

Issues and Programs List for KJPW Radio
Waynesville, Missouri
Period: April-June 2013

This list actually covers only a small portion of the issues dealt with by our station during the three-month period, April-June 2013. Issues are determined through our ongoing dialog with community leaders and local citizens. The staff at KJPW Radio attend local, government, and school public meetings. The station and station members are members of many community-wide events. Those who determine issues and ensuing programs to address those issues include, but are not limited to, General Manager Mike Edwards, Operations Manager Gary Knehans, News Director Warren Goforth, and staff members Jim Brown, Daniel Boucher, April Kelly, Eric Duncan, Skip Goforth, and Marv Luten.

| Issues   | Programs   |   |
|--|--|---|
| 1. Sexual assault cases are at an all-time high in the military.   | FORUM: The sexual assault coordinator at the Fort Wood hospital talked about sexual assault, sexual assault awareness, and how the Army is trying to address the problem.  | Apr. 12, 2013705 a.m.16 min.Local |
| 2. The Army was going to reduce its forces by 80,000 by 2020 and was deciding what troop reductions would happen at Fort Leonard Wood. | FORUM: The chairman of the Committee of 50, a Fort Wood support group, and the executive director of the Waynesville-St. Robert Area Chamber of Commerce talked about the importance of good attendance at a Department of Army listening session coming to Fort Wood and presenting a unified message of support. | Apr. 25, 2013705 a.m.16 min.Local |
| 3. Crime is increasing in Pulaski County, increasing the need for finding new ways to assist in fighting crime.                        | FORUM: The Pulaski County Sheriff appeared and discussed crime in the county, results of a series of community town hall meetings, and the creation of a crime hot line for citizens to call in tips anonymously.  | June 18, 2013705 a.m.16 min.Local |
| 4. A large part of the nation's huge problem with drug abuse involves misuse of prescription drugs.                                    | FORUM: The assistant chief of the pharmacy division at Fort Leonard Wood talked about a safe drug take-back program that was going to take place later in the month.   | Apr. 4, 2013705 a.m.16 min.Local  |
| 5. More than 42-million motorists were expected to take to the nation's highways this year, increasing the danger of accidents.        | FORUM: The information and education officer of Troop I of the Missouri Highway Patrol talked about holiday motoring and boating safety. He stressed observing speed limits, wearing seat belts, not drinking alcohol and driving, and to refrain for texting while driving.                                       | June 26, 2013705 a.m.16 min.Local |
| 6. Military children,  | FORUM: Two specialists from the  | Apr. 3, 2013                                  |

- |  |  |  |
|--|--|--|
|  faced with being uprooted several times because the reassignment of their military parent, often develop problems associated with this.       |  behaviorial health department at the Fort Leonard Wood hospital discussed problems associated with the stress of being a military child.    |  705 a.m.16 min.Local                    |
|  7. High unemployment and a slow economy continue to stress budgets of the family and elderly.   |  FORUM: A specialist with the Pulaski County Extension Office told about ways to make ends meet on a limited income budget.    |  May 7, 2013705 a.m.16 min.Local    |
|  8. Individuals need to learn about legislation passed by the state legislature.   |  FORUM: The local state representative from Waynesville talked about new legislation passed in Jefferson City, including an income tax reduction bill, anti-federal gun control legislation, and other bills.    |  May 13, 2013705 a.m.16 min.Local   |
|  9. The Armed Services Y-M-C-A recently moved into a new location in Waynesville, needing help in painting and making the site more amenable.  |  FORUM: A representative from Fox Sports Midwest talked about volunteers being needed for a cleanup effort and installation of playground equipment.   |  May 15, 2013705 a.m.16 min.Local   |
|  10. The Waynesville area is one of the more ethnically diverse sections of the state. There is always a need for continual dialogue.          |  FORUM: An international military student from Latvia, one from Guyana, and an advisor from the International Military Office at Fort Leonard Wood talked about participating in the annual IMSO golf tournament, about their countries, and about their experiences here at Fort Leonard Wood.    |  May 23, 2013705 a.m.16 min.Local   |
|  11. The Fort Wood area needs to improve civilian air transportation at Forney Air Field.    |  FORUM: The manager of the Waynesville-St. Robert Joint Civilian Airport talked about projects to continue expanding services at the airport, including installing a second runway. The federal government already has approved most of the funding for the project, but several Fort Wood agencies have not given permission to proceed.  |  Apr. 22, 2013705 a.m.16 min.Local  |

- |  |   |   |
|--|---|---|
| 12. The city of Waynesville is asking for input from citizens on several road projects.  | FORUM: The mayor of Waynesville talked about a public meeting with the Missouri Department of Transportation about improvements at the T-highway intersection with Old Route 66. She also talked about the project replacing the low water bridge near the Waynesville Middle School. | June 4, 2013705 a.m.16 min.Local |
| 13. Fort Wood area students need better access locally to institutions of higher learning.   | FORUM: The director of marketing for the Ozark Technical Community College talked about the approaching grand opening of the new OTC Center in Waynesville and the beginning of registration for fall classes.  | May 22, 2013705 a.m.16 min.Local |
| 14. The Marine Corps Detachment at Fort Wood needed to raise money for their Marine Corps Ball in November.  | FORUM: A member of the Marine Corps League and an active duty Marine at Fort Wood talked about their annual Volkslauf at which they hope to attract 1500 paid runners.  | May 16, 2013705 a.m.16 min.Local |
| 15. Government-mandated sequestration was going into effect with one of the biggest impacts locally to be the Defense Department furloughs set to take effect in July. | FORUM: The Missouri 4th district U. S. Congresswoman discussed sequestration and said that the White House has been designed to inflict the most pain rather than to eliminate unnecessary federal  | Apr. 8, 2013705 a.m.16 min.Local |