WWPR-FM
Quarterly Issues/Programs List

WWPR-FM provides its listeners with programming and public service announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- LUPE: We're joined by Tanya of La Union del Pueblo Entero - LUPE at 8AM! Founded by Cesar Chavez, LUPE is a community union, rooted in the belief that members of the low-income community have the responsibility and the obligation to organize themselves. Tanya Chavez & the Robert F. Kennedy Human Rights Foundation have helped organized a hunger strike to protest the crisis at our nation's border. Tune in, learn more and get involved: www.lupenet.org
- Non-Profit Organization: Is a non profit organization that teaches youths the importance of Performance Art in Theater.
- NYC Parks: Want to help keep NYC beautiful? NYC Parks account for more than 30,000 acres of land " 14 percent of New York City " including more than 5,000 individual properties. They can't do it without volunteers like you. Tune in and learn more about their recreational activities, athletic facilities and programs before the summer comes to an end.
- POTB Bottomless Closet: Bottomless Closet just raised $800,000 for women, and they're just getting started. This nonprofit organization works to reduce the barriers New York City women face in the search for employment as well as provide ongoing support and education so they gain the tools to succeed in their professional careers. BC is in need of plus sized clothing and bilingual volunteers. Check out this show and learn how you can make a big difference in the lives of women.
- POTB League of Yes!: Tomorrow we're joined by Kristine and executive director of League Of Yes! Their mission is to establish and sustain baseball programs for people of all ages and disabilities (or ABILITIES). They have an objective to provide opportunities of individuals to experience the joy and benefit that comes from playing ball. Tune in and learn more at 7am.
- Reading Literacy: Did you know, according to the U.S. Dept. of Education, 85% of America (tm)s black male 4th grade students are not proficient in reading? Barbershop Books is out to change that and making big strides. Barbershop Books is a 501(c)(3) organization that creates child-friendly reading spaces in barbershops and provides early literacy training to barbers across America. Tune in at 7A to hear from BSB founder, Alvin Irby. Learn more about the and about their July 18th FREE Summer Book Giveaway at The Boys & Girls Club of Harlem!

- Technology: Non-Profit organization that increases economic opportunity through technology
- Volunteerism: This Sunday we were joined by Antwone Roberts of NYC Service to learn more about NYC's Youth Leadership Councils, City Service Corps and Love Your Block projects. NYC Service promotes volunteerism, engages New Yorkers in service, builds volunteer capacity and mobilizes the power of volunteers and national service members to impact New York City (tm)s greatest needs. If you missed this show or want to learn how you can get FREE money for community beautification projects in your 'hood, check them out online:
- VOTING: Is an 28 year old organization driven at getting young people to understand and registered to vote.
