospective documenting past immersive experiences, free performances and craft beer & wine. Dallas Children's Theater presented "Dragons Love Tacos," a play based on the popular children's book. The Patterson-Appleton Arts Center in Denton held an artist reception for three shows including the 12th Annual Artists' Book Competition, and 30 Under 30, a show to highlight young artists.

Program: The Local Show

Date: 1/21/2022

Description: The KXT Local Show is a full hour supporting local music, curated, and hosted by KXT's Amy Miller, showcasing new and classic tunes from North Texas artists spanning a broad mix of genres, including hip hop, Latin, rock, blues, jazz, folk and R&B. Some of the local North Texas artists featured on this episode of the program included: dvd, BeMyFiasco, and Vanessa Peters

Program: eTown

Date:1/23/2022

Description: This week's show is a broadcast from the 2004 season, recorded live at the Sanders Theater at Harvard University. Musical guests include the beloved Canadian band Cowboy Junkies and dynamic songstress Madeleine Peyroux.

Program: Sheroes Radio

Date: 1/23/2022

Description: Sheroes promotes gender equality in music, showcasing new voices and celebrating women who paved the way. Hear new tunes from Basia Bulat, Big Thief, and Cat Power – Celebrate the Shero

Birthdays of Chan Marshall, Angel Olsen, and Lucinda Williams – This week's Shero in the Spotlight is Norwegian singer, songwriter, and producer, AURORA.

Program: Latin Alternative

Date: 1/23/2022

Description: This week, hear a Cuban funk explosion from CimaFunk, the return of Chilean singer-songwriter Mon Laferte, Strokes-like rock from The Red Pears, retro flavored indie from Helado Negro, and hook-filled alt rock from Spain's Vetusta Morla.

Program: KXT Arts Daybook

Date: January 24, 2022

Description: Producer Jackson Wissdorf reported on arts and cultural events and experiences in North Texas including - The literary and performing arts series Arts & Letters Live hosted a virtual discussion with author Isabel Allende. Her new novel tells the story of a woman whose life bears witness to the greatest upheavals of the 20th century. The Denton Black Film Festival kicked off with a virtual format. The unique festival also included music, a technology expo, spoken word, poetry and art. The exhibition "Little Black Dress" finished its last week at the Tyler Museum of Art. The show featured garments and accessories from the Texas Fashion Collection. The pieces were paired with paintings of social scenes by Fort Worth artist Nancy Lamb. Stage West opened its play 'Church and State.' It was about a U.S. Senator who has a crisis of faith following a school shooting and examines how religion influences politics and how politics has become a religion. Cluley Projects, the new satellite project space of Erin Cluley Gallery in Dallas, hosted a two-person exhibition featuring the work of local artists Erica Felicella and Ethan Mertz. The show explored themes of anxiety and depressive episodes through large-scale photographs and paintings.

Program: The Local Show

Date: 1/28/2022

Description: The KXT Local Show is a full hour supporting local music, curated, and hosted by KXT's Amy Miller, showcasing new and classic tunes from North Texas artists spanning a broad mix of genres, including hip hop, Latin, rock, blues, jazz, folk and R&B. Some of the local North Texas artists featured on this episode of the program included: Vanilla & Pepper and Dali Voodoo.

Program: eTown

Date: 1/30/2022

Description: This week a throwback to 2004, as a continuation of eTown's special 30th anniversary series, sharing highlights from various 30 seasons of programs. This week's show features some marvelous musicians including, Robben Ford, Ozomatli, Darrell Scott, and Mindy Smith.

Program: Sheroes Radio

Date: 1/30/2022

Description: Sheroes promotes gender equality in music, showcasing new voices and celebrating women who paved the way. Hear new tunes from Melissa Laveaux, Ibibio Sound Machine, Lucius – Celebrate the Shero Birthdays of Sam Phillips and Laura Marling – This weeks Shero in the Spotlight is singer, songwriter, playwright, author, and brainchild of Hadestown Anaïs Mitchell

Program: Latin Alternative

Date: 1/30/2022

Description: It's time for L.A.'s inaugural Cumbia episode! This week, a spotlight on cumbia music from across the decades including Los Angeles Azules, Mexican Institute of Sound, El Gran Silencio, Ozomatli, Bareto, Suenatron, Meridian Brothers and more.

Program: KXT Arts Daybook

Date: January 31, 2022

Description: Producer Jackson Wissdorf reported on arts and cultural events and experiences in North Texas including - Larry McMurtry 's 1971 film "The Last Picture Show" screened at the Angelika Film Center in Dallas as part of Flick Fest 2022, sponsored by the Highland Park Literary Festival. A discussion about the Pulitzer Prize-winning Texas author followed the screening. The opening reception for the 27th Annual "El Corazón" exhibition at the Bath House Cultural Center in Dallas. Over 40 North Texas artists presented work that explore ideas of love, sorrow, passion, and other emotions dealing with the heart. The South Dallas Cultural Center celebrated Black History Month with the Shades of Black Showcase. Six professional artists and groups like Beckles Dancing Company and Bandan Koro African Drum & Dance provided music, dance, and spoken word for the 2-hour showcase.

Program: The Local Show

Date: 2/4/2022

Description: The KXT Local Show is a full hour supporting local music, curated, and hosted by KXT's Amy Miller, showcasing new and classic tunes from North Texas artists spanning a broad mix of genres, including hip hop, Latin, rock, blues, jazz, folk and R&B. Some of the local North Texas artists featured on this episode of the program included: Fiction Theory and Billy Star

Program: eTown

Date: 2/6/2022

Description: This week's 'look back' at 2006 features the legendary Mavis Staples (Mavis' father, Pops Staples was a frequent guest on eTown before his death in 2000, but this was Mavis' first visit to eTown). She brings her soulful songs to eTown, as well as her unique perspectives on working with Dr. Martin Luther King as a member of the Staple Singers and later, as solo artist. Surfer/Songwriter Donavon Frankenreiter shares the bill with Mavis in this can't miss episode. It's soul and surf, plus a great eChievement award story!

Program: Sheroes Radio

Date: 2/6/2022

Description: Sheroes promotes gender equality in music, showcasing new voices and celebrating women who paved the way. Hear new tunes from MICHELLE, Tank & The Bangas, and Warpaint – Celebrate Carole King's birthday – This week's Shero in the Spotlight is Brooklyn-based vocalist, composer, producer, and recently Grammy-nominated, Aroof Atab – THIS WEEK'S RADIO SHERO IS KXT'S OWN NILUFER ARSALA!!!!

Program: Latin Alternative

Date: 2/6/2022

Description: 2022 is already off to a great start on the new music front, and this week L.A. highlights even more recent releases, from Enjambre, Las Cafeteras, Pahua, Santi Mostaffa, Tokyo Ska Paradise Orchestra and more.

Program: KXT Arts Daybook
Date: February 7, 2022

Description: Producer Jackson Wissdorf reported on arts and cultural events and experiences in North Texas including - Wildflower Art Studio in Denton hosted a calligraphy workshop for beginners. The class covered varying styles of calligraphy using pre-loaded brush markers. Students got to take home instructional guides and practice tools. The Mesquite Arts Council distributed free art-kits for children to create at home. The weekly program happens on Mondays at noon at the Mesquite Arts Center. The immersive exhibition, Michelangelo's Sistine Chapel opened at Irving Mall. The show featured high resolution projections of more than 30 ceiling frescoes from the Vatican's Sistine Chapel including works like "The Creation of Adam" and "The Last Judgement." Fort Worth native Major Attaway -- best known for his role as The Genie in the Broadway play "Aladdin" -- sang the best of Disney love songs at the Isis Theater in Fort Worth.

Program: The Local Show

Date: 2/11/2022

Description: The KXT Local Show is a full hour supporting local music, curated, and hosted by KXT's Amy Miller, showcasing new and classic tunes from North Texas artists spanning a broad mix of genres, including hip hop, Latin, rock, blues, jazz, folk and R&B. Some of the local North Texas artists featured on this episode of the program included: The Bastards of Soul, Clint Sherman, and Sarah Johnson.

Program: eTown

Date: 2/13/2022

Description: This week, a look back at the "Best of" 2005, with stellar musical guests such as, Aaron Neville, Wanda Jackson, Shawn Colvin, Kaki King and more.

Program: Sheroes Radio

Date: 2/13/2022

Description: Sheroes promotes gender equality in music, showcasing new voices and celebrating women who paved the way. Hear new music from Hurray for the Ruff Raff and Momma – Celebrate the Shero

Birthdays of Sheryl Crow and Leslie Feist – This week's Shero in the Spotlight is the extremely talented Welsh singer, songwriter, and producer Cate Le Bon, who's new record Pompeii is out now!

Program: Latin Alternative

Date: 2/13/2022

Description: Take the time machine fifty years back to 1972, a year defined by psychedelic bossa nova, chicano rock and hip-swaying salsa. Featured artists include Carlos Santana & Buddy Miles, Justo Betancourt, War, Tito Puente, Willie Colon & Hector Lavoe, Sui Generis and more.

Program: The Local Show

Date: 2/18/2022

Description: The KXT Local Show is a full hour supporting local music, curated, and hosted by KXT's Amy Miller, showcasing new and classic tunes from North Texas artists spanning a broad mix of genres, including hip hop, Latin, rock, blues, jazz, folk and R&B. Some of the local North Texas artists featured on this episode of the program included: Motorcade, and Idania.

Program: eTown

Date: 2/20/2022

Description: This week's 'look back' features an exceptional episode with one of the best-known New Orleans music ambassadors, Dr. John (RIP), universally celebrated as the living embodiment of the rich musical heritage of the Crescent City. Appearing with Dr. John is talented Los Angeles based singer-songwriter Billy Miles.

Program: Sheroes Radio

Date: 2/20/2022

Description: Sheroes promotes gender equality in music, showcasing new voices and celebrating women who paved the way. Hear new tunes from Ibeyi and Amber Mark – Celebrate the Shero birthdays of Buffy Sainte-Marie, Rhiannon Giddens, and Nina Simone – This Week's Shero in the Spotlight is musician, singer/songwriter, and producer Alynda Segarra aka Hurray For The Riff Raff!

Program: Latin Alternative

Date: 2/20/2022

Description: 2022 has been off to a great start on the Latin Alternative music front, and this week L.A. spotlights recent releases from Argentine indie rocker Marilina Bertoldi, rising hip-hop star Trueno, acclaimed Colombian retro pop group Monsieur Perine, Chilean reggae group Zona Ganjah and more

Program: KXT Arts Daybook

Date: February 21, 2022

Description: Producer Jackson Wisdorf reported on arts and cultural events and experiences in North Texas including - The Green Family Art Foundation in Dallas hosted 28 rising female artists in the exhibition "Women of Now". The show explored what it means to be a woman in today's society. Many of the artists delved into themes of representation and exclusion, while others reimagined famous works of art. The Nasher Sculptor Center's six-night Sculpting Sound concert series brought together 12 musicians to explore Harry Bertoia's sounding sculptures. Each concert paired two musicians: one animated Bertoia's sculpture while the other accompanied on a more traditional instrument such as piano. The futuristic, electronica band Helium Queens returned to the Kessler with their space opera. The show was an intergalactic journey to the moon complete with live music, dancers, and costumes that glowed under the ultra-violet lights of the lunar landscape. Dallas Blooms, continued at the Dallas Arboretum. The annual springtime festival features larger-than-life peacock topiaries, flowers from 100 varieties of bulbs, thousands of azaleas and hundreds of Japanese cherry trees.

Program: The Local Show

Date: 2/25/2022

Description: The KXT Local Show is a full hour supporting local music, curated, and hosted by KXT's Amy Miller, showcasing new and classic tunes from North Texas artists spanning a broad mix of genres, including hip hop, Latin, rock, blues, jazz, folk and R&B. Some of the local North Texas artists featured on this episode of the program included: Sleepy Atlantis, and John Painter

Program: eTown

Date: 2/27/2022

Description: This week's 'look back' features an exceptional episode with one of the best-known New Orleans music ambassadors, Dr. John (Mac Rebennack). Mac is universally celebrated as the living embodiment of the rich musical heritage of the Crescent City. Appearing with Dr. John is talented Los Angeles based singer-songwriter Billy Miles.

Program: Sheroes Radio

Date: 2/27/2022

Description: Sheroes promotes gender equality in music, showcasing new voices and celebrating women who paved the way. Hear new tunes from Mitski, Sharon Van Etten, and Lady Wray – Celebrate the birthdays of Sharon Van Etten, Erykah Badu, and Karen Carpenter – This week's Shero in the Spotlight is a classically trained musician and composer, now known as one of the most buzzed about indie rock artists today Multi-instrumentalist, producer, songwriter, and performer, SASAMI.

Program: Latin Alternative

Date: 2/27/2022

Description: Join L.A. this week for a trip into the world of Latin psychedelic music. From the psychedelic fuzz of Brazilian group Glue Trip to the late night grooves of Ocote Soul Sounds, you don't want to miss this! Other featured artists include Fruko y Sus Tesos, Plastilina Mosh, El Chicano, Jungle Fire, Astro and Babasonicos

Program: KXT Arts Daybook
Date: February 28, 2022

Description: Producer Jackson Wissdorf reported on arts and cultural events and experiences in North Texas including - Pianists Kris Davis and Craig Taborn -- collectively known as "Octopus" -- performed at the Modern Art Museum of Fort Worth. The duo played their original compositions inspired by eight sculptures in the Modern's collection. The Stolen Shakespeare Guild presented the fast-paced comedy "The Merry Wives of Windsor" at Arts Fort Worth. The play featured one of Shakespeare's most beloved characters -- Sir John Falstaff. Wildflower Art Studio in Denton offered a beginners workshop in hand lettering. Participants learned different hand lettering techniques, including modern "faux" calligraphy. KXT and the Dallas Museum of Art hosted a conversation called "Poisoned by Zip Code, Mended by Design." The discussion addressed the idea of art and design joining together to rebuild a neighborhood devastated by illegal dumping.

Program: The Local Show

Date: 3/4/2022

Description: The KXT Local Show is a full hour supporting local music, curated, and hosted by KXT's Amy Miller, showcasing new and classic tunes from North Texas artists spanning a broad mix of genres, including hip hop, Latin, rock, blues, jazz, folk and R&B. Some of the local North Texas artists featured on this episode of the program included: BB Bean and Electric Tongues.

Program: eTown

Date: 3/6/2022

Description: This week, eTown presents, the second part of "best of" 2006, as they revisit some of eTown's favorite moments with musical guests from that era, like Dar Williams, the legendary Earl Scruggs, Josh Ritter and more. Plus great conversations abound as always!

Program: Sheroes Radio

Date: 3/6/2022

Description: Sheroes promotes gender equality in music, showcasing new voices and celebrating women who paved the way. New tunes from Florence + The Machine, Dehd, Ibilio Sound Machine, and Tank & The Bangas -- Celebrate the Shero Birthdays of Miriam Makeba, Mary Wilson (The Supremes), and Neneh Cherry -- This week's Shero in the Spotlight is singer/songwriter, producer and Grammy-Award-Winning artist Aoife O'Donovan.

Program: Latin Alternative

Date: 3/6/2022

Description: This week is all about the new música! Highlights include recent releases from Fito Paez, Flor de Toloache, Ilegales & Andres Calamaro, Marilina Bertoldi, Velcro, Terapia and more.

Program: KXT Arts Daybook

Date: March 7, 2022

Description: Producer Jackson Wisssdorf reported on arts and cultural events and experiences in North Texas including - The Sixth Floor Museum in Dallas presented its special exhibition "Fragments." The show examined architectural elements from the Texas School Book Depository and explored the building's 120-year history. The structure was the site of the assassination of President Kennedy in November 1963. Fort Worth-based artist Laura Hunt examines the humanity of homelessness in the exhibition "Our Community, Our Neighbors" at Texas Wesleyan University's Templeton Gallery. The 26 contemporary style portraits are mixed media on wood panels. Fort Worth's fishing celebration Flyfest returned to the Trinity River. The family-friendly event featured food trucks, live music, kid's activities and of course, fishing. Fort Worth's Funky Finds Spring Market happened under the big top at Will Rogers Memorial Center. The indoor event featured 200-plus makers and pickers selling handmade, repurposed, upcycled and vintage finds.

Program: The Local Show

Date: 3/11/2022

Description: The KXT Local Show is a full hour supporting local music, curated, and hosted by KXT's Amy Miller, showcasing new and classic tunes from North Texas artists spanning a broad mix of genres, including hip hop, Latin, rock, blues, jazz, folk and R&B. Some of the local North Texas artists featured on this episode of the program included: Carrie Norwood and Spider Legs

Program: eTown

Date: 3/13/2022

Description: This week's episode of eTown (from 2007) features critically-acclaimed singer/songwriter Joan Osborne, who returns with her musical collaborator Andrew Crillo (and with Nick and Helen and the etones as her back up band). In addition, the late, great Henry Butler brings his New Orleans tinged piano mastery back to the show.

Program: Sheroes Radio

Date: 3/13/2022

Description: Sheroes promotes gender equality in music, showcasing new voices and celebrating women who paved the way. New tunes Big Thief, SASAMI, Momma, and Lucius – Celebrate the birthdays of Candi Staton – Nancy Wilson (Heart), Melissa Auf Der Maur (Hole) – This week's Shero in the Spotlight is the wonderful, Veracruz, Mexico born Silvana Estrada, speaking of her upbringing, the traditional Venezuelan stringed-instrument the Cuatro, and her latest full-length record Marchita.

Program: Latin Alternative

Date: 3/13/2022

Description: More new music! This week a highlight of recent releases from Ozomatli, Omar Apollo, Los Bitchos, Fito Paez, Pahua, Los Autenticos Decadentes, Wiplash and more.

Program: KXT Arts Daybook

Date: March 14, 2022

Description: Producer Jackson Wissdorf reported on arts and cultural events and experiences in North Texas including - The South Dallas Cultural Center offered a free photography workshop led by Nitashia Johnson, the artist behind the photographic project "The Beauty of South Dallas." The workshop focused on using photography for storytelling and preserving history. North Texas Performing Arts Repertory Theatre presented "Disaster." The musical parodied the prolific disaster movies of the 1970s. It was accompanied by a soundtrack that features some of the disco eras biggest hits. The Southwest Regional Library in Fort Worth hosted the library's annual Adult Spelling Bee contest. The winning teams went on to compete against the winning teams from other local libraries. Fort Worth's St. Patrick's Day Festival happened on the Crockett Row and West 7th Street area. The outdoor bash featured rides, photo ops with miniature ponies dyed green, giveaways, and live local DJs.

Program: The Local Show

Date: 3/18/2022

Description: The KXT Local Show is a full hour supporting local music, curated, and hosted by KXT's Amy Miller, showcasing new and classic tunes from North Texas artists spanning a broad mix of genres, including hip hop, Latin, rock, blues, jazz, folk and R&B. Some of the local North Texas artists featured on this episode of the program included: Yells at Eels, and Smoking with Strangers.

Program: eTown

Date: 3/20/2022

Description: The "Duchess of Coolsville" herself, Rickie Lee Jones, makes her way back to the etown stage in this 'back by popular demand' re-airing (originally from 2007). Joining her as our second musical guest this week is Chris Smither, with tunes rooted in blues and folk.

Program: Sheroes Radio

Date: 3/20/2022

Description: Sheroes promotes gender equality in music, showcasing new voices and celebrating women who paved the way. Hear new tunes from Wet Leg, My Idea, and Oumou Sangare – Celebrate the birthdays of Miki Berenyi, Sister Rosetta Tharpe (!!!), and Chaka Khan – This weeks Shero in the Spotlight is multi-Grammy award winning singer, songwriter, and author Judy Collins.

Program: Latin Alternative

Date: 3/20/2022

Description: Brazil is the largest country in Latin America, and has big musical diversity as well! This L.A. highlights Brazilian rock, R&B, soul, power pop, funk, psychedelia and more. Featured artists include Glue Trip, Mano Brown, O Rappa, Lenine, Tuyo, Milton Nascimento, Arthur Verocai and more.

Program: KXT Arts Daybook

Date: March 21, 2022

Description: Producer Jackson Wissdorf reported on arts and cultural events and experiences in North Texas including - The Keller Public Library hosted author Paulette Jiles at the Bowden Center in Keller. She discussed her historical novel "News of the World" as part of the library's One Book One City program. The book was a National Book Award Finalist in the fiction category. North Lake College in Irving hosted Dallas-based artist Adnan Razvi in his first solo exhibition, "Floral Futurism." The show featured a mixed-media installation and twelve large-abstract paintings that combine calligraphy, typography, and graffiti. Echo Theatre play "In a Word" is the first show of its 2022 season. The comedy is about motherhood and how the words we use to describe tragedy can take on a life of their own. It was on stage at the Bath House Cultural Center in Dallas. The Jazz Age Sunday Social returned to Dallas Heritage Village after a two-year hiatus. The event featured all things vintage - including dancing, antique automobiles, a 'best dressed' contest, ice cream and music from Matt Tolentino and the Singapore Slingers.

Program: The Local Show

Date: 3/25/2022

Description: The KXT Local Show is a full hour supporting local music, curated, and hosted by KXT's Amy Miller, showcasing new and classic tunes from North Texas artists spanning a broad mix of genres, including hip hop, Latin, rock, blues, jazz, folk and R&B. Some of the local North Texas artists featured on this episode of the program included: Dirty Sheets and Remy Reilly.

Program: eTown

Date: 3/27/2022

Description: This week a load of eTown's favorite performances including Nanci Griffith, Chris Hillman, Ruthie Foster, KT Tunstall, and more!

Program: Sheroes Radio

Date: 3/27/2022

Description: Sheroes promotes gender equality in music, showcasing new voices and celebrating women who paved the way. Hear new tunes from Tank & The Bangas and Sudan Archives – Celebrate the birthdays of Aretha Franklin, Diana Ross, Sarah Vaughan, and Norah Jones – This week's Shero in the Spotlight is Canadian singer-songwriter, multi-instrumentalist, and producer Basia Bulat!

Program: Latin Alternative

Date: 3/27/2022

Description: This week L.A. celebrates several new Rosalía singles, plus the latest releases from Dorian, Mexican Institute of Sound, The Bongo Hop, The Coils, Pahuá, Marissa Mur & Alex Cuba, Cristóbal Briceño and more.

Program: KXT Arts Daybook

Date: March 28, 2022

Description: Producer Jackson Wissdorf reported on arts and cultural events and experiences in North Texas including - The African American Museum of Dallas presented an exhibition on the history of Black High School Sports in Texas during the time of segregation. The exhibition featured vintage uniforms, equipment, trophies and photographs. Shakespeare Dallas continues a classic movie series at Samuell-Grand Park. "Citizen Kane" screened Friday and "The Karate Kid" on Saturday. To celebrate National Women's History Month, Kettle Art in Dallas presented an all-woman show called "Mystique." The exhibition highlighted the persistence, acceptance, and beauty of being a woman. As part of Dallas Arts Month, five Dallas cultural centers presented the juried exhibition ART214. The multi-venue visual arts project showcased the work of artists who live in Dallas and the greater North Texas region.