Rock Springs police say they identified multiple victims who have reported sexual contact with the 79-year-old defendant and said they think there may still be more. The name of the man was not being released at the time.

Driving to Hospitals (aired 2/26/2014 @5pm, 2:00 minutes) – An alarming amount of people with heart attack symptoms are coming to the hospital in a car. According to a study from Utah’s Mountain Star Network, 96% of patients at one hospital in Utah County drove themselves or got a ride to the hospital when they thought they were having a heart attack. It was 80% of people at another hospital in Salt Lake. Doctors say most of those people should be arriving by ambulance. In our story, experts warned that every second counts when it comes to a heart attack and urge the public to call 911 rather than get their own ride to the hospital. Doctors say paramedics have all the equipment they need to help a heart attack patient. They can arrive to a home a lot faster than it would take for a person to drive to the hospital. It could also be potentially dangerous on the roads if someone is driving with a medical condition.

Pot Igloo (aired 2/27/2014 @5:30am, :20) – Four University of Utah students could face disciplinary action after a security guard says he found them smoking pot in an igloo. All four of the students could face academic sanctions including expulsion. This story lets viewers know about the pot bust, and the charges the students could face for getting caught.

Altice Arraignment (aired 2/27/2014 @6:00am, :20) – A Kaysville teacher accused of having sex with a 17-year-old student will hear the charges she faces in court today. Brianne Altice has been on paid leave from Davis High School since her arrest last October. This story updates viewers on the latest in the case.

Dating Violence Report (aired 2/27/2014 @5pm, 2:00 minutes) – A new survey from the Utah Department of Health shows one in every four high school students who dated in Utah last year experienced some sort of abuse. Those numbers have the health department and other violence prevention experts worried—and they’re now working to educate students. The health department is releasing a “relationship tool kit” they hope to get into every school across the state. Our story also gave some warning signs that a person is in an abusive relationship. Experts say the biggest obstacle in these situations is getting kids to talk about it. Many times they don’t realize they are being abused.

Drive-by Shooting (aired 2/28/2014 @6:00am, 1:30 minutes) – Salt Lake City Police are investigating after a late night drive by shooting. One man went to the hospital after having a panic attack. This story was new this morning, and updated viewers to a shooting that happened over night.

Fotu Sentencing (aired 2/28/2014 @6:00am, :30) – The man accused of obstructing justice in a triple murder investigation will be sentenced today. Davis Fotu plead guilty to the charges against him. Police say Fotu was inside a Midvale home when David Fresques went room to room shooting and killing three people. This story updates viewers on the case.

Missing Kids (aired 03/03/2014 @10pm, 2:30 minutes) – Breaking news about two missing children. Police in Taylorsville say a 12-year-old boy did not return home from school. They are worried he might be in danger because he has a mental disability. West Valley Police are looking for a 12-year-old girl who also did not return home from school. Both police departments are asking for the public’s help in finding the two children.

Two Runaways Found (aired 03/03/2014 @10pm, 2:30 minutes) – Four teens escaped from a center for troubled youth in Draper last night. Police found two of the suspects but are still searching for the other two. Investigators say the teens ran across the freeway, stole a car and then went on a joy ride. This story lets our viewers know that officials do not believe the teens are dangerous but explains that officers still want to find them. This story gives the suspects names and description and tells viewer what to do if they see the teens.

Yellowbear Arrest (aired 3/6/2014 @6:00am, :40) – Police arrested a man in West Valley early this morning who was wanted for parole violations. 29-year-old Tyson Yellowbear had a brief standoff with police before coming out on his own. Police tracked him to a house. Yellowbear was wanted for parole violations on a homicide, from a drug deal in 2006. He will also face charges for a restricted person possessing a gun. This story updates viewers to an early morning confrontation with police.

UVU Arrest Video (aired 03/06/2014 @10pm, 3:30 minutes) – A Utah Valley University student says unnecessary force was used when she was arrested for writing on a campus map. Ginger Anderson says she wrote on the map because it was wrong and students were getting lost. When university police approached her about writing on the map, she claims she tried to explain what happened and couldn't believe they were going to arrest her for something so small. Officers told her she would need to go to the office with them and she would be issued a citation. When she refused and continued to ask questions, an officer pushed her up against the wall, then threw her to the ground and handcuffed her. The whole incident was captured on the cops' lapel camera. She claims the use of force was excessive. University police and the sheriff's office conducted an investigation and say Anderson was passively and actively resisting arrest.

Last Two Teens Found (aired 3/7/2014 @6:00am, :40) – Police say they have found the last two missing boys who escaped from a center for troubled teens in Draper. Two of the boys were found last night just after 10pm. The boys left the Genesis Youth Center Tuesday night. This story updates viewers to where the boys are and what will happen to them next.

Cell Phone Bill (aired 03/10/2014 @10pm, 2:45 minutes) – A state lawmaker is proposing a bill that would make it illegal to use your cell phone while driving without using a hands free device. That means the driver would not be allowed to dial a phone number, email, or send a text message while behind the wheel. The new measure would also make using your cell phone while driving a primary offense in the state of Utah. This story explained how the law would work and how likely it is to be signed into law.

Burglary Arrest (aired 3/11/2014 @5:30am, :35) – A man is behind bars in Cache County, facing burglary charges for allegedly stealing appliances and other items from several homes. 29-year-old Roy L. Meyer was linked to a stolen truck and breaking into several homes and cabins across Northern Utah. This story updates viewers to a crime that happened in their area.

Give Trucks Space (aired 3/14/2014 @5pm, 1:30 minutes) – Salt Lake City Police are rolling out a new campaign to make drivers more aware of commercial trucks. The campaign is called "Trucks Need Space" and police hope they will save lives by getting the word out. Through the campaign, police want drivers to be aware that the stopping time for a large truck is much greater than a passenger vehicle. Police are seeing more cars cutting trucks off in traffic, which can often have fatal results. Truckers say if other drivers follow simple driving rules, it can help everyone avoid accidents. Salt Lake City police encourage the public to visit their website and pledge to drive more carefully around big commercial trucks.

BYU Groper (aired 03/18/2014 @10pm, 2:15 minutes) – BYU Police are on high alert tonight as evidence points to the possibility of a serial groper on campus. There have been more than six attacks on BYU's campus since the beginning of the year. Investigators say it seems the cases are getting progressively worse, from simply touching women inappropriately as they walk on campus to breaking into their apartments. This story explains what exactly has been happening, where the attacks have taken place and gives a description of the suspect.

Shell Robbery (aired 3/20/2014 @5:30am, :40) – Unified police are looking for a man that robbed a Shell gas station overnight. Police say the robber walked in the station located at 4111 South Redwood Road, claimed he had a weapon, and took cash. This story updates viewers to a crime that happened overnight.

EDUCATION:

Teachers Take Gun Class (aired 1/3/14 @4:00pm, 1:25) - Dozens of Utah teachers used part of their winter break to earn their concealed weapons permit. Organizers of the classes say they created the teacher focused seminars to help keep schools safe. Opponents say arming teachers sends the wrong message to students.

Preschool Funding (aired 1/16/2014 @5pm, 1:30 minutes) – The Salt Lake County mayor wants the legislature to put up some money for a program to help poor children read. If the proposed program got funding, Salt Lake County, United Way and the Granite School District would take kids who are poor and score low on tests and put them in a preschool. Goldman Sachs would pay the costs for schooling upfront. And if the kids are doing well enough by third grade, taxpayers would then pay the money back to Goldman Sachs. Mayor Ben McAdams claims educational success would eventually save taxpayer money. But some groups don't like the plan, and will fight it before the legislature.

New Education Adviser (aired 01/22/14 @4:30am, :30) – Governor Gary Herbert announced who will be his new Education Adviser. Herbert has chosen Utah State School Board Member Tami Pyfer. This story lets viewers know about an update to the Governor's staff.

Tuition Protest Dollars (aired 01/23/2014 @5:00am :25) – A University of Utah student says he paid his tuition bill with two-thousand one-dollar bills to protest the rising cost of college. Undergraduate in state tuition rates have more than doubled in Utah over the past 10 years. This story lets viewers know about one student's creative way to protest.

Uintah Lunch Follow (aired 02/04/2014 @10pm, 2:30 minutes) – School district officials and parents are meeting together after students' lunches were taken away and thrown in the trash. The school board heard from parents who are asking for immediate change following the controversial decision. Parents acknowledged that the students had a negative account balance when the lunches were taken and trashed but said no child should ever have their lunches taken away from them. The school district agreed and announced changes that will take effect immediately. This story explains the policy change to the viewers and keeps them informed on a story that sparked a lot of interest in the community.

Sundays @7 (aired 2/12/14 at 6:50am for 3:00 minutes) - The School of Music for the University of Utah spoke in studio about their "Sundays@7" program. They also performed to showcase their talent. They talked about how the program allows students and aspiring musicians to perform for people on a regular basis. They showed people where they could go at the University to go see the performances. They explained why this is a good program for students at the music school.

Charter Schools (aired 2/17/14 at 7:30am for :30) - The Salt Lake Tribune reports that Representative Rich Cunningham says that charter schools can build wherever they want and it's hard for cities to regulate the schools. Others say that Cunningham is just siding with a wealthy land owner who lost some land to a charter school because the school needed a canal built through his property. Cunningham says he wants to change the rules so that Utah cities have more control over the schools.

WJ Parents (aired 2/19/14 at 7am for :45) - Some parents in the Jordan School District are worried that the district is considering closing down a school that's been around for more than 30 years. The parents gathered to come up with a plan to stop the closure. After voters turned down a bond proposal that would have paid for new schools, the Jordan School Board formed a committee recently to see how best to use their school buildings to solve a big overcrowding problem at some schools.

School Buses (aired 2/19/14 at 7:30am for :30) - One school district is toying with the idea of using cameras on school buses to catch traffic law violators. The Daily Herald says the Alpine School District has a camera installed on one bus. It can get a picture of the car, plates, and face if someone tries an illegal pass. They say the goal isn't to get money from tickets but to keep kids safe.

Elizabeth Smart Supports Child Sex Education Bill (aired 2/19/2014 @4:00pm, :50) - Elizabeth Smart testified before a House committee about the importance of educating kids on sex abuse. Smart said that many kids don't know they have an option to say no to their abuser. The committee approved the bill, and sent it to the full house for consideration.

California Drought (aired 1/31/14 @4:30pm, 1:30) Roughly 90% of California is experiencing drought conditions. Water levels at several lakes and reservoirs are below 40%, and water sports businesses say the drought is hurting their business. Elsewhere, farmers say the lack of water is making it more expensive to grow crops. Analysts expect higher produce prices this summer.

Stericycle Study (aired 02/11/2014 @10pm, 2:30 minutes) – A new health study shows elevated cancer rates in the area surrounding the medical waste incinerator, Stericycle. This facility has sparked heated debate among community members who believe the incinerator is emitting harmful pollutants into the air. According to the new study, the elevated cancer rates probably has nothing to do with Stericylce but residents say the study is further proof that the facility needs to go.

Stericycle Study (aired 2/14/14 at 7:30am for :30) - Opponents of the medical waste incinerator Stericycle tried to reject a state health study on cancer rates surrounding the facility. The health department's study found the elevated cancer levels people experienced around the facility were not those caused by exposure. People who lived around the plant at the time wanted Stericycle shut down completely, but the state legislature passed a bill to get them moved.

Clean Air Bills (aired 2/19/14 at 7am for :30) - Lawmakers have their own view of their work done on clean air during the legislative session. The Utah House's bipartisan "clean air caucus" says Utah lawmakers approved a record number of bills in an effort to tackle the state's air pollution issues. They also say lawmakers approved 4.7 million dollars aimed at improving air quality.

Pollution Laws (aired 2/19/14 at 7am :30) - Utah advocates are calling for more laws to cut pollution and are handing out grades to lawmakers. The groups graded Governor Gary Herbert and state legislators for their efforts to address air quality during the 2014 legislative session. The governor earned a "B" and lawmakers in the house earned a "B-" but the senate got a "D". They say the governor and house made some moves for cleaner air but gave the senate the "D" after a measure to strengthen state regulators' power failed to get a vote.

Stericycle Officials Talk (aired 02/19/2014 @10pm, 2:30 minutes) – The Stericycle medical waste incinerator in North Salt Lake is one step closer to leaving town. A house committee advanced a bill today that would give the green light to building a new facility in Tooele. Representative from Stericycle spoke for the first time on-camera about the controversy surrounding their facility. This story continues to follow the ongoing battle between people who live near the incinerator and the company who operates the facility.

Driving Tax Credit (aired 2/25/14 at 7am for :30) - A new bill offering an income tax credit if you buy monthly transit passes during bad air months was introduced to the state legislature. The bill offered credits for buying transit passes through January, February and July - the months when inversions and pollution are usually the worst. The credit would be 25% of the cost of passes, up to $50.

Drought Help (aired 02/25/2014 @5:30am, :25) – Governor Gary Herbert is asking the Federal Government for more help during drought season. Herbert pressed President Obama on the topic during a meeting. This story lets viewers know what their lawmakers are doing about water issues.

Mussel Infestation (aired 2/25/2014 @5pm, 1:30 minutes) – The dropping water level at Lake Powell has revealed an alarming discovery—thousands of invasive clams are attached to canyon walls, the dam and other structures. These clams could end up costing taxpayers millions of dollars. The Quagga mussels colonize on its body so it builds up layer after layer in water pipelines, and eventually clog the pipeline. Water officials say to try and prevent that, they will use chemicals in the pipeline to try and kill the clams.

Environmental Concerns (aired 03/04/2014 @10pm, 2:15 minutes) – Dozens of Utah businesses have less than four months to comply with the new clean air regulations and for some companies this could mean buying thousands of dollars in new equipment. This story explains the new regulations and lets our viewers know that the state has money to help them make the changes. This is an ongoing effort by the state to try and clean up the state's bad air quality.

Mass Transit Bill (aired 3/5/14 at 7:30am for :30) - A proposal is defeated that would help clean Utah's air by encouraging more mass transit riders. The Salt Lake Tribune says lawmakers ended talks to give a tax credit to those who buy transit passes during months where the inversion is at its worst. Opponents say the bill failed because it made the state give more money to mass transit as taxpayers pay for as much as 80% already.

Hive Pass (aired 3/6/14 at 7am for 45 seconds) - The sale of UTA's new "hive pass" is off to a great start, but only people in Salt Lake County can get their hands on it. Riders get an all access pass for less than a dollar a day. There has been a big push from some to get more people on public transportation to help keep the air cleaner.

Wildfire Season Worries (aired 3/6/2014 @5pm, 1:30 minutes) – Wildfire officials in Southern Utah are planning for what could be a very active fire season. Their main worry is dry conditions because of a lack of snowpack. In Southwest Utah, the snowpack has dipped to just 47% of normal, so firefighters are preparing now for possible wildfires this summer. The rains last fall also resulted in a bumper crop of invasive grasses in the lower areas, providing supercharged fuel for fires. Fire officials may put fire restrictions into place as early as mid-May. They are asking the public to get prepared and make sure there is defensible space around their homes.

PUBLIC SERVICE:

KEYS 2 SUCCESS

January 2014 – May 2014

KUTV partners with local automotive dealer Ken Garff and Mountain America Credit Union to provide educational incentives to earn "keys" for academic achievements. Five hundred "keys" will be given out at each of the 50 participating schools. At the end of the school year, one key in each school will start a car that a student will win. A total of five cars will be given to high school students throughout Utah. This year, the campaign was re-energized through additional promotional material including a student run newscast instructional video explaining the Keys To Success Program. KUTV is supporting the campaign with extensive on-air coverage, production and promotion. Our purpose in promoting this campaign is to show KUTV's commitment to youth in education.

BEST OF STATE

February 2014- March 2014

KUTV ran a commercial schedule to encourage Utahns to vote for the Best of State award categories online. The Best of State Awards were created to recognize outstanding individuals, organizations and businesses in Utah. By recognizing excellence in our community and sharing examples of success and triumph in so many worthy endeavors, we hope all will be inspired to reach a little higher, to try a little harder, and to work a little smarter for our dreams and goals. Judging is based on overall excellence, superiority and quality of a nominee's products, services or performance which nominees display to differentiate themselves from their competition. KUTV's involvement is to highlight the nominee's accomplishments to improve the quality of life in their community and state, and their efforts to make the world a better place.

SOUPER BOWL OF CARING

Child poverty and hunger are reaching alarming levels in Utah. More than 170,000 Utah kids are eligible for free school breakfasts and lunches and another 50,000 are eligible for reduced cost meals. Tragically these students are not eating well on the weekends. They should eat seven meals between Friday lunch and Monday breakfast, but they don't. KUTV launched the Souper Bowl of Caring on January 13, 2014 and the campaign ran through February 14th. For the entire length of the campaign, we ran commercials and stories about the problem of child hunger in Utah and encouraged viewers to donate money on kutv.com. On Friday, January 31, we held a telethon from 6a-1045p to raise funds. Volunteers from sponsors manned the phones all day and took pledges. We had company spokespeople involved with news interviews in every single newscast. The response was overwhelming and we exceeded our goal.

KUTV/INTERMOUNTAIN ASK THE EXPERT

At KUTV, we are committed to helping Utahns get key information and resources they need to make informed decisions which will lead to healthier lifestyles. We found a partner who is committed to creating a state where all people can enjoy the best health possible, where all can live, grow and prosper in healthy and happy communities. Together, we created an interactive event with the public providing the community with a high profile public service message through interaction with a mass audience. We have created "Ask the Expert" – an opportunity to conduct community conversations surrounding healthcare.

"Ask the Expert" is a franchise which includes TV commercials, news stories, an infothon and experts who provide professional health information. In conjunction with Intermountain Healthcare, KUTV holds an "Ask the Expert" event on the second Tuesday of every month in 2014. During these infothons, viewers are encouraged to call in and seek medical advice from professionals. Volunteers from Intermountain man the phones all day and take questions. We have company spokespeople involved with news interviews in every single newscast. This effort includes KUTV, KMYU and kutv.com.

GOVERNOR'S STATE OF SPORT AWARDS

The 2014 the Governor's State of Sport Awards celebrates Utah's sports industry. It honors excellence in high school, amateur, collegiate, Olympic and professional sports for the 2013 calendar year. KUTV runs commercials encouraging viewers to vote as well as conducts interviews with the nominated athletes to bring awareness to their achievements. We hope that through our partnership, we raise awareness of the talent, skill, personal and team achievements related to sports, in our community.

CHECK YOUR HEALTH

On-going - KUTV solidified a long term partnership with the Department of Health & Intermountain Healthcare. This partnership includes a media buy on KUTV & with Simmons Radio Group. We run commercials and stories to encourage viewers to make good choices, be active and eat healthy. This campaign has a broad range that we are reaching - male, female, old and young.

BABY YOUR BABY

On-going - KUTV solidified a long term partnership with the Department of Health & Intermountain Healthcare. This partnership includes a media buy on KUTV & with Simmons radio group. This campaign focuses on women 18-35, sharing the message of seeing your doctor 13 times during your pregnancy and by the 13th week you are pregnant. We cover stories, have in-studio interviews and maintain multiple social media platforms.

60 MINUTES

"The Cleantech Crash" - a report on the economic feasibility of clean technology ("Cleantech"), an ongoing effort by the energy sector to create and use energy alternatives to fossil fuels. Despite billions in taxpayer dollars invested by the U.S. government under the Obama Stimulus Act, Washington and Silicon Valley have been confronted with more failed companies, such as Solyndra, than success stories, such as Tesla. Includes interviews with: Vinod Khosla, investor; Steven Koonin, former Energy Department Undersecretary and physicist; Robert Rapier, chemical engineer; and Pin Ni, president of Wanxiang America Corporation. (C: Lesley Stahl – P: Shachar Bar-On)

"Hollywood's Villain" – an interview / profile of Kim Dotcom, an internet entrepreneur who created "Megaupload", a file-sharing website which eventually allowed users to access copyrighted films, music, books and video games. The U.S. government filed an indictment against Kim for copyright infringement, racketeering and money-laundering and has requested his extradition from New Zealand, where he resides in his mansion. Also includes interviews with Eriq Gardner, senior editor at The Hollywood Reporter, Wayne Tempero, Kim's head of security and Shawn Henry, fmr. executive assistant director of the FBI. (C: Bob Simon – P: Michael H. Gavshon, David M. Levine)

"Volcano" – a report on three of the earth's active volcanoes: Eyjafjallajokull in Iceland, Vesuvius in southern Italy and the supervolcano beneath Yellowstone National Park in the United States. Includes interviews with volcanologists Haraldur Sigurdsson, Mike Sheridan and Giuseppe Mastrolorenzo. Also includes comments by 60 MINUTES cameraman Aaron Tomlinson. (C: Scott Pelley – P: Nicole Young)

Update: "Crackdown in Russia" (OAD: 03/24/13)

01/12/14

"The Case of Alex Rodriguez" – a report on the details of the evidence involved in the full season suspension of New York Yankees slugger Alex Rodriguez for perceived use of banned performance enhancing substances. Major League Baseball (MLB) has suspended the third baseman for all of next season, which is the longest doping suspension to date. There is no positive drug test for Rodriguez and he has repeatedly denied ever using performance-enhancing drugs during the years he played in New York. Major League Baseball's chief witness against him, Anthony (Tony) Bosch, founder of the former Florida clinic, Biogenesis, says he injected Rodriguez with banned substances and shared text messages from Blackberry "BBM" messages as confirmation. Includes interviews with: Anthony Bosch; Rob Manfred, chief operating officer of MLB; and Joe Tacopina, Rodriguez's attorney. Includes an excerpt from a radio interview with Rodriguez on WFAN by Mike Francesa. (See also: "A-Rod", OAD: 12/16/07) (C: Scott Pelley – Producers for Part I: Michael Radutzky, Andrew Bast, Emily Rand; Producers for Part II: Michael Radutzky, Emily Rand, Andrew Bast) DOUBLE LENGTH SEGMENT

"Memory Wizards" – a follow-up report on people who have "superior autobiographical memory" – which entails the ability to recall details from almost every day of one's life. Since the initial report in 2010, the number of persons known to science who have this rare capability has grown from six to more than fifty, including the first child whom scientists have seen with this astonishing ability. Includes interviews with Dr. James McGaugh, professor of neurobiology at University of California Irvine (UCI); and Aurora LePort, UCI researcher. Also includes new interviews with the previous interviewed memory wizards: Bob Petrella, Marilu Henner, Louise Owen -- and the new subjects: Joey DeGrandis, Tracy Fersan, Jerrard Heard, and Jake Hausler, a 10-year-old accompanied by his parents, Sari and Eric Hauser. Also includes comments by Tyler Hickenbottom, an 11-year-old with superior memory and his twin brother Chad, who does not have this ability. Also includes comments by his wife, Mavis Leno and comedian, Tim Allen. (See also: "Here's Jay Leno!" OAD: 03/15/92) (C: Steve Kroft – P: Ruth Streeter)

48 HOURS

01/04/14

48 HOURS - "Death at the Parsonage" - a report on the suicide of Joseph Musante; the eventual discovery of his wife, Cindy's secret affair with A.B. Schirmer, the pastor of the Reeders United Methodist Church in Reeders Pennsylvania; and the eventual investigation to determine if the deaths of the pastor's previous wives were really accidental. Musante's sister, Rose Cobb, knew something wasn't right and pressed authorities to keep looking. Musante's daughter, Samantha, told police that she had discovered the affair between her mother and Schirmer and had told her father. In the course of the investigation, police determined that Musante's death was truly a suicide but this led to questions regarding the death of the pastor's second wife, Betty Schirmer, just three months earlier in an auto accident. Further investigation determined her death to be suspicious and police suspected Schirmer. Questions then arose about the death of Schirmer's first wife, Jewel. The cause of her death, from a fall, was initially classified as undetermined, but was now ruled a homicide. A.B. Schirmer was arrested and charged with the murder of his second wife, Betty. At trial, A.B. Schirmer was found guilty of murder. Cindy Musante continues to stand by him. On Screen Text Graphic: Schirmer is awaiting trial for the murder of his first wife, Jewel. Sam's mother, Cindy told the court she believes "one hundred per cent" in Schirmer's innocence. Interviewed: Rose Cobb, Musante's sister; and Samantha, Musante's daughter; detectives Jim Wagner and Wendy Serfass; Julie Campbell and Amy Wolfgang, Schirmer's daughters by his first wife Jewel; Betty Schirmer's sisters Sandy Weikel and Tina Fultz; good Samaritan Stan Dickerson; Dr. Wayne Ross, medical examiner; Schirmer's attorney Brandon Reish; and Prosecutor Mike Mancuso. (C: Richard Schlesinger - P: Sarah Prior, Chuck Stevenson)

PREEMPTION

48 HOURS - "Perilous Journey" - an investigation into the sometimes questionable practices in the business of international adoptions; the lengths some families will go to in order to bring children home to the United States; and how some overseas facilitators walk a fine line between adoption and child trafficking. This broadcast focuses on (1) Ryan and Jeri Lynn Owen's journey to the Democratic Republic of Congo, the questionable practices of the adoption agency Celebrate Children International (CCI), they had chosen, and their ultimate success in adopting their children Ava and Zoey. (2) The story of Betsy Emanuel and her attempt to adopt a child from Guatemala, through the same international adoption agency, CCI. This ultimately led to the discovery of Guatemalan children being in effect abducted for adoption. Emanuel travels to Guatemala to meet a mother whom Emanuel helped to reunite with the children who were taken from her and placed for adoption. (3) The practices of the international adoption agency Celebrate Children International, a small Florida agency, run by Sue Hedberg. On Screen Text Graphic: 3 months after the Owens left Congo, local officials suspended all new adoptions. Just Last November Ava and Zoey's orphanage was destroyed in a fire. No children were injured. If CCI is not Hague-accredited by July, it will no longer be able to initiate international adoptions.

Interviewed: adoptive parents/CCI clients Ryan and Jeri Lynn Owen; adoptive parent/CCI client Betsy Emanuel; satisfied CCI client Sarah Grandstaff; Guatemalan mother Mildred Alvarado; investigative reporter/CBS News Consultant Erin Siegal; State Department Special Representative Susan Jacobs; adoption consultant Duni Zenaye; Congolese orphanage operator Elizabeth Fochive; Congolese attorney Jean-Baptiste Kombo; Sue Hedberg, operator of the agency Celebrate Children International. (C: Maureen Maher - P: Joshua Yager, Doug Longhini, Jonathan Leach, Ana Real)

01/25/14

48 HOURS: "A Bad Bet" - an investigation into the deaths of South Carolina sports bookie Brett Parker's wife, Tammy Parker, and his associate, Bryan Capnerhurst, who Parker claims he shot while Capnerhurst was attempting to rob Parker's safe. Though sports betting in South Carolina is illegal, Brett Parker and his father ran an honest family bookmaking operation that was generally left alone by police. At first police took Parker's story at face value, but as the investigation continued, they discovered a co-worker (Capnerhurst) with financial problems who was demanding money he was owed from Parker, and a marriage not as solid as they were led to believe. Police determined that Capnerhurst was a victim, rather than a killer, and that the adulterous Parker had murdered his wife, in part to collect on a life insurance policy. At trial, he was found guilty on two murder charges and sentenced to two consecutive life sentences with no parole. On Screen Text Graphic: Four months after the murder conviction, Brett Parker and his father Jack were indicted on federal charges of operating an illegal gambling business. Brett Parker was sentenced to two years. His father Jack was sentenced to five months. Interviewed: Brett Parker's parents Jack and Linda Parker; his daughter Brooke Parker; Angela Rickard and Angela Leon, friends of Tammy Parker; Tammy Parker's mother Libby Carswell; Sheriff Leon Lott; investigator Stan Smith; Brett Parker's attorney Dave Fedor; and medical examiner Dr. Bradley Marcus. (C: Richard Schlesinger - P: Pamela Mason Wagner, Chris Young Ritzen)

48 HOURS

48 HOURS: "Over the Edge" (9:00-10:00p) - a report on the investigation into the 2009 disappearance of Dawn Viens, and why her husband, California chef David Viens, jumped off a cliff when he became a suspect in her disappearance. David Viens ran a successful restaurant in Lomita, California, working in the kitchen while Dawn was the hostess. After Dawn vanished, Viens promoted a young waitress, Kathy Galvan, to take Dawn's spot at work and in his personal life. Dawn's friends and family members turned to the police and a local newspaper reporter, Larry Altman (now a CBS News consultant) for help. Police worked methodically on the case, discovering that before moving to California, David was involved in the drug trade in Florida, and had helped authorities bust up a drug ring. After more than a year, as police were closing in, a frightened David Viens opened up to Kathy Galvan: he confessed that he killed Dawn, but claimed it was an accident. Then he recklessly drove on a California coastal highway, with Galvan in the car, to a scenic overlook, and jumped off a 200-foot-high cliff. Surprisingly, Viens survived the fall. His story was that Dawn had started using cocaine and crystal meth. They fought, and David Viens bound her (something he had done in the past), taping her mouth to keep her quiet, and went to sleep. He awoke and found her dead. While in the hospital he told police an incredible tale of disposing of Dawn's body in the way a chef knows best, by cooking her. He boiled her body in a pot for four days, broke down what would not boil down, and threw it away in the trash.

Nineteen months after his leap, a wheelchair-bound Viens was in court to face murder charges. The defense said that Dawn's death was an accident -- manslaughter, not murder -- and that he did not cook her. After a two-week trial, David Viens was found guilty of murder. On-screen text graphic: Dawn Viens' body has never been found. David Viens is eligible for parole in 2023. Interviewed: Kathy Galvan, girlfriend/employee; David Papin, brother of Dawn Viens; Larry Altman, reporter, The Daily Breeze / CBS News Consultant; Joe Cacace, local businessman/friend; DEA agent Derek Pollock; Randy Barnett, Manatee County (FL) Detective; Richard Garcia, L.A. 48 HOURS: "Death at Soho House" (10:00-11:00p) - a report into the death of swimsuit designer Sylvie Cachay and her ties to the son of an Oscar-winning songwriter. Sylvie Cachay was a rising swimsuit designer, working with top companies like Victoria's Secret, before launching her own line of swimwear. In 2010, she was found dead and partially clothed in an overflowing tub at the Soho House in New York City. Police learned Cachay had checked into the hotel with her boyfriend, Nicholas Brooks, the son of troubled Academy Award-winning songwriter Joseph Brooks. Although there was an empty bottle of prescription pills nearby, the on-scene medical examiner found marks on Sylvie's neck that suggested strangulation and the investigation quickly turned to Brooks. He was arrested. At trial, Brooks was found guilty of second degree murder. Through interviews with Cachay's family and friends, a picture of a successful woman with everything to live for is revealed, but one who was also having second thoughts about her much younger boyfriend. Nicholas Brooks' sister, Amanda Brooks, discusses their childhood, how their family was torn apart by divorce and how their father's famous name and his own troubled life brought nothing but notoriety to the case. On-screen text graphic: Nick Brooks is appealing his conviction arguing the jury should have heard his "rough sex" allegation. District Attorney Vance's domestic violence initiative will be fully operational this spring and he expects to help thousands of women each year. Interviewed: publicist Lesa McHale; photographer and Sylvie's former fiancé Ben Baker; parents Dr. Antonio and Sylvia Cachay; brother Patrick Cachay; cousin Françoise Jakobsson; designer Alicia Bell; trainer Cheri Fogelman; Cachay family attorney Susan Karten; former NYPD detectives Robert Moller and Tommy Jones; former Soho House night manager Bryan Alvarez; Soho House employee Kristen Stephens; Amanda Brooks; Nicholas Brooks' attorney Jeffrey Hoffman; Brooks' family friend Lynn Barrie; Loretta Spruell, victim of Joseph Brooks; Manhattan District Attorney Cy Vance; and 48 HOURS consultant/journalist Murray Weiss. 48 HOURS: "The Country Club Murders" - a report on professional poker player Ernie Scherer III, the chief suspect in the 2008 murders of his parents, Charlene and Ernest, in their Castlewood Country Club home in Pleasanton, California. Ernie's motive was financial gain: he was to receive over $2 million if his parents died. He was facing financial pressure from his gambling debts and the loan he was paying back to his parents for the condo he lived in with his wife and young son. During the course of the investigation, police discovered that Ernie was involved with various other women, and always spent lavishly. At the scene, police discovered an odd clue: bloody footprints intentionally left as part of a staged crime scene. Police questioned Ernie, but with no forensic evidence to tie him to the crime, they were unable to arrest him. Later, when new evidence came to light, Ernie had vanished. After a cross country spree of nearly one year, police, with the help of Ernie's wife, were able to apprehend and arrest him for the murder of his parents. His trial in January 2011, ended in a guilty verdict. On-screen text graphic: Ernie Scherer is serving two consecutive life sentences. Catherine Scherer has set up a scholarship in her mother's name at Cal State East Bay. Charlene taught there for more than 30 years. Updated on-screen text graphic for the 08/04/12 rebroadcast: Ernie Scherer has filed an appeal. Updated on-screen text graphic for the 02/08/14 rebroadcast: Ernie Scherer is serving two life sentences. Ernie Scherer's appeal and his petition to the California Supreme Court to review his conviction has been denied. Interviewed: Catherine Scherer, daughter of Charlene and Ernie; Robyn Scherer, Ernie Scherer III's wife; Scott Dudek and Mike Norton, Alameda County Sheriff's Department Detectives; Michael Nieto, Prosecutor; Adrian Solomon, girlfriend of Ernie's; Pamela Nichols, another girlfriend; Robert Brentlinger, owner, Master at Arms casino; Billy Krauss, piano player and friend of Ernie's. 48 HOURS: "Pain and Gain" - a report about the crimes of the Sun Gym gang, a group of Miami, Florida drifters, petty thieves, and bodybuilders who kidnapped and killed wealthy people to fuel their lifestyle, which provided the inspiration for the recently released black comedy motion picture "Pain and Gain". The story began with the disappearances of Frank Griga and his girlfriend Krisztina Furton in 1995. Police investigation led detectives to a connection to the Sun Gym, a Miami health club, and its manager Danny Lugo and his protégé Adrian Doorbal. Police would discover that they were at the center of a complicated and deadly plot which involved kidnapping, money, and murder. Lugo's girlfriend Sabina Petrescu played a crucial role as police gathered evidence connecting Lugo and Doorbal to the disappearance of Griga and Furton. In a bizarre twist, detectives in another Metro-Dade police department were also looking into Lugo and Doorbal in the kidnapping case of another Miami millionaire, Marc Schiller. Schiller told police that he had been grabbed by a gang and held for more than a month. Schiller also worked out at the Sun Gym, which provided the connection to Lugo and Doorbal. The plan was to kidnap Marc Schiller - a man who had many shady dealings -- have him write his own ransom note, and then kill him. There were several stupid attempts involving costumes, comic book code names, and a staged accident -- all of which provided Hollywood with inspiration for the movie. While imprisoned, Schiller was forced to sign over his assets to the gang. They went through the money in about five months and decided to find a new target: Frank Griga. Almost four years after Marc Schiller was left for dead, he faced the Sun Gym gang in court, as Danny Lugo and Adrian Doorbal went on trial for the murders of Frank Griga and Krisztina Furton. They were found guilty of first-degree murder. However, Marc Schiller's ordeal was not over. He was arrested by the FBI on charges involving Medicare fraud. In another twist, the trial judge, Alex Ferrer (now a TV personality), described how important Schiller's testimony was in bringing down the Sun Gym gang. In a plea deal, he ended up serving two years in federal prison and paying $137,000 in restitution. On screen text graphics: Lugo and Doorbal remain on death row. Lugo and Doorbal have appealed their convictions multiple times over the past 15 years. Once their appeals have been exhausted, Florida's governor will sign a death warrant and they will be executed by lethal injection. Updated Text Graphic for 02/22/14 rebroadcast: Lugo and Doorbal continue to appeal their death penalty convictions. Frank Griga's sister and their mother inherited his multi-million dollar estate. Interviewed: Zsuzsanna Griga, Frank Griga's sister; retired homicide detectives/CBS News consultants Sam Garafalo and Felix Jimenez; Patty Barrientos, co-worker of Danny Lugo; Marc Schiller, victim; Miami-Dade prosecutor Gail Levine; Judge Alex Ferrer; private investigator Ed DuBois; State Attorney of Miami-Dade Country Katherine Fernandez-Rundle. #### 48 HOURS

03/01/14

48 HOURS: "The Last Confession" - a report on the investigation into the 1960 murder of Irena Garza, in McAllen, Texas, and the efforts family members and police have taken to bring the suspect, a Roman Catholic priest to trial for the crime. The night before Easter, Irene Garza went to church and disappeared. Five days later she was found dead in a canal. Police said she was sexually assaulted and suffocated. There was one immediate suspect, Father John Feit, the priest who admitted to hearing Garza's confession that night, but who has denied any involvement in the murder. Noemi Ponce Sigler, the original investigator's daughter, says her father was told to step away from the case because a deal had been made between the Church and the police regarding Feit. In 2002, the McAllen Police Department asked the Texas Rangers Cold Case unit to re-examine the murder. The investigation took a dramatic turn when a former monk, Dale Tacheny, told police that Feit admitted to killing a young woman while Tacheny was a counselor at a monastery. Joseph O'Brien, an assistant pastor at the church in 1960 also told investigators that Feit told him that he did it. Despite these new findings, Hidalgo County District Attorney Rene Guerra doesn't believe the case is strong enough to take to court, though he would have prosecuted Feit in 1962 on the charges. Members of the Garza family have pinned their hopes on Ricardo Rodriguez, a candidate for Hidalgo County District Attorney, who has said he would look into the case. On-screen text graphic: The primary election for Hidalgo County District Attorney is Tuesday. 48 HOURS: "The Blue River Murder" - a report on the investigation into the 2010 death of Stephanie Roller, a Colorado mother of three who allegedly went for a walk during a blizzard and was later found dead in a nearby river. According to Roller's husband, Dale Bruner, she packed up her laptop and headed out for a walk during a blizzard. He waited 11 hours before calling police to report her missing. Friends, as well as the police, found the story strange. Three days later, she was found dead in the Blue River, the victim of a brutal murder: she had been badly beaten and was still alive when thrown into the water. The police investigation uncovered: a marriage on the brink of collapse, Stephanie's emotional affair with Ron Holthaus, and her concerns for her safety and that of her children. Police had three suspects - the jilted husband, the married boyfriend and the boyfriend's jealous wife. Ultimately, the focus turned to Dale Bruner as the chief suspect when information was discovered regarding his dark, violent side, and eight months later he was arrested for the murder of his wife. In 2012, he was convicted at trial. On-screen text graphic: Dale Bruner will be eligible for parole in 2072. He would be 110 years old. Interviewed: Dale Bruner; Police Officer Theresa Barger; friends of Stephanie Roller, Jennifer and Mike Voxakis; Bruner's best friend, Brad Olivanti; District Attorney Mark Hurlbert; Colorado Bureau of Investigation Agent Gene Sadar; Bruner's defense attorney Rob Bernhardt; and Jodi Eberhardt, former girlfriend of Dale Bruner. 48 HOURS: "Fateful Connection" - a report on the investigation led by a determined detective to solve a 30-year-old cold case involving two young women who went missing in Florida, in 1982. Amy Hurst and Wendy Huggy did not know each other. Hurst and her new husband, Bill Hurst, had recently moved to Pasco County, Florida, leaving her two young children in the care of relatives in Michigan. Then she just disappeared. Sixteen-year-old Wendy Huggy lived with her grandparents in Pasco County, and went to a party - she never returned home. A fisherman found a body floating in the Gulf of Mexico, wrapped in a homemade afghan, but identification proved difficult. There was no connection made to either woman, although Hurst's husband was immediately viewed as a suspect in her disappearance -- but he too disappeared, and both cases languished for decades. Detective Lisa Schoneman, a member of the cold case unit, stepped in and a new investigation began. In 2009, Amy Hurst's son discovered significant evidence about the afghan, through the Doe Network, and a body in a Tampa, Florida potter's field once thought to be Wendy Huggy's was examined. In 2011, it was determined to be that of Amy Hurst. Investigation led to her husband, Bill Hurst, who was in Kentucky. Police were able to get Hurst into custody, and he was indicted on first degree murder charges -- he was found guilty. Detective Schoneman says she will keep trying to find Wendy Huggy. On-screen text graphic: William Hurst will be 85 when he becomes eligible for parole. Interviewed: Pasco County (FL) Sheriff's Office Detective Lisa Schoneman; Wendy Huggy's aunt and uncle Patti Spragg and Robert Richards; Angelyn Chester, a friend of Wendy Huggy's mother; Coast Guard member Greg Stout; Amy Hurst's niece, Laura Champine, her son and daughter Lisa Stewart and Jeff Earley, and her sister Sharon Nijhof; Elmer Kruse, a neighbor of Bill Hurst's; Dawson Spring, Kentucky Police Captain Craig Patterson. 48 HOURS: “aka Rockefeller” - a report about the mysterious life of Christian Gerhartsreiter, a con-man, who pretended, since he came to America from Germany, to be a bond trader, a TV producer, a baronet and even Clark Rockefeller, a member of the famous and wealthy Rockefeller family. In 2008, Gerhartstreiter, then claiming to be Clark Rockefeller, made headlines when he abducted his 7-year-old daughter. The Rockefeller family made it clear that he was not a part of their family. What he was, according to police, was a killer on the run. His arrest in the kidnapping case blew the lid off a 30-year con. All the other identities he had used came to light including the alias he was living under in 1982 in San Marino, California: Christopher Chichester, the 13th Baronet of Chichester. San Marino police believe he murdered John and Linda Sohus, who disappeared in 1985. Years later, the bones on John Sohus were found in the backyard of the house where they lived. At the time, Christopher Chichester lived in the guest house on the property. He went on trial for the murder of John Sohus and was found guilty. On-Screen text graphic for original and rebroadcast: “Rockefeller” fired his lawyers and filed his own petition for a new trial. The judge denied the motion. His daughter is now twelve-years-old. She has no contact with her father. Interviewed: Christian Gerhartsreiter; Vanity Fair reporter/48 HOURS consultant Mark Seal; journalist and former friend Walter Kirn; Linda’s best friend Sue Coffman; former boss Richard Barnett; Lt. Dan Allen of the San Marino, California Police Department; Los Angeles County Sheriff Lee Baca; Los Angeles County Sheriff’s Deputy Tim Miley; FBI Special Agent Tammy Harty; forensic pathologist Dr. Frank Sheridan; prosecutor Habib Balica; John Sohus’ sister and brother Ellen Sohus and Chris Sohus. 48 HOURS: “ryanferguson@lifeafterten” (9:00-10:00p) - a followup to “Dream Killer” (OAD: 02/18/06), “The Lost Night” (OAD: 03/26/11), and “The Accuser (OAD: 02/23/13), all dealing with the case of Ryan Ferguson, who was released from prison in November 2013, after nearly 10 years behind bars for the murder of Ken Heitholt, a Columbia Daily Tribune sports editor who was killed in 2001. Correspondent Erin Moriarty and the 48 HOURS team have been investigating the murder and the bizarre circumstances that put Ryan Ferguson in prison for the crime since 2006 and were with Ferguson when he was released from prison. Details of the case, which were presented in the original broadcasts, are interwoven into this report along with past interviews. Also included are new interviews with Ryan Ferguson; his parents, Bill and Leslie Ferguson; his attorney, Kathleen Zellner; his accuser, Charles “Chuck” Erickson; and his new girlfriend Myka Cain. Ultimately, Erickson, even after confessing, believes that he was not responsible for the crime and has a new attorney, the interest of the Midwest Innocence Project and the support of Ryan Ferguson. For now, Ferguson is concentrating on what he will do now: he is thinking about going back to college and may follow his father into the real estate business. On-screen text graphic: Ryan Ferguson has written a book that will be published in 2015. If Charles Erickson's appeals fail, his earliest parole date is March 2026. (C: Erin Moriarty - P: Gail Abbott Zimmerman)

48 HOURS: "Last Chance" (10:00-11:00p) - an interview with Damon Thibodeaux, who was wrongfully convicted of the 1996 murder of his 14-year-old cousin Crystal Champagne and who spent 11 years in Louisiana's notorious Angola prison.

Thibodeaux, a distant cousin who was staying with the Champagne family was immediately questioned by police after the girl disappeared. After nine hours of interrogation, he confessed to murdering - and raping - the girl. Thibodeaux says he confessed to police after an intense interrogation and because he was sure he would be cleared during trial. When he met with attorneys hours later, he denied having anything to do with the crime. At the 1997 trial, he was convicted and sentenced to death by lethal injection, even though none of the 84 pieces of physical evidence were ever tied to him. His case caught the eye of attorney Denny LeBeouf, who specializes in cases getting inmates off death row. LeBeouf sought the help of Minneapolis attorney Steve Kaplan. Their investigation revealed that Crystal Champagne had never been raped. Together, they came up with a risky plan to present their evidence to Jefferson Parish District Attorney Paul Connick. Connick agreed - to re-examine the physical evidence and Thibodeaux was freed two years later. 48 HOURS interviewed various individuals to piece together what may have happened to Champagne. On-screen text graphic: After Thibodeaux was released he earned his GED. He now works for a commercial trucking company. Thibodeaux was invited to testify before Congress about conditions on death row. Last year he became a grandfather. Interviewed: Damon Thibodeaux; his attorneys Denny LeBeouf and Steve Kaplan; Chrystal Champagne's mother Dawn Champagne; private eye Jen Vitry; John Tomlinson, family friend who found the body; retired forensic pathologist Fraser Mackenzie, psychologist Dr. Michael Welder, attorney Barry Sheck of the Innocence Project; and son Josh Thibodeaux.
