ECONOMY	PROGRAM	DATE
The Federal Trade Commission proposed banning noncompete clauses that prevent workers from switching employers or starting a new business. About one in five Americans, approximately 30 million people, are affected by these policies. (Duration: 4 min, 43 sec)	PBS NewsHour	1/5/23 @ 6 pm
Friday's jobs report signaled good news for those who are worried about a recession and inflation. It also capped a very strong year for the jobs market overall with more than 4.5 million new jobs created in 2022. That's the second-highest year since record-keeping began in 1939, but it still suggests that it's hard to find enough workers for some jobs. (Duration: 5 min, 24 sec)	PBS NewsHour	1/6/23 @ 6 pm
Inflation rates fell for the sixth consecutive month, but Americans are still feeling the pinch from higher than usual prices. Many have been forced to pull out their credit cards, even while interest rates on those cards are soaring. (Duration: 4 min, 47 sec)	PBS NewsHour	1/12/23 @ 6 pm
The U.S. is expected to bump into its borrowing limit in just a few days. The Treasury Department said it is taking "extraordinary measures" to allow the country to keep paying its debts for now, but Congress must vote to raise the debt ceiling. (Duration: 8 min, 49 sec)	PBS NewsHour	1/17/23 @ 6 pm
Job growth surged last month, shaking off fears of a hiring slowdown. Employers added 517,000 jobs in a hiring boom far stronger than anyone had expected. The jobless rate dropped to 3.4 percent, the lowest level in 53 years. The report underscores the challenges facing Federal Reserve officials who remain focused on slowing inflation. (Duration: 6 min, 40 sec)	PBS Newshour	2/3/23 @ 6 pm
Intending to address the nation's soaring rent prices, the Biden administration announced a new effort to protect tenants and make renting more affordable. The plan comes after a year of	PBS Newshour	2/13/23 @ 6 pm meetings with industry and tenant advocates. (Duration: 6 min, 13 sec)

Rescue shelters are feeling pressure with too many potential pets and not enough people adopting them. Inflation has made owning and caring for a pet more expensive, leaving some owners struggling to afford rising costs. (Duration: 4 min, 37 sec)	PBS NewsHour	2/20/23 @ 6 pm
Every second, the U.S. falls about $43,000 deeper into debt. Lawmakers will need to raise the country's borrowing limit in the coming months to avoid a catastrophic financial fallout at home and around the world. (Duration: 7 min, 44 sec)	PBS Newshour	2/23/23 @ 6 pm

Age of Easy Money: Around the country and across the world, the threat of a recession is looming and economic uncertainty is rising as markets, businesses and individuals adjust to a new reality: the Federal Reserve is raising interest rates and pulling back on its epic monetary experiment that started with the Great Financial Crisis. (Duration: 2 hrs)	Frontline	3/14/23 @ 8 pm
EDUCATION	PROGRAM	DATE
The Biden administration released a new student loan payment plan that would lower monthly payments for millions of borrowers and pause them completely for some. There's been a freeze on loan repayments throughout the pandemic, but that's coming to an end in June. The new proposal comes while plans to cancel some of the debt are held up in court. (Duration: 5 min, 13 sec)	PBS NewsHour	1/10/23 @ 6 pm
Florida's governor defended his administration's decision to block a course on African American studies from the state's public schools. They said teaching Black history is required in Florida schools, but the Advanced Placement course amounted to "indoctrination." (Duration: 8 min, 16 sec)	PBS NewsHour	1/23/23 @ 6 pm

It's been more than a year since most American schoolchildren returned to the classroom full time. Now, school districts are working to recover learning lost while kids were at home during the pandemic. Researchers say students in high-poverty areas lost the most. (Duration: 7 min, 35 sec)	PBS NewsHour	1/27/23 @ 6 pm
