WWPR-FM
Quarterly Issues/Programs List

---

WWPR-FM provides its listeners with programming and public service announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- Arts: Tomorrow morning we're joined by The Experimental Dance Group to talk about their WILL ROCK INTO YOUR SOUL fund-raising event taking place Tuesday, March 15, 2016 at Coppi Di Matilda, 647 East 11th Street. The Experimental Dance Group (EDG) is a children's dance company trained in the Katherine Dunham technique. They prepare students for auditions and teach them about the life-changing power of dance. POTB airs ever Sunday at 7AM on Power 105.1 FM - streaming live on iHeartRadio
- Bullying: STOMP Out Bullying , is the leading national anti-bullying and cyberbullying organization for kids and teens in the U.S. They focuses on reducing and preventing bullying, cyberbullying, sexting and other digital abuse, educating against homophobia, racism and hatred, decreasing school absenteeism, and deterring violence in schools, online and in communities across the country. Join us this Sunday as founder, Ross, talks about this awesome organization and how they teach effective solutions to all forms of bullying. Ross will talk about the importance of educating kids and teens in school and online, providing help for those in need and at risk of suicide, raising awareness, peer mentoring programs in schools, public service announcements by noted celebrities and social media campaigns.
- Education: Tomorrow morning at 7A we're joined by Sandra E. Timmons, President of A Better Chance. Since 1963, A Better Chance has been opening the door to educational opportunities for thousands of young people in the U.S. Their mission is to increase substantially the number of well-educated young people of color who are capable of assuming positions of responsibility and leadership in American society. They carry out their mission through their signature College Preparatory Schools Program - registration starts in February. Tune in and learn more! Check them out online: www.abetterchance.org
- Hip Hop History: For the LOVE of # HipHop -- Tomorrow morning on POTB, we're joined by Rocky Bucano, President of the Universal Hip Hop Museum: the official museum of hip-hop. Founded by hip-hop pioneers, the long-awaited museum opens its doors in 2018. Tune in to learn about this crucial piece of history and how you can get involved in preserving it! POTB airs ever Sunday at 7AM on Power 105.1 FM - streaming live on iHeartRadio! Support the Universal Hip Hop Museum's

Kick Starter <http://www.uhnm.org>

- Hunger: It's the first week of 2016 and we're tackling hunger in NYC. Through its network of more than 1,000 charities and schools citywide, Food Bank NY provides food for approximately 64 million free meals per year for New Yorkers in need. That number is growing as thousands of New Yorkers are at risk of losing their benefits. Food Bank For New York City has been the city (tm)s major hunger-relief organization working to end hunger throughout the five boroughs for more than 30 years. Tune in to learn how they help to provide food to the neediest communities, and how you can help, too. www.foodbanknyc.org
- Job Training: Year Up New York is a one-year, intensive training program that provides low-income young adults, ages 18-24, with a combination of hands-on skill development, college credits, and corporate internships. They've grown to two locations in the city to serve many more urban young adults from across all five boroughs. Want to learn more? Tune in and check out Year UP! online at www.yearup.org
- LGBT: Tomorrow morning at 7AM we're joined by Joyce Thorax of NYC LGBT Center. The Center has been a home and resource hub for the LGBT community, NYC residents and visitors since 1983. They provide a place to connect and engage, find camaraderie and support, and celebrate the vibrancy and growth of the LGBT community. Check out what this awesome organization is doing for New Yorkers, and don't forget to visit their website: www.gaycenter.org
- Love: Tomorrow morning we're joined by Angelot Ndongmo, an award winning and best selling children's author. Angelot will talk about the Loving Me Series and her mission to awaken children to spread love by establishing self-love, through beautiful images of story telling. Tune in to hear about the #nomorehairbullying movement and more! POTB airs ever Sunday at 7AM on Power 105.1 FM - streaming live on iHeartRadio
- Mentorship: January is National Mentorship Month ~ Big Brothers Big Sisters of NYC is in need of mentors. BBBS of NYC is considered the founding agency of the nation (tm)s youth mentoring movement. Since 1904, their mission has been to give all children in New York City who face adversity an opportunity to experience a strong, enduring professionally supported one-to-one mentoring relationship with adults that will help change their lives for the better. Diego of BBBS joins us tomorrow morning at 7AM to give more details on how you can make a difference in the life of a young person.www.BIGSnyc.org!
- Parks: Central Park Conservancy, a private, not-for-profit organization, was formed in 1980 by a group of concerned citizens determined to improve Central Park. Today, they manage Central Park under a contract with the City of New York. Over their 160-year history, the Park has experienced several cycles of restoration and decline. The era of decline in the 1960s and 1970s led to Central Park Conservancy's formation. Central Park Conservancy is uniquely qualified to prevent future declines and ensure the Park's care for current and future generations. Tune in Sunday morning at 7AM to learn more about what they do and how you can get involved. More online at www.centralparknyc.org!

- Poverty: Tomorrow morning at 7A we're joined by Shambhavi Manglik of the Robin Hood Foundation. Robin Hood is New York's largest poverty-fighting organization, and since 1988 has focused on finding, funding and creating programs that generate meaningful results for families in New York's poorest neighborhoods. Since its founding, Robin Hood has raised more than $1.95 billion in dollars, goods and services to provide hundreds of the most effective soup kitchens, homeless shelters, schools, job-training programs and other vital services that give New Yorker in need the tools to build better lives. Want to learn more about the work of this organization? Tune in & don't forget to check them out online: <https://www.robinhood.org>
- Voting: Tomorrow morning we're joined by Rock the Vote to talk about the importance of voting - no vote, no voice! Everyone should be registered to vote in the 2016 election. Now more than ever, it's crucial your voice is heard at the ballot box! Rock The Vote joins us to talk about voter registration / deadlines in New York / New Jersey, how to get involved as a Rock The Vote Volunteer and more. POTB airs ever Sunday at 7AM on Power 105.1 FM - streaming live on iHeartRadio!
