COVID-19 PANDEMIC
RADIO HEALTH JOURNAL, SEGMENT 2: The next step in beating the COVID-19 pandemic may be stepped up contact tracing and quarantine of people who've had contact with COVID-positive individuals, and Dayton, OH is not an exception. However, many people see that as too expensive and intrusive to be practical. An expert discusses how it might work, and how it might not.	7/5/2020	5:30 AM	00:07:45
RADIO HEALTH JOURNAL, SEGMENT 2: Doctors already say they're burned out, but the COVID-19 pandemic is making it worse. A noted physician educator discusses how burnout starts with the way future doctors are taught. With 29 hospitals and medical organizations located in the Miami Valley, this discussion is relevant for the Dayton region.	7/19/2020	5:30 AM	00:07:19
RADIO HEALTH JOURNAL, SEGMENT 1: State and local public health officials have been under pressure like never before in the COVID-19 pandemic, as citizens and elected officials push back against tough restrictions designed to curb the virus. Some officials have even been threatened. Feeling their bosses don't have their backs, a higher proportion of officials are quitting than normal, and these essential jobs will be hard to fill with qualified health experts. With the pressure put on Dr. Amy Acton as a chief Gov. Mike DeWine adviser, this topic is relevant for the Dayton region.	7/26/2020	5:30 AM	00:12:31
RADIO HEALTH JOURNAL, SEGMENT 1: Many school districts are delaying decisions on whether students will attend in person or will be taught remotely once again to reduce the risk of COVID-19 to children and staff, including the Dayton Public Schools. Experts discuss the methods under consideration to lower risks and whether that will be enough to open for classes.	8/9/2020	5:30 AM	00:13:03

RADIO HEALTH JOURNAL, SEGMENT 1: Development of a Coronavirus vaccine is proceeding at a breakneck pace. What needs to happen to make sure it's safe and effective? And if a vaccine is successfully made, who should get it first? Will enough people opt in to get back to normal life, or will COVID-19 be with us for years? Experts discuss. This is a topic of great interest in Dayton, Ohio as people want to know when they can get back to normal lives.	8/16/2020	5:30 AM	00:13:08
RADIO HEALTH JOURNAL, SEGMENT 1: With Ohio state-wide mandatory masks order and faces hidden behind masks for COVID-19, we are losing some of the visual information we depend on for smooth communication. Experts discuss the awkward encounters and specific looks we're likely to misinterpret when we can't see other people's mouths.	8/23/2020	5:30 AM	00:12:52
RADIO HEALTH JOURNAL, SEGMENT 2: Children are living through a scary time right now and often have little understanding of why their world has been turned upside down. A noted public health expert explains what he's found about children's concerns of the pandemic and how parents can answer their questions. .	9/20/2020	5:30 AM	00:07:01

CULTURE/ETHICS
VIEWPOINTS, SEGMENT 1: The Texas Rangers (no, not the baseball team) but the western law enforcement agency dating back to 1823 is known for patrolling the rugged Texas terrain. For almost 200 years, its members have protected tiny towns along the border and have helped solve numerous crimes and corruption throughout the state. However, the valiant group also has a darker history filled with corruption, murder and violence against minorities. Author and journalist Doug Swanson joins Viewpoints this week to share the full picture of the famed Texas Rangers. A captivating episode for the Daytonians who love history.	7/5/2020	5:00 AM	00:10:04
WHIO REPORTS – Demand for Change (Racism as Public Health Crisis): This edition of WHIO Reports will focus on a resolution making its way through state and local governments, declaring racism as a Public Health Crisis.	7/5/2020	6:00 AM	00:24:30
WHIO REPORTS - DFC: Local Organizations Involved: This edition of WHIO Reports will focus on furthering the Demand For Change. This week will be talking about how local organizations can get involved.	7/12/2020	6:00 AM	00:24:30
VIEWPOINTS, SEGMENT 2: When you think of a cult, what image pops into your head? Is it one of violence or extremism? Is it people in all white praying and worshipping a guru? What exactly defines a cult? We answer these questions and more this week on Viewpoints.	7/19/2020	5:00 AM	00:10:32

CULTURE/ETHICS
VIEWPOINTS, SEGMENT 2: Scientology – is it a religion, spiritual group, business organization? The group was created in the 1950’s and is headquartered in Los Angeles. There’s been much mixed media coverage about Scientology, but, still, most people know little about the claimed religion. We speak with a former member about her involvement and the people who commit their faith, time and money to Scientology. With Southern Ohio considered the Bible Belt, this is a topic of interest for residents.	7/26/2020	5:00 AM	00:07:48
WHIO REPORTS - Social Justice in Miami Valley: This edition of WHIO Reports will focus on the Demand for Change and the need for further social justice in the Miami Valley.	8/2/2020	6:00 AM	00:24:30
VIEWPOINTS, SEGMENT 1: There are millions of Americans who live together as husband and wife, but never become formally “married.” What are their rights? Who gets the house, the car and the bank accounts if the relationship ends or one of them passes away? We speak with a contract and family law attorney who has written extensively on the subject to find out how society and the courts views co-habitation relationships. We also cover what steps co-habiting couples should take to still be recognized by the law. An episode that might prompt Daytonians to check on the co-habitation relationships law in Ohio.	8/9/2020	5:00 AM	00:10:56
VIEWPOINTS, SEGMENT 1: When Dutch forces surrendered to the Germans in May of 1940, the Nazis gained control of the Netherlands and set in action a plan to exterminate hundreds of thousands of Jews and minorities. Arguably, the most famous voice from that region is Anne Frank – the young teenage girl who wrote of her daily life in hiding until she was discovered in 1944 and died in the Bergen-Belsen concentration camp. While Anne Frank is a prominent voice, there are many other stories of those who hid out for years, evading capture and awaiting freedom. Daytonians love history, in fact, the Dayton Playhouse put on an adaptation of the original play in 2015.	8/16/2020	5:00 AM	00:10:21

VIEWPOINTS, SEGMENT 1: For most people this year, traveling seems like a distant memory. Getting on a plane, taking a train or even using public transport on a daily basis has been largely abandoned with COVID-19. But once it is safe to travel again – where’s the first place you’d like to go? Acclaimed travel guide, writer and TV host, Rick Steves joins Viewpoints this week to share how you can get the most out of your travels and fully immerse yourself in the local culture, people and history. A captivating episode for the Daytonians who love history.	8/23/2020	5:00 AM	00:09:36
VIEWPOINTS, SEGMENT 2: Rewind back to 1896 aboard the voyager ship, the Herbert Fuller. Just a week into the journey, three people aboard were murdered and there were multiple suspects. The murder trial that follows is historic and helped shape modern law today. Residents in Dayton have a strong interest in history, as well as unsolved mysteries, making this an interesting issue in Dayton.	8/23/2020	5:00 AM	00:09:28
WHIO REPORTS – Dayton Gets Real: Social Justice: This week’s edition of WHIO Reports will focus on social justice and the efforts being made to change the way society views justice in the Dayton region, the state and across America.	9/13/2020	6:00 AM	00:24:30
VIEWPOINTS, SEGMENT 2: Suffering from a travel bug that can’t be quenched this year? Chicago writer, Jessica Mlinaric believes that if you look hard enough you don’t have to leave your town or city to experience something new. We cover some of the interesting, historical sights around Chicago and how you can explore your own area. With Chicago being only 5 hours away from Dayton, OH, this makes a great weekend trip for those who live in the Miami Valley.	9/20/2020	5:00 AM	00:08:18

VIEWPOINTS, SEGMENT 2: We've all received spam calls and fishy-looking emails that promise us a free vacation or a great bargain that's too good to pass up. Sometimes they even come from a phone contact or your boss asking for help or to download an attachment. Author and comedian, James Veitch has made a name for himself by replying to these scams and continuing the conversation, effectively wasting the scammers time as much as they waste ours. We speak with him about his trade and the major telltale signs to look out for in a scam.	8/16/2020	5:00 AM	00:08:49
VIEWPOINTS, SEGMENT 1: It's only September and this year's wildfires in California are already worse than last year with still months left in peak fire season. We explore the growing challenges facing Californians and what the future holds for The Golden State. With the 2019 Memorial Day tornadoes devastation, there are many ways how Daytonians can personally relate to this story.	9/6/2020	5:00 AM	00:09:35
VIEWPOINTS, SEGMENT 2: Today, ex-government employee, Edward Snowden is recognized around the world for his role in leaking highly classified information about government mass surveillance. We explore the benefits and consequences of modern surveillance and how both private business entities and governments are acquiring information from millions of Americans. The Dayton area is home to a large military base (Wright-Patterson AFB) making this a very relevant topic for residents.	9/6/2020	5:00 AM	00:09:31

VIEWPOINTS, SEGMENT 1: Hurricane Laura ramped up to a Category 4 hurricane late last month and was the strongest storm to hit the Louisiana coast in more than a hundred and sixty years. Each year, the most powerful storms during the Atlantic hurricane season typically form between the end of August and early October. We speak with two experts to better understand the history of hurricanes and the destruction they wreak each year. While the impact of the hurricanes on Ohio is usually minimal and limited to mild winds and rain, many Ohioans travel to the Atlantic coast every year.	9/13/2020	5:00 AM	00:11:14

HEALTHCARE/MENTAL HEALTH ISSUES
VIEWPOINTS, SEGMENT 2: While some of us still prefer pen and paper, many younger people are shifting to everything digital. And it's not just for to-do lists or communication, but also using platforms like Instagram, Twitter or Facebook as a daily, reflective 'online diary'. However, sometimes this vulnerability in such a public setting can lead down a slippery slope, especially when living in a smaller community like Dayton, OH. We discuss the pros and cons of candidly sharing your life on social media.	7/5/2020	5:00 AM	00:08:23
RADIO HEALTH JOURNAL, SEGMENT 1: Studies show that people with autism are twice as likely as others to engage in substance abuse, contrary to previous belief that they are extremely unlikely to use drugs or alcohol. An expert and an author who has used alcohol to cope with his autism discuss the developments and their impact. With Dayton, OH being the epicenter of the opioid crisis for multiple years in a row, this discussions is relevant to those who live in the Miami Valley.	7/5/2020	5:30 AM	00:12:20
VIEWPOINTS, SEGMENT 2: Millions of Americans have embraced plant-based meat like the Impossible Burger, but how do you feel about real meat that's grown in a petri dish in a lab? If the taste, texture and smell exactly resembled meat that was traditionally farmed outside, would you eat it? Lab-grown, cell-cultured chicken, beef and pork is set to hit the mass market in just a few years. What's the science and process behind this new technology? With many counties in the Dayton area being farming communities, this is a topic of much interest.	7/12/2020	5:00 AM	00:08:32

HEALTHCARE/MENTAL HEALTH ISSUES
RADIO HEALTH JOURNAL, SEGMENT 1: Therapists report an increase in orthorexia, a not-yet recognized eating disorder where people become fixated on eating only healthy things and/or exercising hours per day. It can take over an afflicted person’s life and result in physical symptoms much like anorexia. Experts discuss diagnosis and treatment. With Dayton, OH being a home of multiple sports events each year, including one of the largest marathons in the region (USAF Marathon) that attracts athletes from all over Ohio, this topic is relevant for the local audience.	7/12/2020	5:30 AM	00:12:50
RADIO HEALTH JOURNAL, SEGMENT 2: Summer is tick season, and tick bites are common. However, bites from a couple of types of ticks can produce paralysis and even death if the tick is not removed quickly. An expert discusses. How to prepare and be safe while hiking in the parks or being outdoors in the Miami Valley?	7/12/2020	5:30 AM	00:07:15
RADIO HEALTH JOURNAL, SEGMENT 1: Osteoporosis is increasing as America ages. However, fewer people are being tested for bone density and are agreeing to treatment because of side effects of osteoporosis medications. Experts discuss the devastating effects of increased broken bones and what can now be done to prevent them. With Dayton, OH being a home of close to a hundred of retirement communities, this topic is relevant for the local audience.	7/19/2020	5:30 AM	00:12:33
RADIO HEALTH JOURNAL, SEGMENT 2: Mental health experts once believed that children were too young to remember traumas well enough to suffer much from post-traumatic stress disorder. Now they know that children as young as 2 or 3 can be affected, often for the rest of their lives. An expert discusses PTSD in children and its treatment. With multiple tragic events that happened in Dayton, OH last year (Memorial Day Tornadoes, Oregon District shooting, etc.), this topic is relevant for the local audience.	7/26/2020	5:30 AM	00:07:09

HEALTHCARE/MENTAL HEALTH ISSUES
VIEWPOINTS, SEGMENT 1: Trauma comes in many shapes and forms throughout life. Viewpoints speaks with psychiatrist, Dr. James S. Gordon in order to better understand a person’s reaction to trauma and the body’s resilience in dealing with these stressful events and situations. With multiple tragic events that happened in Dayton, OH last year (Memorial Day Tornadoes, Oregon District shooting, etc.), this topic is relevant for the local audience.	8/2/2020	5:00 AM	00:10:23
VIEWPOINTS, SEGMENT 2: Thousands of Americans are certified cuddlers. You might be asking - what does it mean to be a ‘certified cuddler’? Christina Hepburn joins Viewpoints this week to talk about this relatively new niche and how she’s working to dissolve the stigmas associated with the industry. One of the local Dayton, OH Hospitals- Miami Valley Hospital, is running a certified cuddler programs for infants.	8/2/2020	5:00 AM	00:08:56
RADIO HEALTH JOURNAL, SEGMENT 1: Electroconvulsive therapy still has a stigma, with the reputation of being a painful, disturbing procedure that wipes out memories and, if movies are to be believed, even creates zombies. Experts explain the reality—that ECT is a quiet procedure that provokes a short brain seizure, releasing huge amounts of neurotransmitters to reset the brain in what is the quickest and most dependable treatment for severe and often suicidal depression. With suicides and attempts up dramatically across Ohio, this is a very important and relevant topic.	8/2/2020	5:30 AM	00:12:07
RADIO HEALTH JOURNAL, SEGMENT 2: Lung transplants are the least done of all major organ transplants because the lungs are so easily damaged in the death process. A lung transplant surgeon explains, using one particularly difficult case as an example. With a clinic in Dayton, Ohio providing pre-transplant evaluation and education, this is a relevant topic for the area.	8/2/2020	5:30 AM	00:08:03

HEALTHCARE/MENTAL HEALTH ISSUES
RADIO HEALTH JOURNAL, SEGMENT 2: People working at home may have no commute and can work in their pajamas, but they may find themselves more exhausted than when they worked at the office. Two experts discuss reasons for this fatigue—patterns of working at home and the surprising stress of virtual meetings. A topic that is relevant for all cities across America, with Dayton, OH not being an exception: multiple big companies in the area are still under the work-from-home order.	8/9/2020	5:30 AM	00:06:59
RADIO HEALTH JOURNAL, SEGMENT 2: A new study shows that people who have type 2 diabetes and are under chronic stress are more likely to have high blood sugar. The study's lead author and a patient discuss how stress can make diabetes worse and what people can do to counteract it. Diabetes is the No. 1 reason for hospital visits in the city of Dayton, and Montgomery County's population has a higher incidence of diabetes (almost 14%) as compared to Ohio (11.2%) and the U.S. (10.5%).	8/16/2020	5:30 AM	00:06:55
RADIO HEALTH JOURNAL, SEGMENT 2: People who injure their foot often think they have a mere sprained foot or ankle when they actually have an injury that is potentially much more severe and disabling if not treated. Experts explain the Lisfranc joint and injuries that can hurt it.	8/23/2020	5:30 AM	00:07:19
VIEWPOINTS, SEGMENT 2: All humans need some amount of rest – whether that's five hours or eight. But how we sleep and the quality of that slumber can vary widely. We speak with sleep expert, Matthew Walker, a professor at California-Berkeley, who says getting restful sleep each night is the single biggest thing we can do to vastly improve both our mental and physical health. This issue impacts many nation-wide, including those in Dayton, Ohio.	8/30/2020	5:00 AM	00:09:01

HEALTHCARE/MENTAL HEALTH ISSUES
RADIO HEALTH JOURNAL, SEGMENT 1: The next pandemic is only a matter of “when and what,” according to health security experts, who here discuss what’s needed to be ready for a variety of possible pandemics and infectious threats, both natural and terror. Is Ohio ready?	8/30/2020	5:30 AM	00:13:03
RADIO HEALTH JOURNAL, SEGMENT 2: Medicine in the Third World is vastly different than in the US, and American doctors sometimes run into unexpected hurdles when they try to bring modern medicine to impoverished nations. One such doctor describes his efforts. This is an important topic because Dayton has a large number of healthcare facilities and workers.	8/30/2020	5:30 AM	00:06:54
RADIO HEALTH JOURNAL, SEGMENT 1: Rising global temperatures have produced extreme weather and a rising sea level. Climate scientists fear we may soon reach the point of no return, resulting in a hothouse with large portions of the planet uninhabitable. Authors of a major report on this phenomenon explain. Dayton, Ohio was hit hard in 2019 with an outbreak of Memorial Day tornadoes, with 15 hitting the area within a few hours.	9/6/2020	5:30 AM	00:12:48
RADIO HEALTH JOURNAL, SEGMENT 2: Many people who are smart, talented and successful still believe they are incompetent on the inside and that others will eventually find out. This “imposter syndrome” can undermine careers and lead to psychological distress. Two noted experts in the field discuss origins and how to deal with the phenomenon.	9/6/2020	5:30 AM	00:07:05
RADIO HEALTH JOURNAL, SEGMENT 1: Pharmacists are often asked to do more work in less time than they need, and some experts worry it’s causing medication mistakes. A pharmacist specializing in medication safety discusses pressures on pharmacists and what consumers can do to protect themselves. A topic that is relevant to any community in America, including Dayton, OH.	9/13/2020	5:30 AM	00:11:15

HEALTHCARE/MENTAL HEALTH ISSUES
RADIO HEALTH JOURNAL, SEGMENT 2: Psychologists say there’s more anger in our society than ever. But they say that should be no surprise, since anger is often a reaction to uncertainty and fear. Two experts discuss the genesis of anger, how it serves a purpose, and how it can be controlled. With domestic violence incidents on the increase, this is an important topic for residents of the Dayton area.	9/13/2020	5:30 AM	00:07:54
RADIO HEALTH JOURNAL, SEGMENT 1: Pets are a comfort in difficult times, and the pandemic is no exception. Animal shelters report a surge in pet adoptions, especially puppies, in the last six months, and veterinarians are having to adopt procedures such as telemedicine to deal with the increase while still staying safe. Experts explain how adopting and training a new pet has changed in the pandemic. With Dayton, OH being a home on multiple shelters such as SISCA, Humane Society and others, this topic is relevant to the local audience.	9/20/2020	5:30 AM	00:12:36
RADIO HEALTH JOURNAL, SEGMENT 1: Studies show that medical professionals are as biased as the rest of us against people who are overweight, resulting in lectures, misdiagnoses, and patients who start avoiding the doctor. Experts explain the problem, results, and what might be done about it. With the Dayton area being home to many medical facilities and healthcare workers, this is a topic of interest.	9/27/2020	5:30 AM	00:13:15
RADIO HEALTH JOURNAL, SEGMENT 2: Rheumatoid diseases number around 100, though arthritis is the most well known. They can be crippling and sometimes even fatal, but good treatments exist. The key is early detection, as an expert explains. With many in the Dayton area becoming more health conscious, this is an important topic to increase awareness.	9/27/2020	5:30 AM	00:06:52

VIEWPOINTS, SEGMENT 2: Without inventors like Benjamin Franklin or visionaries like Elon Musk, the world would look a bit different. Both of these people and countless others followed their passion, but sometimes it can be hard to slow down and take a risk. Do you enjoy writing? Tinkering with tech? Creating music? Art? It’s never too late to forge a different career path or side hobby. We speak with Kickstarter co-founder, Yancey Strickler about some of the barriers to entry creatives face today and how to find support within a community. With Dayton, OH being a birthplace of aviation, and a home for numerous inventions, this episode is the one of great interest for the local audience.	9/13/2020	5:00 AM	00:07:19
VIEWPOINTS, SEGMENT 1: Navigating back to school this year has been challenging to say the least. With switching policies and protocols, everyone is just trying to get through the fall one day at a time. Viewpoints speaks with two education experts about the biggest barriers to learning and what online education technology can really offer students. With multiple Dayton school districts offering only a virtual learning model for the first quarter, this topic is relevant for the local audience.	9/20/2020	5:00 AM	00:10:15

VIEWPOINTS, SEGMENT 1: On a single night in the U.S. there are more than 550,000 people homeless – and this number is only set to rise as COVID-19 has put millions out of work and shattered the stability of the U.S. economy. As a child or teen who has to deal with homelessness at a young age, it can be a tough road of shifting from temporary housing to another shelter. Giselle Burgess and her five kids were in this position in New York City, so Burgess decided to start a Girl Scout Troup named Troop 6000 to help her girls and others in this situation. We cover the inspiring story of Troop 6000 this week on Viewpoints. Homelessness rates have jumped in Ohio, making this a very relevant topic.	7/19/2020	5:00 AM	00:08:04
VIEWPOINTS, SEGMENT 1: Glass, wood, stone. These are some of the natural materials that are on the forefront of construction. Today, a greater number of architects and developers are not only thinking about profit and supply, but the additional - sometimes invisible - factors at play when it comes to new buildouts. These include the true benefits to humans, the environmental toll and the most practical designs that are symbiotic with nature. We uncover the modern perspective of ‘conscious construction’ this week on Viewpoints. With new construction being on the rise, this topic is relevant for the Dayton, OH audience.	7/26/2020	5:00 AM	00:10:42
VIEWPOINTS, SEGMENT 1: The U.S. has the largest prison population in the world with more than 2.3 million inmates. Each year, prisons cost taxpayers 80 billion dollars. But with two thirds of those incarcerated returning back behind bars within a few years, clearly something is broken. We discuss how some popular reforms do more harm than good and what needs to change within the system. With Dayton, OH housing three correctional institutions, this topic is relevant for the local audience.	8/30/2020	5:00 AM	00:09:14

VIEWPOINTS, SEGMENT 1: Americans spent 700 billion dollars on groceries in 2018. Across the U.S., there are more than 38,000 supermarkets, each stocking thousands and thousands of distinct products. But what is the human cost of this mass consumerism? Well, the burden largely falls on low-paid workers at each level of food production and distribution - and the pandemic has only exacerbated many of these problems.	9/27/2020	5:00 AM	00:11:49
