

Date	Time	Issue	News Story Regarding	Duration in Seconds
12/27/23	7am / 8am / 9am	Government	The Denmark Township Board of Trustees is withholding additional payment to the engineering firm behind the 2015 Volunteer Assessment Water District Project.	64
12/24/23	7am / 8am / 9am	Government	Jackson-based Consumers Energy expects to break ground next spring on phase two of its Cross Winds Energy Park – part of a new $250 million investment that will bring 52 new wind turbines to Tuscola County.	74
12/20/23	7am / 8am / 9am	Charity	Angila Heinitz figures it's great the Feed the Children organization is donating 1,000 backpacks – filled with school supplies, snacks and age-appropriate reading books – to homeless students in Tuscola County	34
12/17/23	7am / 8am / 9am	Charity	The Child Advocacy Center of Tuscola County will have its fourth annual golf outing "Tee Fore Kids" at 9 a.m. Friday, Sept. 23 at Vassar Golf & Country Club.	87
12/13/23	7am / 8am / 9am	Charity	Gene Urcan figures the Vassar Rotary Wine Walk benefitting Coats for Kids on Sept. 10 is bigger and better this year, and he figures Vassar is, too.	90
12/10/23	7am / 8am / 9am	Schools	Ron McCollum had more seniority as a teacher than several of his co-workers, but he lost his job and they kept theirs Monday night when the Cass City Public Schools Board of Education cut costs.	54
12/6/23	7am / 8am / 9am	Crime	A Vassar man could be sentenced to up to 30 years in prison after he pleaded no contest Monday to possession and conspiracy to deliver an estimated $50,000 worth of heroin out of a Reese apartment last Thanksgiving.	90
12/3/23	7am / 8am / 9am	Government	Consumers Energy has filed applications with the Federal Aviation Administration for 55 new wind turbines in Columbia Township, a result of several factors accelerating development of Cross Winds Energy Park II.	89
11/29/23	7am / 8am / 9am	Government	Voters in Almer, Ellington, and Wisner townships canned their supervisors in Tuesday's primary — a day when relatively few voters effected what could be big change for the area.	64
11/26/23	7am / 8am / 9am	Government	Ten people are running for five seats in Ellington Township, where several candidates say the issue of wind turbines and regulations related to them have opened their eyes to the need to be more involved in local government.	94
11/22/23	7am / 8am / 9am	Safety	People like Kevin Hollosy and Ron Woloshen remember amazing summer days when Caro Lake was an active waterway – kayaks and canoes, families on pontoons, fishermen, even an occasional boat with water-skier in tow.	89
11/19/23	7am / 8am / 9am	Government	Attorneys for Juniata Township are being asked to review potential changes to the township's blight ordinance – including raising the fees for return visits to residents who refuse to clean up.	43
11/15/23	7am / 8am / 9am	Government	A federal court judge said Air Advantage hasn't given enough reason to get 90 more days to respond to a U.S. government claim that the company defaulted on $13.9 million in loans.	61
11/12/23	7am / 8am / 9am	Crime	A Vassar man facing life in prison in connection with the Thanksgiving 2015 fatal overdose of his girlfriend shouldn't be held responsible for her death, an attorney argued Tuesday.	90

Master

11/8/23	7am / 8am / 9am	Safety	Officials from five townships that contract the Caro Fire Department for fire protection services are renewing contracts expiring June 30 – and continue developing plans for a new fire authority, even one that could exclude Caro.	58
11/5/23	7am / 8am / 9am	Schools	Caro Community Schools’ district policies are “way out of compliance” with current laws, an expert told district officials Monday.	124
11/1/23	7am / 8am / 9am	Government	Leaders of this northeast Tuscola County township want voter approval before borrowing money to pay for a new township hall – despite resident Walter Kloc’s offer to donate land for the building.	82
10/29/23	7am / 8am / 9am	Crime	Six people from Tuscola County face charges related to the illegal manufacture of methamphetamine, as local law enforcement continues cracking down on the crime.	111
10/25/23	7am / 8am / 9am	Crime	The six face a total of 21 charges of purchasing/possessing A Vassar man already facing life in prison was charged with another crime last week.	45
10/22/23	7am / 8am / 9am	Government	Questions raised Thursday by a member of the Almer Township Planning Commission in Gilford Township shed light on what happens when a wind turbine project comes to town.	80
10/18/23	7am / 8am / 9am	Safety	Three medical runs rang into the Reese Fire Department Tuesday morning but it took dispatch four attempts on each before firefighters could roll, due to lack of an available repsonder	67
10/15/23	7am / 8am / 9am	Environment	The odds may be against the young Chinook salmon released into Squaw Creek in this Tuscola County town on Saturday, but the kids in Akron-Fairgrove Junior/Senior High School have given them a chance.	100
10/11/23	7am / 8am / 9am	Government	Twenty-two people have filed paperwork to run for a total of 12 elected positions on the August primary ballot in Almer and Ellington townships.	130
10/8/23	7am / 8am / 9am	Government	At least one new member will be on the Tuscola County Board of Commissioners after November’s election – one of several possible changes that could come about.	52
10/4/23	7am / 8am / 9am	Environment	The Flint water crisis could speed up testing and cleanup of contaminants headed straight for the Sebewaing River.	60
10/1/23	7am / 8am / 9am	Government	The Ellington Township Board of Trustees enacted a four-month moratorium on wind turbines at a special meeting Monday	61