Noticias 23 a las 10pm	1-Aug	10pm	3:15	A person requested a loan from a financial agency, but this agency had sold his loan to another institution and he could lose his house due to non-payment. A real estate agent confirms that these practices are common and legal, which is why it is important to be attentive to each paper you sign to avoid inconveniences in the future. Since customer loans are a legal practice, it is important to know that the company you signed up with must notify you in writing that they are going to sell your credit and you have the right to request a payment plan for your loan. If this does not work, you can file a civil lawsuit claiming that you were never notified of the change in your loan. Evidence that shows that you tried to communicate with the financial company to pay them will be very important, otherwise you will be considered a delinquent client.
Noticias 23 a las 10pm	11-Aug	10pm	:35	Today was the launch for one of the most anticipated weekends for families in Texas, the purchase of school supplies, tax-free. It was established in Texas 24 years ago and represents help to the family economy. The Texas Comptroller's Office estimates that shoppers will save $136 million in taxes this weekend, eight dollars for every 100 they spend on school supplies. It also applies to those who choose to buy school supplies online.

Those who are in this group surely manage, like many, to make their money go a little further. A financial advisor explains what can be done to make better use of a fixed income. It is possible, but it entails some sacrifices and discipline. There are two options: cut unnecessary expenses or generate more income.

Noticias 23 a las 10pm	29-Aug	10pm	3:00	The difficult task of processing a food truck permit will soon be different in Tarrant County. A new law will go into effect on September 1st to centralize this process in the county health department. A representative of the city of Fort Worth and the county have said that this new process is intended to reduce the number of permits that these trucks need in order to operate in this county. However, those in this industry fear that the task will be too big for the county. Fort Worth alone has 800 food trucks according to the city, but the new legislation apparently does not provide additional funds for the county to hire more staff to help process this large number of permits.
Noticias 23 a las 5am	11-Sep	5am	4:00	Banks are charging more for transactions at ATMs and the charges increase depending on the city, which could reach up to a $5 transaction fee. According to a recent report from Bankrate Dot Com, Houston is the sixth city in the country with the highest charges when you use an ATM that is not in your bank's network. The Consumer Financial Protection Bureau has taken aim at some of the charges made by banks, calling them unfair and illegal. A specialist talks about what alternatives there are to avoid these super charges, such as electronic wallets which are becoming more and more common. The easiest way is to come to an ATM of your own bank that is not going to charge you a fee when you withdraw money. Networks such as allpoint or moneypass also prevent you from being charged money when you withdraw money.
Noticias 23 a las 11:30am	14-Sep	11:30am	:50	The three largest automobile manufacturers in the country have just a few hours left to reach an agreement with the workers union, otherwise the workforce of North Texas could go on strike tomorrow. Employees of the General Motors plant in Arlington are preparing for a work stoppage in case the manufacturers and the president of the United Auto Workers Union do not reach an agreement tonight. In addition, they recommend more exercise for children and young people who suffer from type one diabetes.
Noticias 23 a las 11:30am	10-Jul	11:30am	:45	The Dallas County Department of Health and Human Services confirmed the first case of West Nile virus this year. This virus is transmitted by mosquito bites, that is why it is important to take into account the following precautionary measures when outdoors: wear long-sleeved shirts and long pants. Also, eliminate any space where there is accumulated water both at home and at work so that mosquitoes do not reproduce. Avoid exposing yourself at times when mosquitoes are most active and use repellent with the ingredient “deet.”

Noticias 23 a las 10pm	16-Jul	10pm	2:22	Those who suffer from any heart condition should be extra careful this week. According to experts, heat can become an additional risk to your health because high temperatures make your body have to work harder to stay cool and the heart has to pump harder. A doctor explains that rapid heartbeat can put additional stress on the heart and worsen existing heart conditions. According to the CDC, about 695,000 people in the U.S. died from heart diseases in 2021. It's important to stay hydrated, avoid prolonged exposure to high temperatures, seek cool environments and take your medications.
Noticias 23 a las 10pm	20-Jul	10pm	:40	Health authorities confirmed two cases of West Nile virus infection in a human caused by the bite of a carrier mosquito. The first person is a man over 70 years of age, a resident of the city of Fort Worth. According to the medical report, the patient contracted the most serious neuroinvasive form of the disease. In the area where these people live, a carrier mosquito has been reported since last April. To date, 122 carrier mosquitoes have been located in the special traps that the city places at strategic points. The other case was in the City of Flower Mound in Denton County and his current state of health is unknown.
Noticias 23 a las 11:30am	25-Jul	11:30am	:47	Last April, the State of Texas began to redefine eligibility for Medicaid and, since then, hundreds of thousands of people have lost their coverage. Noticias 23 a las 5pm	4-Aug	5pm	2:25	Preparing your children mentally and psychologically for back-to-school can be just as important as buying school supplies. A clinical psychologist from the Dallas Children's Hospital emphasizes that kids can suffer from anxiety at school, not only at home. In addition, children can experience different precautions that could be chronic if they are not detected in time. This is why it's critical to ask them about their return to school, communication is key. Help your child feel prepared and establish routines to help reduce anxiety, but most importantly, show encouragement. If you feel that you cannot handle it, or that the symptoms increase, do not hesitate to seek psychological help.
Noticias 23 a las 10pm	16-Aug	10pm	:51	It is said that carrying more weight on your back can cause symptoms such as headaches and neck pain. In the long run, the problem could worsen. A chiropractor with more than 20 years of experience suggests taking the recommendation of the World Health Organization, which indicates that the highest recommended amount to carry is only 10 percent of the total body weight. In the part below the waist, children can feel an uncomfortable pain and sometimes don't talk to their parents about it because it's not too much pain. Nonetheless, after months it can cause the back to curve which becomes a more serious problem. It is advised to leave as much materials as possible at the school so students don't have to carry it every day.
Noticias 23 a las 10pm	25-Aug	10pm	3:52	Extreme heat can have long-term health consequences, such as skin cancer. A skin care specialist explains what should be done to avoid these consequences and how to detect signals in time. Any person could be exposed to skin cancer in the midst of high temperatures, but most people can show signs. There are several types of sunscreens, for example, one covers 98% of ultraviolet rays and costs $4.99. According to the CDC, skin cancer is detected mainly by presenting irregular lesions, scabs that bleed, and moles with raised textures that have geometric textures and brown like colors. Skin cancer is the most common cancer in the United States and one of the easiest to prevent if you just avoid direct exposure to the sun and use sunscreen.

Noticias 23 a las 5pm	29-Aug	5pm	2:33	The first ten medications through Medicare that will be under negotiations to lower their prices are already known and the list includes 10 different drugs that could see a drop in their costs. Although the program has the support of different sectors, it is already facing several complaints. This program was authorized by the Biden Administration's inflation reduction law that addresses the issue of 1 in 5 Medicare patients skipping their dose because they could not afford it. This process could represent real savings considering most people don't buy their medicines because they can't afford them. But finally, they will be able to do so. Drug manufacturers have one month to say whether they will participate or not, then prices are negotiated and must be published on September 1st of next year. If they do not comply, they will pay a tax or must withdraw their products from the market. New prices will come into effect in 2026.
Noticias 23 a las 5pm	30-Aug	5pm	:49	The Dallas County Department of Health and Human Services announces the current status of COVID-19 contagion, facing one of the highest risk seasons. They confirmed that so far 729,700 people have been infected and 7,170 have died. For this reason, they reinforce their call for the student community, parents, teaching and administrative staff of school districts to take precautions with the application of vaccines, reinforcements and, if possible, to wear face masks again. They are also asking educational districts to monitor the infections that occur in their schools and that in the event that someone tests positive, that the patient remains at home until they no longer present symptoms. Furthermore, they have advertised that if you get a vaccine or booster you will be eligible for a $25 gift card from a recognized self-service chain.

Noticias 23 a las 5am	1-Sep	5am	1:54	A drug overdose is something that can be life-threatening for the person experiencing it. However, the use of the new drug "Narcan", an over-the-counter drug that helps with an overdose, could mean a step between life and death. It's the first medicine, without a prescription, that is made to reverse opioid overdose. It is expected to be available in warehouses as soon as next week. Today, in the health minute, we will see where this medicine will be sold and what it will cost. Dr. Kevin Ban, Head of the Medical Office at Walgreens says that they will begin to have Naloxone, known by the generic brand name Narcan, available in their stores and online by September 5th. Narcan is the nasal spray version of Naloxone and can revive a person who overdoses in minutes. The suggested retail price is $44.99 per box, which contains two doses.

Noticias 23 a las 11:30am	26-Sep	11:30am	3:09	With the arrival of autumn comes the season of respiratory diseases, and a weapon to combat serious cases is antibiotics. However, one of the most prescribed medicines in the country, amoxicillin, is scarce in pharmacies today. The FDA says that there is no light at the end of the tunnel, less in the short term, since pharmaceutical companies have not increased their production and it is expected that more pediatricians will prescribe this antibiotic with the arrival of autumn. Because it is very likely that there will not be one in other pharmacies, that is where your health professional will have to decide if they will have to give you a different antibiotic or see what they are going to do. Amoxicillin is only available with a prescription and doctors do not recommend taking it without visiting a specialist first. Always do what your health professional recommends and don't self-prescribe because that's when you end up with a lot of problems at hand.

Noticias 23 a las 10pm	19-Sep	10pm	3:02	The Fort Worth school district is the latest to join a lawsuit by several school districts against the Texas Education Agency. The superintendent of the district stated they made the decision because the state is not playing fair with them. The list of school districts preparing to sue the state education agency continues to grow. The lawsuit was initially filed by 7 districts and has to do with the proposed changes to the system that grades them. FWISD states they are not opposed to a more rigid system that grades educational responsibility but do ask for transparency from the state. At the state level, there are more than 50 school districts who have joined the lawsuit.
Noticias 23 a las 11:30am	27-Sep	11:30am	3:00	The Fort Worth school district unanimously approved a study that could lead to school closures. The study seeks recommendations of adequate size, this means that its facilities are being underused because fewer and fewer students are enrolling. It is not feasible for the district to maintain excess facilities; smaller ones are more expensive to operate and also offer fewer academic programs. Therefore, the study will look for recommendations for the distribution of resources and this could cause schools to close. Once the results of the study are known, it will be presented to both the district and the community. The goal is to discuss the recommendations both with parents of district students and with the community.

TEXAS GOVERNMENT

Noticias 23 a las 10pm	10-Jul	10pm	3:52	After weeks of arduous negotiations between both chambers, everything seems to indicate that homeowners in Texas will have relief in paying property tax. This new agreement provides a respite to the finances of millions of Texans, hit especially hard in recent years by the cost of real estate, high mortgage interest rates and the same property tax. The constitutional amendment were introduced formally in the Senate and are expected to be approved this week, to be sent to the governor to enact the law. The amendment had to be approved by Congress at least 90 days before the November elections, for Texans to vote for or against it in those elections. If voters approve the deal, the cuts would begin with fiscal year 2023.
