

The following issues affecting our community and surrounding areas were discussed on our radio talk show "Over The Back Fence" on KFUN/AM 1230. &KLVF/FM 100.7

FCC PUBLIC FILE:

MONTH OF OCTOBER 2014:

October 2, 2014: Guest was Dr. Cathy Stauber, host of the program, "To Your Health". Her topic was, Blood viscosity. Know what our blood type is. Learn how that affects your brain's health. Learn what's in your blood. Learn what healthy foods to eat that affect our blood and brain. Talk duration, 8:05 a. m. to 8:55 a. m.

October 2, 2014: Guest, Mr. Richard Lindeborg, member of First Presbyterian Church announcing their 2014 Enchilada dinner set for 10/9/14 held every year at the Hillcrest Restaurant, which the owners donate the free use of the facilities. The Mustard Seed program is a fund raising program to raise funding which individuals or organizations can apply for to plan and or start a project that will benefit the community and its citizens. This event has been sponsored by the church for the past 30 years and we at our radio stations do our shard by promoting the event every year as we have for the entire time the program has been in existence. People buy tickets at only $10 each for adults and $5.00 for children. Lunch is served from 11 a. m. to 1:30 p.m. and dinner is served from 4:30 p. m. to 7 p. m. A large number of citizens enjoy this event and really come out in support of the event. Talk duration, from 9:08 a. m. to 9:18 a. m.

10/3/14: Lea Knutson, director of the Hermit's Peak Water Alliance. She and many community volunteers have been very active and supportive of the rehabilitation and realigning of the river banks, river natural landscaping using native non evasive plants that encourage healthy, clean water quality for human consumption, animal and plant life. The Gallinas river is the main water source for our community. As a fund raiser and to promote water education to our citizens, the alliance hold yearly events. The alliance also seeks out and applies for grant funding from different sources which funding is all applied to river restoration efforts. Their projects support all city projects and efforts to protect our water source. Talk duration. 8:05 a. m. to 8:28 a. m.

10/3/14: Radio show, "What's Cooking at City Hall." Guest was Mr. Floyd R. Lovato, city planning and zoning coordinator. He have a brief report of city zoning ordinances, how people can comply with the ordinance, and he spoke about community development for the city and reminded business owners it was time to renew business licenses. For information, people can call Mr. Lovato at the city at 426-3272. Talk duration, 8:30 a. m. to 9: a. m.

City staff, Annette Velarde and Floyd Lovato. They spoke about the city state KAB, (Tos No Mas) program to encourage citizens not to throw trash out in the community and to pick up trash when they see it on streets, sidewalks an parks. Trash throwing by the public is a big community problem. They talked about the Water Olympics, art tour all part of the city Christmas parade. The city is preparing for the coming New Mexico state legislative secession, the city has for many years always sponsored the "Vegas Night at the Legislature" event where our city, county, university and schools, chamber of commerce all set up an informational booth. Legislators attend the function as well. They announced that a movie company will be filming a movie in our town on February 26, 2014. Talk duration, 8:10 a. m. to 8:55 a. m.

10/6/14: Guests were, Mr. Vidal Martinez, Vice president of Instruction at Luna Community College. Staff faculty Betsy Sanchez and Nichole Collins both with the Science and Engineering Technology Department. ETC. Talk duration, 8:35 a. m. to 8:50 a.

10/10/14: City of Las Vegas Mayor Alfonso Ortiz, Ken Garcia, city utilities director with an update on city water projects. Bradner Dam rehabilitation and expansion, funding for the project including fixing of Peterson Dam, both are vital water sources for our community and are in need of much work. They informed the community about water line replacement projects that are in the city planning stages, ETC. Talk duration, 8:08 a. m. to 9 a. m.

10/14/14: Guests were, Christella Vallejos and Veronica Chavez announcing the establishment of a new business, Amber care which offers Personal health care and Hospice care. Their phone number is (505) 425-9504. Talk duration, 9:10 a. m. to 9:30 a. m.

10/16/14: Guest was, Corilia Ortega Advocate and Education coordinator for New Mexico Highlands University with(HU Cares) Announcing a candle light vigil for Domestic Violence. Interested people may call her at 454-3529. Talk duration, 9:05 a. m. to 9:30 a. m.

Mr. Rob Larranaga and Katie Withnell both with the Las Vegas National Wildlife Refuge. They announced a planned workshop for private landowners to be held at the Rio Mora National Wildlife Refuge in support of the efforts of the Hermit's Peak Watershed Alliance and their long time work in protecting and preserving our natural water sources. This is a free public event. Talk duration. 9:30 a. m. to 9:45 a. m.

10/20/14: Staff from Luna Community College. Mr. Moses Marquez, Recruitment Director. Jesse Gallegos, College Public Relations Director, DE. Pete Campos President, (New Mexico State Senator). Jenny Arguello, Office Manager & Recruitment, Cindy Branch, Administration. They promoted the 2014 college Night event in combination with New Mexico Highlands University scheduled to take place October 21, 2014. This is a yearly event between both colleges to attract and enroll more students from the entire state including from other neighboring communities and states. Talk duration 8:15 a. m. to 8:45 a. m.

10/21/14: Mr. Christian Montaña, candidate for magistrate judge in the 2014 general election. He simply introduced himself to the community, explained his platform, offered his past experience as a former city police officer and city police chief. Talk duration, 9 a. m. to 9:30 a. m.

10/23/14: Dr. Cathy Stauber, Topics of discussion. The study of yoga and its benefits for people with cardiac failure. Genetics is not all the answer. Spinal surgery, reverses paralysis. Talk duration. 8:10 a.m. to 8:45 a. m.

10/31/14: Lieutenant Louie Mares. Lieutenant Mark Tafoya, both men with the city fire department. Informing the community about: Fire safety in the home or place of business. Safe and proper use of wood stoves, (do not over heat). Street safety measures during Halloween as children will be out walking for trick or treat. Adults should accompany children who should wear bright, light colored and reflective clothing, parents use flash lights and use extreme caution when crossing streets. Talk duration 8:15 a. m. to 8:40 a.m.